acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the readers of either party. But when time shall dispose the citizens of political deception, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, JANUARY, 1794—page 14.

“We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind.”

6. Powlens history of the British empire from May 1792, to December 1792. A dollar and a quarter. [This is as interesting and valuable a publication as had appeared for many years.]

7. Beattie's Elements of Moral Science. 2 vols. One dollar and three quarters

8. Ladies' Library. Second American edition. 8 1/2 cents. CONTAINING—Miss Moore's Essays; Dr. Gregory's Legacy to his Daughters; Lady Pennington's unfortunate mother's advice to her Daughters; Marchioness de Lambert's Advice to a mother of a daughter, Mrs. Chappone's Letter on the government of the temper; Swift's Letter to a Young Lady newly married; Moore's Fables for the Female Sex.

9. Journal d'un Sejour en France depuis le commencement d'octobre jusqu'à la fin de Décembre; avec le détail de ce que l'on y a vu, et de ce que l'on y a fait. Par un Citoyen de Paris, d'une certaine époque, jusqu'à la mort du roi de France. Bound, 2 1/2 dollars—sewed, 2 dollars.

10. Edwards's treatise on the religious affections. Coarse paper, a dollar—fine, a dollar and a half.

11. Rights of Woman—by Mrs. Wolfsoncraft. A dollar.

12. Williford's Sacramental Meditations—60 cents.

13. Bunyan's Holy War, made by Shaddai against D'abolus.

14. Short account of Algiers. Second edition, enlarged—25 cents.

Containing—A description of that country,—of the manners and customs of the inhabitants,—and of their several wars against Spain, France, England, Holland, Venice, and other powers of Europe—from the usurpation of Barbarossa and the invasion of Charles V. to the present time.—With a concise view of the origin of the war between Algiers and the United States.

Enriched with a map of Algiers, comprehending Morocco, Fez, Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoly.

To the present edition is added a very copious index, containing letters from sundry American prisoners in Algiers to their friends in the United States—a list of the vessels taken—and many very interesting articles not in the first edition.

15. Blair's Lectures on Rhetoric and Belles Lettres. Three dollars 33 cents.

16. Smith's Letters to Married Women, on nursing and the management of children. 60 1/2 cents.

17. American Farmer's letters. 80 cents.

18. Young Misses Magazine. 2 vols. 1 dollar 33 cents.

Containing—Dialogues between a Governess and several Young Ladies of Quality her scholars.—In which each Lady is made to speak according to her particular genius, temper and inclination.—Their several faults, are pointed out, and the easy way to amend them, as well as to think, and speak, and act properly, no less care being taken to form their hearts to goodness, than to enlighten their understandings with useful knowledge. A short and clear abridgement is also given of sacred and profane History, and some lessons in Geography. The useful is blended throughout with the agreeable, the whole being interspersed with proper reflections and moral Tales.

19. Duncan's Elements of Logic. 80 cents

20. M'Fingal, an epic poem. 37 1/2 cents.

21. Teach Cox's examination of Lord Sheffield's observations. 60 1/2 cents.

22. Ladies' Friend. 37 1/2 cents.

23. Smith's history of New York, from its discovery to 1793. 1 dollar 50 cents.

24. Complete Atlas for the present war, containing maps of France, Holland, Netherlands, Germany, Spain, Italy, and the West-Indies. 2 dollars.

25. Constitutions of the United States, with the Federal Constitution. 62 1/2 cents.

26. Peyton's Grammar for Freshmen to learn English. 50 cents.

27. Epitome of Euclid. 31 cents.

28. Gay's Fables. 31 cents.

29. Christian Economy. 25 cents.

30. Chorus of Melody, a choice collection of Songs. 25 cents.

31. American Museum, 12 vols, 8vo. Nineteen dollars and 20 cents.

“The American Museum is not only eminently calculated to disseminate political and other valuable information, but it has been uniformly conducted with care, attention, & propriety. It to these important objects, he superadded the more immediate design, of retaining public documents from oblivion. I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiment, that a more useful literary plan has never been undertaken in America, nor one more deserving of public encouragement.”

