which stand proved by a cloud of wit- that the affair thould be fairly difcuffed

Chank, one of the witneffes, not detrying a refe horrid facts, fuppofes they were directed and perpetrated by Lambutie and Fouquet, the agents of Car-tier, who, they had publicly faid had required them to do fo.

It is the clore certain from the confefthe acculed, as well as from the collence of witneffes, that the abufes in the prifons of Nantes and the maladies that were bred there, have caufed about ten thousand perfons to perifh, and that in the fame City, they have drowned that and guillotined about twenty thousand more, including vic-tims belonging to La Vendee and other

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 8.

COMMUNICATIONS. A letter dated Jan. 1795 figned M. appears in Mr. Bache's paper. It is con-jectured that Bradford is the writer, as the fentiments contained in it are extreme by well calulated to raife up fupport to that unfortunate man in his flight. Some perfone will have it that no man except David Beadford could write fuch inflammatory fuff about a feparation of the weft-ern country from the union. Others on the contrary maintain that the fentiments agree as well or better with the figle, and doctrine of the THIRTEEN LETTERS. Be the author the one or the other, if the fentiments are received in the weftern country as favorably as fimilar communiteeningly fell'd to the ground will fprout again from the flumps.

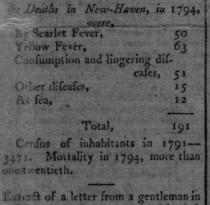

The Providere Correspondent of the General Advertifer, is advifed " not to halloo before he is out of the woods."-----The Democracy and Ariftocracy of the Aurora compared. The Democrats of the South fay that a foreign notileman who withes to become a critizen of the United States, shall preparatary thereto, renounce his little. The Ariflocrats of the eaft, fay that a foreigner owning flaves who may with to be once a citizen of the United States fhall reno once his right to hold his fellow beings in bondage in a land of freedom.

Sample of Jacobin reprefentation from the Boston Chronicle.

"The butcheries of George the Third have embezzled and torn in quarters, by wold horfes, Watt and Downie for fpeak-ing against the abufes of government."

Such are the abominations | It was agreed, however, by both parties, before the goddels, and that they would abide by her decilion-fic, in the meantime, like Minerva in the Odyffey, fat perched on a vacant chair, in a corner of the room, in the form of a Guineahen-a bird, remarkable for diffonance of voice, and petulance of disposition !! The debate, accordingly, began; and the members of the opposition urged their objections. They infitted, that their diflike to names was not merely capricious, but well-founded ; for that a flranger, diftinguished by that name, not long fince, had turned the heads of half the town.

" O'er the thronged room there reigned a deep repole, "Till patriot Томму, from his feat, arofe :

"TOMMY, who, skilled in law's and war's alarms, " Is great, alike ineloquence and arms--

"No member boafts more jacobinian merit ;

" No member boafts a larger share of fpirit !!!

"His gesture, awkward, and his air, uncouth, " In various forms he fcrews his flexile mouth : " And while Mundungus, in a copious tide, " Devolves his faffron wave, on either fide, "With many a hem and hah, he thus begun : Prince EDWARD, lately, GEORGE's booby fon, town, a cire difafter To this.

proved; The youths admired him, and the maidens loved-The enamored females fcarce elcaped

a flip; The royal kifs yet burns upon their

Still, his foft touch they feel, in darling dreams, Still, smiling love, the high-born favorite scems.

• This applicant 1 therefore nonfuit-fince,

"He bears the name, the odious name of PRINCE !!"

The profaic flow, and technical lan-guage, of the concluding lines, are extremely beautiful; nor do we lefs admire the reafoning, which is truly jaco-bin cal, exactly adapted to the under-flandings of the audience, and which affords a striking instance of the great argumentative powers of the speaker."

Married December 31st 1794, by the Rev. Mr. Rochee, at the feat of Mr. William Warner, near Dover, Mr. Benjamin Collins of Philadelphia, to Mifs Hannah Warren of Delaware. CONGRESS. HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES.

By this Day's Mail.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 6.

Gn Sunday evening arrived the ship Juliana, Capt, Willink, 7 weeks from Hamburgh. The verbal information of the Captain is, that no recent engagement of magnitude had taken place fince the battle of Juliers, and that Amfterdam was not taken, but its fitu-At ation appeared fo critical to the Duke of York, that he proposed marching into it with 15,000 of his troops to de-fend it. This, however, it appears, was received with indignation by the merchants, who declared they would fooner take the musket and defend it themfelves, as long as they were able ; and that if they proved too weak, they would furrender to the French, rather than permit it be faid, that the capital of Holland was indebted for its fafety to the troops of George the IIId Captain Willink left about 60 American veffels at Hamburgh. Spoke none.

of any arrival from the continent of Europe-papers having been received by her as late as the 1st of November. We were favoured by a kind Gentle. man with Hamburgh Gazettes, from the 11th of Odober, down to the latest date ; from which we have, in hafte, tranfl ted the following fummary and

EXTRACT.

