ITALY, September 6.

Two French Frigates have, according to report, lately sunk an English frigate on the African coast and taken four merchantmen richly laden estimated at four millions of livres; these prizes were carried into Toulon.

PARIS, Sept. 8.

A division of armed vessels commanded by Citizen Loidet, returned from a cruise on the African coast: He burnt 3 ships of the enemy, and brought in 6 very rich prizes.

September 27.

Among the 94 persons who were since the 8th inst. before the Revolutionary Tribunal, and who mostly came from Nantz, are the following rich merchants of that city:

Crignon,	Charlemont la Thebaudiere,
Chaurand,	Clauchey,
Malmule,	Onfroy,
Balan,	Villeneuve Assistant Breville,
Villeneuve Assistant Breville,	of the Public ac-
of the Public ac-	Perrin, the ex-con-
of the Public ac-	seuer of Nantz,
of the Public ac-	fituent.
Tebaut,	Duchefoe Dupare,
Puffin,	ship broke, 60 years
Puffin,	old.
Jailant,	Pecot, administrator
Espivant, an ex nob.	of the department
Forget,	Latour,
Mercier,	Reutenilt, and
Lumansf,	Pichelin.

The above prisoners have been treated with the utmost inhumanity, and were marked out to be shot on their way to Paris. Their defence is excellent. The authors of their suffering have been brought before the Revolutionary Tribunal.

UNITED STATES.

NEW-YORK, December 1.

We announce, that the steeple to St. Paul's Church is finished. The last scaffolding was struck on Saturday. This truly beautiful fabric, though constructed wholly of timber, exhibits an appearance of compactness and solidity equal to any stone structure of the kind; and while it displays the skill of the architect, it evinces the good taste of the gentlemen of the Vestry.

Three days ago, arrived here Capt. Silliman spoke a schooner 18 days from Barbadoes, bound from Virginia. The captain informed him that a fleet of men of war, and transports were arrived there from England; and that four 74 gun ships were come into the harbour the night before he failed, and the rest were lying off.

PHILADELPHIA,

DECEMBER 5.

From a Correspondent.

If our Jacobins pretend that such combinations are to be dreaded only by despotic governments, for instance such as the old system of France they should be reminded that the first French Constitution was extol'd by them to the stars—yet the Jacobin Clubs undermined and laid it in ruins: America is a bylander, let her take warning.

In a free country, if combinations of men like the amusement of an insurrection why should they not be indulged—provided they will pay the charge?

Our party men sometimes affect the frut of patriotism for their opposition.—It is an advantage, they say. The advantage of having a house divided against itself is—that it will not stand.

We do not find that Captain Hughes brings Paris papers later than those we were already in possession of, viz to October 6. The intelligence he communicates verbally was noticed in our last. The capture of Helvoetsluys and Rotterdam were events currently believed some days before he left Bourdeaux, the intelligence respecting a third defeat of General Clairfayt near Juliers was received just before he failed. The following is an extract of a letter from a person in Bourdeaux of which Capt. Hughes was bearer. [Aurora.]

“There is great news from the northward. The Austrians have been defeated; 4,000 killed, 800 taken prisoners and the city and forts of Juliers taken with a great number of cannon. The baggage of the Austrians was taken with 40 pieces of cannon.”

Capt. Robertson, of the ship Margaret, 49 days from Lisbon—October 28th, in lat. 40. 30. long. 36, fell in with a French Squadron of four frigates, and four sloops of war, on a cruise; at the same time he was boarded by one of the frigates—their destination unknown. On the 4th ultimo, in lat. 39. long. 5, he spoke the ship Pacific, Capt. Kennedy, from Charleston, bound to Amsterdum, out 24 days, in a very leaky condition. The 12, in lat. 36. 17, spoke a brig from Providence, bound to Surinam, out 5, days.

Capt. M'Pherfon of the ship Jane, in 60 days from Hamburg, on Sunday last week, spoke the ship Hope, of and from New-York, bound to London, out two days all well—the ship Aurora, Suter, was to fail in a few days after him for this port.—In the Jane, came eight passengers.

DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY.

New-York, 26th Nov. 1794.

Whereas this Society on the 5th inst. did resolve, That in their opinion, “the address of citizen James Monroe, our minister to the National Convention of France, is becoming the Representative of a free and enlightened people, and meets our warmest approbation. And whereas, at that time, the letter of credit from the President of the United States to citizen Monroe, and the two letters of address from the Secretary of State to the committee of public safety of the French Republic, were not made public—It is therefore resolved, as the opinion of this Society, that the letter of credit of the President of the United States to our minister Plenipotentiary at Paris, conveys the sentiments of every genuine republican and friend to the rights of man; especially when he expresses “the wishes of the United States for the happiness of our Allies and of drawing closer the bonds of our amity”—Resolved, as the opinion of this Society; That the letters from Edmund Randolph, Secretary of State to the Committee of Public Safety, dated 10th and 16th June last, declaring the good wishes of both Houses of Congress for the success and prosperity of the Republic of France, are evidences of the sincere affection and regard of the citizens of the United States for their brave friends and allies who are now contending for the same Liberty which they once afforded us to obtain.

