ADDRESS.
The Public are respectfully informed that the Subscriptions for this Gazette are daily increasing in the City—that its circulation is extensive, being sent to every State in the Union, and is probably exchanged with some papers in the different States than any other Gazette—these circumstances enhance its utility as an advertising Vehicle.
The generous patronage which the publication has already received, demands the Editor's most grateful acknowledgments —He solicits a continuation of advertising favours. From these principally arise the resources which enable the publisher of a daily paper to extend his plan of general entertainment and information.

imen of the private buildings to be erected in the City of Washington—Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire fronts on two of the public squares; from these drawings, it is proposed to erect two centre and four corner buildings, as soon as possible after this Lottery is sold, and to convey them when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A net deduction of five per cent. will be made to defray the necessary expenses of printing, &c. and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be erected within the City of Washington.

The drawing will commence as soon the 25th day of December next: The settle the whole business in a year from the ending of the drawing and to take up the bonds given as security.

The real securities given for the payment of the Prizes, are held by the President and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the Lottery. The drawing will be under

50 Dollars Reward.
RAN away very unexpectedly from the Subscriber, on Saturday the 11th October, A Mulatto Man, named George, by his acquaintance called George Evan, about 25 years old, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, bright and well made he has long bushy black hair, which he commonly wears quod, his cheek bones rather high, his laugh simple; he has always served as a waiter, was a favorite servant, and spoiled by excessive indulgence, understands dressing and shaving, and plays well on the violin: he took with him a brown suffian coat and jacket, bound with yellow silk ferrits, a pair of light coloured la-gathy breeches and light boots; as he had many other cloaths of cloth and light summer wear, it is probable he may change his cloath, it is supposed he has crossed over into Virginia.
Whoever secures the above man he receive the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home.
All Masters of Vessels will receive him vance, as declining to take the Paper any longer.

As there is a considerable Sum due from remote Subscribers for the late half Weekly Paper published by the Editor, he most earnestly requests those who may be delinquent, to take the earliest opportunity of remitting him the balance they may respectively be indebted—the sums are individually trifling—the want of the Aggregate is severely felt.

broad cloth coat and different kinds of clothes.
