imen of the private buildings to be erected in the City of Washington—Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire fronts on two of the public squares; from these drawings, it is proposed to erect two centre and four corner buildings, as soon as possible after this Lottery is sold, and to convey them when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A net deduction of five per cent. will be made to defray the necessary expenses of printing, &c. and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be erected within the City of Washington.

The drawing will commence as soon as the Tickets are sold, or at all events on Monday, the 22nd of December next. The money prizes will be payable in thirty days after it is finished, and any prizes for which fortunate numbers are not produced within twelve months after the drawing is closed to be considered as given towards the funds for the University, it being determined to settle the whole business in a year from the ending of the drawing, and to take up the bonds given as security.

The prizes for the payment of the Prizes, are held by the President and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the Lottery. The drawing will be under the management of 24 gentlemen approved by the commissioners for the City of Washington, for the time being, and acting on oath.

Tickets may be had of the Bank of Columbia; of James Well & Co. Baltimore;

Gilman, Boston; of John Hopkins, Rich-

BOOKS,
PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Mathew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street.

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,
By Mrs. Rowson, of the New-Theatre
Philadelphia.
Second American edition—Price 75 cents.
[The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.]
Extract from the Critical Review, April 1793, p. 468.

It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity, of the regularity of her former conduct, is entrusted from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America.—The marriage ceremonny, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconsistency of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting.—The descriptions are natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who, for one error, scarcely, perhaps delivered so severe a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed.
2. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowson. Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents 3. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.
4. Notes on the state of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.
5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot.
Two dollars.
EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party; but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whoever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republican.—They love liberty as English Whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.
"In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing, this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the readers of either party. But when time shall diffuse the clouds of political deception, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, JANUARY, 1794—page 18.

"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind." 6. Plowden's history of the British empire from May 1792, to December 1793. A dollar and a quarter. [This is an interesting and valuable publication as had appeared for many years.]
7. Beattie's Elements of Moral Science.
2 vols. One dollar and three quarters 8. Ladies Library. Second American gacy to his Daughters; Lady Pennington's try—of the manners and customs of the inhabitants;—and of their several wars against Spain, France, England, Holland, Venice, and other powers of Europe—from the in-surpation of Barbarossa and the invasion of Charles V. to the present time.—With a concise view of the origin of the war between Algiers and the United States.

Embellished with a map of Barbary, comprehending Morocco, Fez, Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoly.

To the present edition is added a very to speak according to her particular genius, temper and inclination.—Their several faults, are pointed out, and the easy way to amend them, as well as to think, and speak, and act properly; no less care being taken to form their hearts to goodness, than to co-ughen their understandings with useful knowledge. A short and clear abridgment is also given of sacred and profane History, uniformly conducted with taste, attention, & propriety. If to these important objects he superadded the more immediate design, of relieving public documents from oblivion, I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiment, that a more useful literary plan has never