By order of the Society,
Azarias Williams, dep. Sec.

The members of St. Andrew's Society met on Monday, at the City Tavern, in order to celebrate the anniversary of their tutelar Saint, on which occasion they were honored with the company of the President and other officers of the Hibernian Society.

After partaking of an elegant collation, the following toasts were given:

1. The immortal memory of St. Andrew.
2. The Land of Cakes.
3. The President, and the United States of America.
4. The Sons of St. Andrew around the globe.
5. The government and state of Pennsylvania.
6. The Hibernian Society, and all the sons of St. Patrick.
7. The bonnie lass in “a’ the world.”
8. The German Society; may their charitable labours be crowned with success.
9. The American Fair; may every son of St. Andrew prove worthy of their esteem.
10. The universal triumph of general Liberty.
11. Scotchmen and Scotchmen's Bairs, and those who lie in Scotchmen's arms.
12. The Soldiers of our late western army, the patriotic Defenders of our Constitution and Laws.
13. General Wayne and the army of the United States.
14. The American Congress; may they continue an illustrious example to all free Republics.
15. The Constitution of the United States, and all its firm supporters.

The gentlemen elected to officiate for the ensuing year, were,

The hon. James Wilson, Esq. President.

The Rev. Dr. W. Smith, } V. Pre-
James Craig, Esq. } sidents.
Richard Lake, Esq. Secretary.
Mr. John Shields, Treasurer.

Assistants—Messrs. Thomas Leiper, Robert Henderson, James Henderson, Dr. Andrew Spence, Gavin Hamilton, jun. William H. Tod.

Counsellors—Wm. Moore Smith, Esq. Richard Lake, Esq. Wm. H. Todd, Esq.

Physicians—Dr. Andrew Ross, Dr. William Currie, Dr. Wm. McKaine, Committee to assist emigrants from Scotland to America—Mr. Robert Smith, Mr. Thomas Leiper, Mr. Wm. Young, Mr. Thomas Carfans, Richard Lake, Esq.

From a correspondent in M'Pherfon's Blues.
Camp at Greensburgh,
November 22.

Nothing in the way of news, but that the prisoners our legion brought from Washington, were left at Putt, under guard of the garrison.

The Philadelphia horse are on their way home.

The rest of the Pennsylvania troops are at this place, and wait the arrival of their waggons.

The Jersey troops are a few miles behind.

At this place we have fold our stores, and every man takes his blanket and what else he can carry in his knapsack, and the corps proceed to Philadelphia without waiting for the waggons; which (containing the residue of baggage) will come at leisure, as the roads are so bad as to prevent us making any speed thro' them with waggons; by this method we shall be enabled to reach you by the 10th—15th of December. More snow.

By this Day's Mail.

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 22.

The army having completed the business which called them to the field, viz.—restoring order and a submission to the laws in this country, without firing a gun or seeing any person that would acknowledge himself an insurgent, are now on their return home.

Governor Mifflin, escorted by the Lancaster and Berks county troops of horse, left this place on Tuesday last; and the day following the whole of the Pennsylvania line under the command of Major Gen. Irvine.

Governor Howell, with the Jersey troops, marched on Friday. We hear that part of the Jersey horse will pass through Northumberland county—we regret that some restless, discontented characters inhabit that part of the state.

The Virginia and Maryland lines are also on their return home.

The Secretary of the Treasury of the United States left this town on Wednesday last for the seat of government.

November 29.

Major-General Morgan who is appointed to command the troops left in this country, has established his head-quarters at Bentley's farm, on the Monongahela, where they have erected a fortification.

On Tuesday last, Judge Peters and Mr. Rawley, the attorney for the United States for this district, closed the examinations of the persons apprehended in this country, said to have been active in the late insurrection—some were discharged, others held to bail, and the following persons sent under guard, to Philadelphia for trial, viz.

John Hamilton, Robert Porter,
John Lockary, Caleb Mountz,
M. Curtis, John Black,
Thomas Burney, James Kerr,
John Corbley, David Bolton,
Wm. Crawford, Isaac Walker,
John Barret, T. Sedgwick, Esq.
James Stewart, Joseph Scott.

We sincerely lament that a few designing persons should have had such an influence in this country as to draw into their diabolical schemes men who have heretofore been esteemed good and peaceable citizens. Those persons who signed the circular letter to the different commandants of regiments to assemble their men at Braddock's Field, and who concerted and had executed the plan for robbing the mail, will, if not in this world, in that which is to come, have to answer for all the distress and misery which have befallen this country.