General Washington.

32. Poems of Col. Humphreys. 37 1/2 cents.

33. Catechism of Men. 18 1/2 cents.

34. Tom Paine's Jells. 18 1/2 cents.

Burlington Pork.

A QUANTITY OF Best Burlington Pork,
FOR SALE BY
Levi Hollingworth & Son.
Oa. 31

To be Sold,
A VALUABLE
Tract of Land,
BEING that part of the city of New Brunswick that lies in the county of Somerset and state of New Jersey. It contains upwards of 600 acres of very valuable land and is bounded on the south by the public road that leads from New York to Philadelphia for near two miles, on the east by the river Raritan for a mile, and lays in a triangular form. Building Lots on several streets in this part of the town, from five to ten dollars and two thirds a foot front, and the extension of Albany street, which the situation admits of for a least half a mile, will open a new four ce for very pleasant & commodious situations for dwelling houses. A considerable space along the river is well calculated for building flour-houses and wharves, and affords a seat for a Grist Mill on the bank of the river, which may be supplied with water from the Mile Run by a subterraneous passage already dug, where vessels of 300 barrels burthen may conveniently load and unload. There are now on the premises a good Farm House and two large barns, a commodious new Dwelling House two stories high, 42 by 32 feet square, intended and well calculated for a fire, with very good cellars under the whole, and a kitchen 30 by 20 feet square, a new wharf of 80 feet front, and a well built store house of 40 by 26 feet square and three stories high, and a quarry of building stone on the premises.

New Brunswick, one of the most flourishing places in New Jersey, lying at the head of the navigation of the river Raritan, is the magazine for the reception of the produce of a very extensive and fertile country, and is well situated for vending every kind of imported merchandise for supplying the country. The early transportation of every kind of produce and manufacture from thence to New York by water, its situation on the post road through the states, and its vicinity to Perth Amboy, one of the best seaports in the states, render it an object worthy the attention of persons who have the means and know how to improve a situation so well calculated for commerce or manufacture.

The premises will be shown by John Parker or James Cole, at New Brunswick, and the terms and conditions of sale, made known by

Notary Public,
Within the City of Philadelphia, and at present keeps his Office at
No. 19, South Fourth Street,
Until a more convenient situation can be procured.
N. B. He still means to act as an Attorney at Law and Conveyancer.

Historical Collections.

JUST PUBLISHED,
AND FOR SALE BY
THOMAS DOBSON,
At the Stone Houfe, No. 41, South Second Street.

Historical Collections,
CONSISTING OF
STATE PAPERS,
And other Authentic Documents, intended as an History of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA:

By EBERNEZER HAZARD, A. M. Memb<sup>r</sup> of the American Philosophical Society, Fellow of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and Correspondent Member of the Massachusetts Historical Society.

Two large quarto volumes, price TEN DOLLARS in boards.

A few copies of the second volume which have been subscribed for, and for which the subscribers have paid one dollar each, are still on hand. Subscribers will please call for them at T. Dobson's Store.

The importance of materials for a History of the United States will be generally acknowledged; the design of this compilation is to preserve the early and authentic documents on this subject which had become exceedingly scarce, and were not obtained without difficulty.

Many of these papers are very curious, and will be highly entertaining to the lovers of American Antiquities, and when considered as authentic memoirs of the early transactions of a people destined to occupy a distinguished and enviable station in the annals of human liberty, they become peculiarly interesting and important.

BOOKS,

PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Mathew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,
By Mrs Rowson, of the New-Theatre Philadelphia.
Second American edition—Price 75 cents. [The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.]
Extra from the Critical Review, April 1793, p. 468.

It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is enticed from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America.—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconsistency of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who, for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved so severe a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is now, we think, properly distributed.

2. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowson, Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents
3. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols. 1 dollar and 57 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.

4. Notes on the state of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.

5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot. Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
“The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whenever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republican.—They love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.

“In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally
