From the French of M. Berquin.

Extract from the Preface.

Extract from the Preface.

"To the honer of Mr. Berquin's tafte, it may be faid, that he has united fimple elegance with interesting variety, but rigidly separated both from the slightest approach of whatever is vulgar or prerise: a merit much more easily praised than imitated. The art of annusing child ea, whilst at the same time the Instant Genius is raised and the Heart mended, appears from his works to be no contemptible effort of the mind. Wherever, therefore, the utility of such an undertaking is acknowledged, the reputation of Mr. Berquin must ever be held in deserved esteem.

"Happily such is the agreeable versatility of Mr. Berquin's style and genius, that it would be dishere to pronounce in what department he excels; whether in the lively or the pathetic; the snupple language of narrative, or the animated points of conversation: whether in shrewd remarks upon private lite, or in florid description of the beauties of nature.

"Pieces of every various excellence that is to be found in the writing, of Mr. Berquin, compose the following volume, which, it is hoped, will be thought a valuable substitute (whe, e such may be preferred) to the larger and more extensive works of the fame author."
