JOHN HOWARD, Esq. L. L. D., F. R. S.
Embellished with striking likenesses of that Citizen of the World.
By JOHN AIKEN, M. D.
To which is subjoined an ODE inscribed to John Howard, by William Bayley, Esq.

FROM realm to realm, with crofs or crescent crown'd,
Where'er mankind and misery are found,
O'er burning sands, deep waves, or wilds of snow,
Great HOWARD journeying seeks the house of woe.
Down many a winding step to dungeons dank,
Where clang with wails aloud, and fetters clank:
To caves bestrew'd with many a mould'ring ring bones,
And cells, whose echoes only learn to groan;
—Onward he moves!—Disease and death retire,
And nurm'ring demons hate him, and admire.

Select Stories,

For the instruction and amusement of YOUTH. Adapted to the use of Schools.
From the French of M. Berquin.

Extra'd from the Preface.

"To the honor of Mr. Berquin's taste, it may be said, that he has united simple elegance with interesting variety, but rigidly separated both from the slightest approach of whatever is vulgar or puerile: a merit much more easily praised than imitated. The art of an amusing child, whilst at the same time the infant Genius is raised and the heart softened, appears from his works to be no contemptible effort of the mind. Wherever, therefore, the utility of such an undertaking is acknowledged, the reputation of Mr. Berquin must ever be held in deserved esteem.

"Happily such is the agreeable versatility of Mr. Berquin's style and genius, that it would be difficult to pronounce in what department he excels: whether in the lively or the pathetic; the simple language of narrative, or the animated points of conversation; whether his throwed remarks upon private life, or his florid description of the beauties of nature.

"Pieces of every various excellence that is to be found in the writings of Mr. Berquin, compose the following volume, which, it is hoped, will be thought a valuable substitute (where such may be preferred) to the larger and more extensive works of the same author."

FOR SALE, the following

Tracts of Land, in Virginia.

ONE tract in Frederick county, containing 8756 acres, being part of that whereon col. Thomas Bryan Martin now resides, known by the name of Greenway court, about 12 miles from Winchester and 5 from Newtown. For the convenience of purchasers, it will be divided into parcels of various dimensions from 200 to 600 acres, which may be viewed by application to col. R. K. Meade, living near the premises—The greater part is very fertile and well timbered.

Another tract in the same county on Passage creek, containing 230 acres, and adjoining Jacob Levingoods.

Another tract in Hampshire county, containing by patent, 699 acres, called Slim Bottom, situate on both sides of the South Branch and within two miles of the mouth of it, and is supposed to have a good mill feat.

Another tract in Hampshire county on New Creek and Kettle-Lick, containing 501 acres.

Another tract in Prince William county, called Leelyvania, containing upwards of 2000 acres, lying upon Potomack river, about 23 miles below Alexandria, and 28 below the City of Washington, comprehending Freestone Point, which appears to be a quarry of free-stone, covering about 60 acres and adjoins the river, where vessels of 300 tons conveniently harbour. On another part of this tract it is supposed there is a quarry of slate, convenient to water carriage. Upwards of two thirds are in woods. Mr. Enoch S. Lane, living on the premises, will show this tract.

Another tract, in Fairfax county, called Springfield, containing 2040 1/2 acres, about 13 miles from Alexandria and 10 from Washington; abounds with fine springs and meadow ground, and may be seen by applying to Mr. John Wood, living on part of it.

Another tract in Fairfax county, containing 392 acres, on Turkey-cock Run, about 6 miles from Alexandria.

Another tract in Fairfax county, containing about 76 acres, adjoining Mr. J. Watson's feat, about four miles from Alexandria.

Another tract, in Fairfax county, containing 513 acres, near Occoquan, joining Mr. Edward Washington's.

Another tract, in Fairfax county, containing 80 acres or thereabout, within a mile of Pohick Landing, and within five miles of Mount Vernon, lies level, and is well timbered.

An undivided moiety in another tract, containing about 284 acres, in Fairfax county, about 5 miles from Washington, & 9 from Alexandria, where J. Robinson formerly lived.

Another parcel of land, within a mile of Alexandria, containing about 24 acres, and to be sold in acre or half-acre lots.

Also, sundry unimproved lots of various sizes, in different parts of the town of Alexandria.

Indefinite the premises more particularly is deemed unnecessary, as it is expected every person will examine and view whatever part he shall be inclined to buy. My only object being to raise a certain sum of money, by selling so many or such parts of the aforesaid tracts of land and lots as shall be necessary for that purpose, one half of the purchase money must be paid at the time of contract, and the other within a year from the first day of August next, and at the time of delivering possession or executing a legal conveyance. The lands remaining unsold, except the tract in Prince William, after raising a limited sum, will be divided into tenements, and leased for a term of years. From the 12th day of October next, till the 15th of December, I shall be in the city of Richmond, and after that time I shall remain at home, in Alexandria, at which places, or elsewhere, I shall be prepared to detail particulars, and to enter into contracts.
