Tuition of the French Tongue and Mathematics.

J. C. ROUSSEAU, one of the unfortunate inhabitants of St. Domingo, having a small family of children, finds it necessary for their support, to apply himself to the instruction of youth. He therefore proposes teaching the above branches of science, in the most modern style; and solicits the patronage of a generous public. The liberal education he has received, and the several other branches of science he has acquired a perfect knowledge of, will enable him to give satisfaction to those persons who may employ him. He will wait on ladies and gentlemen, who wish to be taught at their own houses; and will open an evening school, from six to nine o'clock, on the 20th instant. Enquire at No. 117, North Second-street. Dec. 11. 6c

This Lottery will afford an elegant specimen of the private buildings to be erected in the City of Washington—Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire front on two of the public squares; from these drawings, it is proposed to erect two centre and four corner buildings, as soon as possible after this Lottery is sold, and to convey them when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A neat deduction of five per cent. will be made to defray the necessary expenses of printing, &c. and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be erected within the City of Washington.

The drawing will commence as soon as the Tickets are sold, or at all events on Monday, the 22nd of December next: The money prizes will be payable in thirty days after it is finished, and any prizes for which fortunate numbers are not produced within settle the whole business in a year from the ending of the drawing and to take up the bonds given as security.

The real securities given for the payment of the Prizes, are held by the President and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the Lottery. The drawing will be under the management of 24 gentlemen approved by the commissioners for the City of Washington, for the time being, and acting on oath.

BOOKS,
PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Mathew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,
By Mrs. Rowson, of the New-Theatre Philadelphia.

Second American edition—Price 75 cents.

[The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.] Extra from the Critical Review, April 1795, p. 468.

It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity, or the regularity of her former conduct, is enticed from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconsistency of her lover, and treachery of his friend—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who, for one error, scarcely, perhaps delivered, so severe a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed.

2. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowson, Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents 3. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.

4. Notes on the state of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.

5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot.
Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE

"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find a truly every circumstance fairly represented, but every conceivable action, whoever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republican—they love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal action which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.

"In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the readers of either party. But when time shall illustrate the causes of political action, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candour and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW,

JANUARY, 1794—PAGE 15.

"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes, and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the propriety. It is the only important periodical