That the Duke of York's head quarters vere on the 25th of October between Nimeguen and Arnheim : at the latter of which places the Duke himfelf had arrived-and that it was expected his Head Quarters would shortly be removed thither -that an attempt had been made to drive the French from between the rivers Maefe and Waal, in which the British had been defeated-that every thing was in confufion at Nimeguen, the French having unexpectedly croffed the Maefe, and advanced to within a league and an half of that place, furprifed a British regiment, and entirely cut it to pieces, not leaving a fingle man alive-that Venloo was invefted by 15,000 French, who were also in great force at Ruremonde-that the garrifon of Maestricht made a vigorous fortie, and killed a great number of the befiegersthat the patriotic fociety of Amflerdam and been broken up, and their papers feized-that 600 French cavalry had entered the city of Cleves, but departed in the ev, ening without doing any mifchief-and that the imperial Diet are bufy in concerting plans for negociating a peace with the French Republic.

Different accounts relate that the Ruffians have had feveral fevere engagements with the Poles, in which the latter feem to have been generally much worfted ; & as great numbers of the vanquished would not afk pardon of their conquerors, they were butchered on the fpot. On the 10th October, Kofciusko, with his whole army was totally defeated by the Ruffian general Van Ferfen ; himfelf, and three other renerals, were taken prisoners ; in confe. quence of which feveral Ruffian divisions were marching against Warfaw, where great difaffection prevailed, and many inlisted on imploring forgiveness of their enemics. In fhort, the different account, from Poland are of fo gloomy a nature that it is expected the Polifh revolution will be foon fettled to the fatisfaction of the generous Catharine and Frederick William.

6. To relinquish the individual interest of the hereditary stadtholder and his family for the public good. 7. The exiled patriots to be recalled and indemnified.

RATISHON, OA. 16.

The elector palatine has made a propofition i. the diet, for concluding an hono-rable PEACE with the French Republic.

Extract of a letter from Vienna, Oct. 18. " The talk of peace grows louder and louder; and it is faid, that two additional deputies from England furnished with new inflructions, are to arrive here —The result of the last conference which was held at court, is faid to have been, that the monarch will join his wifnes with those of his fubjects, and procure a peace at all events."

THORN, Oct. 18. The Poles have come as far as this place but have been driven back by the Pruilians.

NATIONAF CONVENTION.

NATIONAF CONVENTION. Saturday, Oct. 18. The reprefentatives of the people, Bel-legarde and Lacombe, with the army at Bois-le-Duc, report, That they made five attacks upon the place before they fucceeded in carrying it. And that they had taking with the point of the bayonet, (their artillery not coming up till they had capitulated) two forts, which had coft the tyrant Louis XIV, 16,000 men, without being able to get 16,000 men, without being able to get peffelien. They took at Bois-le-Duc, 147 pieces of cannon, 107 (of which are brafs; 130,000 weight of powder; a quantity of iron; 9,000 mufkets, and 2,500 prifoners of war.

DUBLIN, October 24.

The Commission of Terminer and General Gaol Delivery opens to mor-row, before the Hon. Baron Boyd, Several perfons are to be tried upon charges of a fedious nature.

The only prifoner for high treafon in this kingdom is the Rev. Mr. Jack-fon—It is faid the charge is his having ent information to the French, and given them fome encouragement to land, by a letter which he endeavoured to have conveyed to the continent thro' the Dublin Poft Office. His trial comes on at the bar of the King's Bench on the 7th of November,

October 25.

In no former wars, says a mercantile correspondent, even when the whole naral force of Europe was combined a-gainst us, did the commerce of these kingdoms fuffer fo much as by the prefent. With a fleet of line of battle mips and frigates more than double the number of the enemy, man nedby the best feamen in the world, and appointed as well in every respect as ships can be, how comes it that we are not better protected ?

A fquadron of five frigates and two corvettes failed from Breft the 15th July; on the 21st they were in the flation appointed them to ciuile, from lat. 49, 30. to 50. and long. 11, 30. to 12, 30. that is a little to the fouthward of Cape Clear, where they re-mained unmolefted until they captured nore prizes than they were able to man that circumstance, and that only, obliged them to quit their station on the 26th August.

