The Publisher is respectfully informed that the Subscribers of this Gazette are daily increasing in the City—and its circulation is extensive, being sent to every state in the Union—and is probably exchanged with more Printers in the different States than any other Gazette—these circumstances enhance its utility as an advertising Vehicle.
The generous patronage which the publication has already received, demands the Editor's most grateful acknowledgments —He solicits a continuation of advertising favors. From these principally arise the resources which enable the publisher of a daily paper to extend his plan, of general entertainment and information.

the City of Washington—Two beautiful designs are already fixed for the centre fronts on two of the public squares; from these drawings, it is proposed to erect two centre and four corner buildings, as soon as possible after this Lottery is sold, and to convey them when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A net dividend of five per cent. will be made to defray the neces-plus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be erected after it is finished, and any prizes for which fortunate numbers are not produced, within twelve months after the drawing is closed are settle the whole business in a year from the ending of the drawing and to take up the bonds given as security.

The real securities given for the payment of the Prizes, are held by the President, and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the Lottery. The drawing will be under the management of 24 gentlemen approved by the commissioners for the City of Washington, for the time being, and acting on oath.

50 Dollars Reward.

RAN away very unexpectedly from the Subscriber, on Saturday the 11th October, A Mulatto Man, named George, by his acquaintance called George Evans, about 25 years old, 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, straight and well made he has long bushy black hair, which he commonly wears quied, his cheek bones rather high, his nose simple; he has always served as a waiter, was a favorite for want and spoiled by excessive indulgence, understands dressing and shaving, and plays well on the violin; he took with him a brown lithian coat and jacket, bound with yellow silk laces; a pair of light coloured sa-tany breeches and buff boots; as he had many other cloaths of cloth and light summer wear, it is probable he may change his dress, if it is supposed he has crossed over into Virginia.
Whoever secures the above man shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home.
All Masters of Vessels will receive him on board their vessel.

Distant Subscribers
For this Gazette, are hereby respectfully requested to pay up their Subscriptions to the first of January next. The Editor will be under the necessity of discontinuing those who do not then renew their Subscription by paying six Months in advance, as declining to take the Paper any longer.

As there is a considerable sum due from remote Subscribers for the late half Weekly Paper published by the Editor, he most earnestly requests those who may be delinquent, to take the earliest opportunity of settling him the balance they may respectively be indebted—the sums are individually small, and the favor of the Agreement is severely felt.

Forty Dollars Reward.
RAN away from the Subscriber, in Woodbury, Gloucester County, New Jersey, on Sunday morning the 21st inst., a fine look; Tom is of an open countenance, of a yellowish colour, and much disposed to laugh.

They are slightly active fellows, and but little short of six feet high; they were both well dressed; Jack had on a blue broad cloth coat, and different kinds of clothes.
Whoever takes up said servants, and secures them in any part in the United States, so that their masters may get them again, shall receive the above reward and reasonable expenses.
