Diffant subscribers
For the Gazette, are hereby respectfully requested to pay up their Subscriptions to the first of January next. The Editor will be under the necessity of considering those who do not then renew their Subscriptions by paying six Months in Advance, as declining to take the Paper any longer.
As there is a considerable Sum due from remote Subscribers for the late half Weekly Paper published by the Editor, he must necessarily request those who may be delinquent, to pay the same, in order to be able to remit him the balance they may be respectively be indebted—the Sum are individually calling for the want of the Agreement is severely felt.

HAZARD'S
Historical Collections.
JUST PUBLISHED,
AND FOR SALE BY THOMAS DOBSON,
At the Stone House, No. 41, South Second Street,
Historical Collections, CONSISTING OF
STATE PAPERS,
And other Authentic Documents, intended as an History of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA: By EBENEZER HAZARD, A. M. Member of the American Philosophical Society, Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Correspondent Member of the Massachusetts Historical Society.
Two large quarto volumes, price TEN Dollars in boards.
A few copies of the second volume which will be published for, and for which the subscribers have paid one dollar each, are still in hand. Subscribers will please call for them at T. Dobson's Store.
The importance of materials for a History of the Unit'd States will be generally acknowledged; the design of this compilation is to retrieve the early and authentic documents in this subject which had become exceedingly rare, and were not obtained without difficulty.
Many of these papers are very curious, and will be highly entertaining to the lovers of American Antiquities, and when considered as authentic memoirs of the early transactions of a people destined to occupy a difficult and enviable station in the annals of humanity, they become peculiarly interesting and important.

BOOKS,
PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Mathew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth, By Mrs. Rowson, of the New- Theatre Philadelphia.
Second American edition—Price 75 cents.
[The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.] Extract from the Critical Review, April 1791, p. 468.
It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is encouraged by her government, and accompanies a young officer to America.—The marriage cerem ny, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconstancy of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who for one error, fearfully, perhaps deserved to have a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed.
2. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowson. Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents 3. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols.
1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.
4. Notes on the State of Virginia.—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.
5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot.
Two dollars.
EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE
"The authors have adduced to assist to their title the epithet taberna; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party; but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find a only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whoever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. It is not necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would fear, they are neither royal republicans—They love liberty as an English whig, and execrate every criminal act by which to noble cause is endangered and differed.
"In the present ferment of the publimind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of leaving this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that their pages will not be acceptable to the readers of either party. But when time shall dissolve the clouds of political deception, they with some confidence, expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, JANUARY, 1794—page 20.
"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interested themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind." 6. Poyden's history of the British empire from May 1792, to December 1793. A dollar and a quarter. [This is an interesting and valuable publication as had appeared for many years.] 7. Beauties Elements of Moral Science.
2 vols. One dollar and three quarters.
8. Ladies Library. Second American edition. 87 1/2 cents. CONTENTS—Miss Moore's Essays; Dr. Gregory's Lecture to his Daughters; Lady Penning-ton's unfortunate mother's advice to her Daughters; Marcen's de Lambert's Advice of a mother to her daughter, Mrs Chapone's Letter on the government of the temper; Swift's Letter to a Young Lady newly married; Moore's Fables for the Female Sex.
9. Journal durant un Sejour en France de puis le commencement d'out jusqu'a la mi-December, auquel est jointe une recit des evenemens les plus remarquables qui ont eu lieu a Paris, depuis cette epoque, jusqu'a la mort du roi de France.
Bound, 2 1/2 dollars— sewed, 2 dollars.
10. Edward's treatise on the religious affections. Coarse paper, a dollar—fine, a dollar and a half.
11. Rights of Woman—by Mrs. Wollston craft. A dollar.
12. Willson's Sacramental Meditations—60 cents.
13. Bunyan's Holy War, made by Shaddai against Dabulur.
14. Short account of Algiers. Second edition, enlarged—25 cents.
Containing—A description of that country—of the manners and customs of the inhabitants—and of their several wars against Spain, France, England, Holland, Venice, and other powers of Europe—from the usurpation of Barbarossa and the invasion of Charles V. to the present time.—With a concise view of the origin of the war between Algiers and the United States.
Embellished with a map of Barbary, comprehending Morocco, Fez, Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoly.
To the present edition is added a very copious index, containing letters from fundry American prisoners in Algiers to the friends in the United States—a list of the vessels taken—and many very interesting articles not in the first edition.
15. Blair's Lectures on Rhetoric and Belles-Lettres. Three dollars 33 cents.
16. Smith's Letters to Miss and Women, on nursing and the management of children. 62 1/2 cents.
17. American Farmer's letters. 2 vols. 1 dollar 33 cents.
18. Young Millers Magazine. 2 vols. 1 dollar 33 cents.
Containing—Dialogues between a Governor and several Young Ladies of Quality her scholars.—In which each Lady is made to speak according to her particular genius, temper and inclination.—Their several faults, are pointed out, and the easy way to amend them, as well as to think, and speak, and act properly; no less care being taken to form their hearts to goodness, than to enlighten their understandings with useful knowledge.—A short and clear abridgement is also given of sacred and profane History, and some lessons in Geography. The useful is blended throughout with the agreeable; the Book being interspersed with proper re-flexions and moral Tales.
19. Duncan's Elements of Logic. 80 cents.
20. M'Engel, an epic poem. 37 1/2 cents.
21. Tench Carey's examination of Lord Surfield's Observations. 62 1/2 cents.
22. Ladies' Friend. 37 1/2 cents.
23. Smith's History of New York, from its discovery to 1784. 1 dollar 25 cents.
24. Complete Atlas for the present war, containing maps of France, Holland, North Lands, Germany, Spain, Italy, and the West-Indies. 2 dollars.
25. Contributions of the United States, with the Federal Constitution. 62 1/2 cents.
26. Peyton's Grammar for Firechildren to learn English. 50 cents.
27. Epitaph Enrichment. 31 cents.
28. Gay's Fables. 31 cents.
29. Christian Education. 25 cents.
30. Chalmers of Melrose, a choice collection of Songs. 25 cents.
31. American Museum, 10 vols. 800. Nine.
(two dollars and 20 cents.)
"The American Museum is not only exceedingly calculated to disseminate practical and other valuable information, but it has uniformly conducted with care, attention, & propriety. It is to their important labors superadded the more immediate design of retrieving public documents from oblivion, I will venture to pronounce, as my testimony, that a more useful American publication has been undertaken in America, nor one more deserving of public encouragement." General Washington.
32. Poem of Col. Humphreys. 37 1/2 cents.
33. Carey's Book of Aims. 18 1/2 cents.
34. Tom Paine's letters. 18 1/2 cents.
