

BOOKS,
PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Matthew Carey,
No 113, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth, By Mrs Rowson, of the New-Yorker Philadelphia.
2. Second American edition—Price 75 cents. [The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.]
3. Extract from the Critical Review, April 1793, p. 468.
4. It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the article of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is excited from her governers, and accompanies a young officer to America—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconstancy of her lover, and treachery of his friend—The situations are artless and pathetic—we should feel for Charlotte if such a portion ever existed, who for an error, scarcely, perhaps deserved to sever a punishment. If it is a fiction, no critic will be so unkind as to think it a tale of truth.
5. The Inquisitor—By Mrs. Rowson, second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents.
6. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols. 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar, 75 cents, fine.
7. Notes on the state of Virginia—By Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.
8. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of Brissot. Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE
"The authors have presumed to prefix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias, to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whoever were the authors or actors, punished in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are not Tory nor Republican—they love liberty as English Whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which this noble cause is endangered and sacrificed.

In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hope of being their claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the zealous of either party. But when time shall dissipate the clouds of political deception, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

FOR SALE,
SEVERAL VALUABLE
Tracts of LAND,

LYING in King George County, Virginia, lying on the south side of Potomack Creek, near its mouth, being one mile from the river Potomack, containing by old survey eleven hundred and ten acres. There is on the above tract of Land a dwelling house thirty by twenty, with three rooms on the first floor, and two above, with fire places, a kitchen with a brick chimney, stables, corn house, meat house, dairy and other out houses; also a good framed horse house by twenty four, and a granary, both perfectly new, and agreeably situated on the Creek, commanding a fine view of the river Potomack, and one of the best fisheries either on the river or creek. This creek is navigable for vessels of several tons, and abounds with wild fowl of every kind, particularly ducks. The land is fertile and well adapted to the culture of corn, rye, and tobacco. There is also on it a quantity of timber of superior quality, either for ship or house building, & contiguous to the water, from whence it could be rafted to Alexandria, or to the City of Washington, and is not more than fifty miles distant from either place. The growth is chiefly red and white oak, locust, walnut, hickory, cedar and poplars of an extraordinary size. There are also a couple of small meadows now in timothy, and several other rich swamps, which may be put in at a small expense. The banks consist chiefly of shell-mud of the best quality, which affords a valuable and inexhaustible fund of manure.

Likewise another valuable tract, lying in Potomack river in King George county, nearly opposite to Port Tobacco in Maryland, containing about four hundred acres; one hundred of it is heavily timbered with white oak proper for house or ship building; about fifty acres of marsh, and the whole of the land perfectly level, and well adapted to farming, being of a stiff quality, and excellent for holding manure. It bounds on the river about three quarters of a mile, has a most admirable herring and rock fishery, and for wild fowl is perhaps equal to any on the Continent.

It is well situated for a Ferry, being at a narrow part of the river, and is not more than thirty five miles from the City of Washington by land.

We will likewise sell a valuable Tract of Land, lying partly in King George and partly in Stafford county, containing five hundred acres. This tract is about one mile from Potomack Creek, it is well timbered and watered, the soil is of an excellent quality.

For a further account apply to Mr. Charles Stuart Waugh, at Dr. Benjamin Duffield's fourth Front Street, No. 403, or to the Subscribers, living on the premises, King George county, Virginia.
