Distant Subscribers

For this Gazette, are hereby respectfully requested to pay up their Subscriptions to the first of January next. The Editor will be under the necessity of considering those who do not then renew their Subscription by paying Six Months in Advance, as declining to take the Paper any longer.

As there is a considerable Sum due from remote Subscribers for the late half Weekly Paper published by the Editor, he most earnestly requests those who may be delinquent, to take the earliest opportunity of remitting him the balance they may respectively be indebted—the sums are individually stated—the want of the Aggregate is severely felt.

HAZARD'S

Historical Collections.

JUST PUBLISHED,
AND FOR SALE BY THOMAS DOBSON,
At the Stone House, No. 41, South Second-Street.

Historical Collections,

CONSISTING OF
STATE PAPERS,
And other Authentic Documents, intended as an History of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

By EBENEZER HAZARD, A. M. Member of the American Philosophical Society, Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Correspondent Member of the Massachusetts Historical Society.
Two large quarto volumes, price TEN DOL-LARS in boards.

A few copies of the second volume which has been subscribed for, and for which the subscribers have paid one dollar each, are still on hand. Subscribers will please call for them at T. Dobson's Store.

The importance of materials for a History of the United States will be generally acknowledged; the design of this compilation is to preserve the early and authentic documents on this subject which had become exceedingly scarce, and were not obtained without difficulty.

Many of these papers are very curious, and will be highly entertaining to the lovers of American Antiquities, and when considered as authentic memoirs of the early transactions of a people destined to occupy a distinguished and enviable station in the annals of human liberty, they become peculiarly interesting and important.

BOOKS,

PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Mathew Carey,

No. 118, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,

By Mrs. Rowson, of the New-Theatre Philadelphia.

Second American edition—Price 75 cents.
[The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.]

Extracts from the Critical Review, April 1791, p. 463.

It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is enticed from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconsistency of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and passionate; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved to sever a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed.

2. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowson. Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents

3. Adventures of Roderic Random—2 vols 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.

4. Notes on the State of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and 25 cents.

5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot.
Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.

"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every centurable action, whenever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republican—they love liberty as English Whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.

"In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the zealous of either party. But when time shall distinguish the clouds of political deception, they wish some confidence, and that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW,

JANUARY, 1794—page 12.

"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind."

Spain, France, England, Holland, Venice,

Charles V. to the present time—With a tween Algiers and the United States.

Embellished with a map of Barbary, comprehending Morocco, Fez, Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoly.

To the present edition is added a very copious index, containing letters from esting articles not in the first edition.

Lettres.* Three dollars 33 cents.

lar 33 cents.

ness and several Young Ladies of Quality her scholars.—In which each Lady is made to speak according to her particular genius, temper and inclination.—Their several faults, are pointed out, and the easy way to amend them, as well as to think, and speak, and act properly; no less care being taken to form their hearts to goodness, than to enlighten their understandings with useful knowledge. A short and clear abridgment teen dollars and 20 cents.

"The American Museum is not only eminently calculated to disseminate political and other valuable information, but it has been uniformly conducted with taste, attention, & propriety. In these important objects, he has surpassed the more immediate design of relieving public documents from oblivion, I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiments, that a more useful literary plan has never been undertaken in America, nor one more deserving of public encouragement."