We hear that the party of men that went in pursuit of David Bradford, came up with him near Limestone, but could not take him—he had a guard of 16 men, and the party consisted of but eight.

ADDRESS.

The Public are respectfully informed that the Subscriptions for this Gazette are daily increasing in the City—that its circulation is extensive, being sent to every state in the Union—and is probably exchanged with more Printers in the different States than any other Gazette—these circumstances enhance its utility as an advertising Vehicle.

The generous patronage which the publication has already received, demands the Editor's most grateful acknowledgments—He solicits a continuation of advertising favors. From these principally arise the resources which enable the publisher of a daily paper to extend his plan of general entertainment and information.

CONGRESS

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,

Thursday, December 4.

A bill for the relief of Peter Covenhoven was reported by Mr. Beatty, twice read and committed.

A committee was appointed to bring in a bill or bills, for the relief of sick and disabled seamen.

The following resolutions introduced by Mr. W. Smith, were taken up and passed unanimously.

Resolved, that the thanks of this House be given to Major Gen. Wayne, for the good conduct and bravery displayed by him in the action of the 20th August last, with the Indians.

Resolved unanimously, that the thanks of this House be given to the brave Officers and Soldiers of the Legion under the orders of Major Gen. Wayne, for their patience, fortitude and bravery.

Resolved, that the thanks of this House be given to Major Gen. Scott, and to the gallant mounted volunteers from the state of Kentucky, who have served their country in the field, during the late campaign, under the orders of Major General Wayne, for their zeal, bravery and good conduct.

On motion of Mr. Parker,
Resolved, that the President of the United States be requested to transmit the foregoing resolutions—and that Mr. W. Smith, and Mr. Murray be appointed to wait on the President therewith.

On motion of Mr. Murray—
Resolved unanimously, that the thanks of this House be given to the gallant officers and privates of the militia of the states of New-Jersey, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Virginia, who on the late call of the President, rallied round the standard of the laws, and in the prompt and severe services which they encountered, bore the most illustrious testimony to the value of the constitution, and the blessings of internal peace and order; and that the President be requested to communicate the above vote of thanks in such manner as he may judge most acceptable to the patriotic citizens who are its objects.

Mr. W. Smith and Mr. Murray were appointed a committee to wait on the President with this resolution.

A report was read from the committee on that part of the President's speech which refers to fortifications—referred to the committee of the whole.

The House in committee of the whole made further progress in the militia compensation-bill. Adjourned.

In the London Morning Chronicle of October 3d, proposals are published for a new daily paper, under the title of THE TELEGRAPH.

PORT OF PHILADELPHIA

ARRIVED.

Days.
Schr. Magdalena, Billis, St. Thomas 17

Sloop N. York Packet, Bell, Guadalupe 16,

Capt. Billis informs, that on Saturday last he spoke a Brig belonging to N. London, from Turks Island, homeward bound the Captain of which informed him that in the lat. of 84, he fell in with a Philadelphia built ship, sunk, with all her masts and rigging, standing, totally deserted.

In the brig Flora Capt. in Cassin, from the Havannah, in 12 days, are arrived, Mr. Combe, Mr. Manly, and Mr. Bennett, who were passengers in the ship Dorset Captain Edmunds, bound from Jamaica to London, whose capture by the La Liberte privateer we noticed on the Good Hope's arrival at this place. They relate that the privateer also captured on the 23th October, the ship Chaser, Captain King from Jamaica bound to London, and that on the 28th, while off Cape Antonio, the Dorset was retaken by the Spanish frigate Santa Perpetua, of 36 guns, commanded by Don Juan Elizaga. The Chaser was recaptured early next morning, and the same evening she made a prize of the privateer. The frigate and her prizes safely arrived at the Havannah on the 4th November, early on which morning and evening preceding, the Dorset was attacked by a small French schooner privateer which she beat off.

The passengers speak in the highest terms of disapprobation of the conduct of the Spaniards towards them, the Spanish seamen having plundered all their linen and other articles that had been kept on board the privateer, intending to be restored them on their arrival at Charleston, to which place they were bound when recaptured.

When they left the Havannah, the fate of the British ships was not decided, it was however believed they and their cargoes would be sold there. Captain King waited the decision.

The Flora left the Havanna on the evening of the 14th, and on the 19th, in lat. 24, 6, fell in with a Jamaica fleet, bound to Great Britain, under convey of a 74, 44, 2 frigates and a sloop of war—The same day she an American brig from Jamaica bound to Baltimore. On the 28th, spoke the schooner Hannah or Sufannah, from Savannah bound to Boston out 10 days.

A Charity Sermon will be preached on Sunday the seventh inst. at St. Mary's, for the benefit of the Poor of said Church.