0.00 5. To diffolve that between England fes operate, may it not be affeed, "Why and Pruffia. those thisss are to ?" and wheretone those things are fo ?" and wheretone thould the flrength of the nation remain mactive, at the expense of millions of property, and the continement of themlands of the mult valuable clafs of men belonging to the nation in loathfome prifons ? . 12

We will not fay that the war could be avoided, but there are fome who think it has been conducted in the moft infamous manner. Our lottes by fea might have been prevented. A firong fquadron of been prevented. A firong fquadron of frigates, flaticned at the weftward and forthward of Cape Clear, would have yielded more protection, than all the navy of England, conducted as it is at prefets —This is a fact which every feafaring man will acknowledge.

UNITED STATES.

BOSTON.

Depredations on our Commerce,

Are again the fubject of public ani-; madvertion. Within thefe two months patt, feveral American veffels have been carried into Bermudas, and condemned ; in confequence of the British Order of June, 1793. A mong them is the feboo-ner Patty, Taylor— and Induffry, Gro zier, of this port. Intelligence of th., has been bro't by the febooner Little John, Capt. Homer, from thence, who was carried in there, detained 5 days, and difmiffed without being libelled. We with the above were all the embarraff-ments our commerce fuffers : we have feen letters from Paris, of recent dates, which inform that our minifter, has made-complaints to the Convention of the Ipolia-tions which our commerce fuffers from the French cruifers, who capture every American they meet, take out all the crew, except the Captains and mates, fend them into France, where they may have been detaiged from 6 to 18 months, aud fome have been condemned : And all this againft the express articles of the treaty of alliance and commerce. June, 1793. Among them is the fchooalliance and commerce. The above is from a Igentleman of the ftricteft veracity, and warmeft friends to the French :-Befides, this Beache's laft the banks of New-foundland, fent to l'Ori. ent, where the had remained 38 days, when the laft accounts left there, with her hatches fealed up.

Translated from the Courier François of this morning ...

PARIS, October 28.

The details of the affair of the 14th and 15th, have reached us, notwith-ftanding the precautions which the house of Orange take to keep them secret. The first day the loss of the English was immense. The Regiment of York was cut in pieces. Three others were made prisoners. One Hanoverian and one Heffian Regiment being closely prefied, perished in the water in at-tempting to fave themselves by swim-ming. The details of the affair of the 14th

It appears that the Hollanders had no part in this affair—being pricipally diffri-buted in the firong garrifons--we are affured that four thousand Prussians have marched to Nimeguen to reinforce the There were great cries and vociferations yesterday in the Jacobin Club-The Reprefentative of the people, Lejeune reproached vehemently Billaud Var-rennes and Collot d'Herbois lately molt famous Jacobins, for their filence in a crifis fo cruel. They excufed them-, felves from the oppressed state in which the Patriots groaned, and particularly themfelves.

The Juliana brings much the latest news

burgh, Virginia, dated Nov. 23.

" The lower house have paffed a refabilition, declaring that Governor Lee, from the time he accepted the command of the militia of the U. States, vacated his office of Chief Ma giftrate of this commonwealth; and I expedi that a fimilar refolution will pais in the cafe of Mr. Junis, who is gone to Kentucky on the bufinefs of the U. States. An attempt has been made to expel Col. Holmes, of Caroline, from the houfe, because he suffers the mail to be carried in his stages. Thus you see, if a man only wifnes well to the federal government, the Affembly of Virginia are difpofed to remove him from any office in our government.

Mr. Fenno, I fend you an extract from the Jacobiniad No. 5—a publication in the Federal Orrery—Its applica-Lifty to a fubject recently under dif-enfion will not efcape the notice of your readers.

" The fpeech of the Gallic chieftain, which was received with much applaule, had fearcely ended, when an incident, of a very unexpected nature, happened, which greatly interrupted the harmony, that had hitherto prevailed. This was nothing lefs, than the appearance of a negro, who, on the just and noble principle of equality, demanded admiffion, debate enfued; and many objections urged, both on account of his co-lor, and name, which, unfortunately, was Prince. The members, who op-pofed his demand, obferved, that the word, Prince, was of ariftocratical, or, what was still worfe, of royal origin; therefore, no one, bearing fo odi-a name, could, with any propriety, dmitted into a democratic fociety.

The bill for afcertaining the loffes of the officers of the revenue, and other citizens, by the western infurgents, was read the third time. The blank in the bill was filled up with eight thousand five hundred dollars. The bill was then past. A bill, making farther provision in cases of drawbacks, was read a third time, and paft.

Tuesday, January 6.

A memorial from the fugar refiners in the city of Philadelphia was then read. It was of confiderable length, and stated, that the excise on refined fugar would terminate in the deflruction of the manufacturers. People refufed to buy the refined fugar with the addi-tional excise duty. The commodity, therefore, lay on their own hands. The business had, in fact, been put an end to This memorial was referred to the lame committee as that of the fnuffmakers.

Mr. Goodhue moved that the house hould go into a committee of the whole, on the bill fupplementary to the whole, for imposing duties on goods, wares, and merchandize imported into the United States. The houfe according-ly went into a committee, Mr. Cobb in the chair. They went through the bill with amendments; and it was re. ported to the house.

The house then went into a committee on the bill to establish an uniform fystem of naturalization, and to repeal the law formerly made on that head. One of the claufes in the new bill pro-port to make stiens becoming citizens of the United States abjure their allegiance to all other flates forever. Mr. Boudinot after expressing his difap-probation of the term forever, moved that it fhould be expunged; this motion was car-ried in the affirmative—The Committee then rofe-the Chairman reported progrefs and the Houfe adjourned.

Accounts from the Lower Elbe fiate, that intelligence has been received from Ratifbon, that the Diet have agreed to debate the queftion on the ceffation of hofilities-that the coadjutor of Mayence will proceed to Paris for the purpose of ac_ celerating it-and that the Greffier of Holand is faid to have gone to London, to remove the obstacles to a negociation of peace with France.

Extract of a letter from Frankfort, October 21.

"The coadjutor of Mayence is arrived here. We have intelligence that PEACE is ACTUALLY PROPOSED, and that "We have mille for take place" ceffation of arms will alfo take place." A letter from Amfterdam dated Octo-ber 25, contains the following refolves of the flates of Frielland: 1. To accknowledge the French Re-public.

To conclude a peace with the fame.
To alter the confliction to the withers of the Republic.

4. To enter into an allaince with the government of Frances

Another fquadron of 4 frigates, 2 corvettes, and a brig, cruifed fo near-ly, the fame time, off Cape Finitterre, y, the fame time, off Cape Finitterre, and with equal fuccefs. Two frigates and two floops, dif-patched from L'Orient, went to the North Seas, where, and on their paff-age to that flation, they captured up-wards of 60 fail of fhips, part of which they fink and burned for want of hands to man them. While this havoc was making among the fhips and feamen of Great-Britain and Ireland, Admiral M'Bride, an ofand Ireland, Admiral M'Bride, an of-ficer of diftinguifhed activity in a line-of-battle fhip, the Minotaur, and five of the fineft frigates in the Britifh na-vy, were ufelefsly employed in manœuv-ring at Weymouth. Another fquad-ron of five frigates was lying at Fal-mouth, befides a powerful fleet at Portf-mouth and Plymouth. Will it, not appear aftenificing that

Will it not appear aftonifhing that a period of about 11 months above 960 fail of fhips belonging to the different nations, have been captured by exerti-ons of only 16 frigates and 8 corvettes and floops 1 The evil, however, is not confined to the lofs of property; for, fhould the war continue, as things go, there would fhortly be a very great want of feamen, for the number now in prifon in France it perhaps beyond what is generally imagined.—The blame rafts fome where, for the naval force of the nation, if properly directed, is am-ply fufficient to protect us. It is therefore in the ignorance or neglect of the Lords of Admiralty, or in the total want of fystem in their orders, that the commerce of this great empire is thus njured ! If either or both of those cau-

Billaud Varennes-obferved, befides that in present circumftances, filence, was more energetic, perhaps, than ineffectual speeches.

They both made their yows for the fafety of the patriots, which they would defend in every great crifis; and from the people, nothing fhould ever feparate then

A question was afterwards agitated on the means of continuing a correspon-dence with the affiliated Societies, notwithstanding the decree. Baffal-ex-curate of Verfailles, faid he would render the decree nugatorynotwithstanding after a tedious and long difcuffion, they feparated at eleven of clock at night, and adjourned the quef-tion to the next day.

In this manner all inflitutions degenerate by abufes-All their ornaments, all that renders them respectable and great, is infensibly loft—and the fall of the tattered Coloffus hardly attracts the attention of the paffengers, who fee it roll in the duft.

PORT OF PHILADELPHIA

Ship Amiable, Thompfon, Liver, Washington, Inox,

ARRIVED.