No 118, Market Street,

- Charlotte, a tale of truth, By Mrs Rowson, of the New-Theatre Philadelphia. Second American edition—Price 75 cents. [The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.] Extra from the Critical Review, April 1793, p. 468.
- It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is enticed from her governess, and accompanying a young officer to America—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconstancy of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte in such a person ever existed, who for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved to receive a punishment. It is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed.
- The Inquisitor—By Mrs. Rowson. Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents
- Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols. 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.
- Notes on the State of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.
- History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot. Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
“The authors have presumed to affix no other title, the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, wherever the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. It was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republicans—They love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal act which by so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.

In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the zealous of either party. But when time shall dissipate the clouds of political deception, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, JANUARY, 1794—page 12.
“We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind.”

6. Plowden's history of the British Empire from May 1792, to December 1793. A dollar and a quarter. [This is an interesting and valuable publication as had appeared for many years.]

FOR SALE,
SEVERAL VALUABLE

Tracts of LAND,

LYING in King George County, Virginia, lying on the fourth side of Potomack Creek, near its mouth, being one mile from the river Potomack, containing by old survey eleven hundred and ten acres. There is on the above tract of Land a dwelling house thirty by twenty, with three rooms on the first floor, and two above, with fire places, a kitchen with a brick chimney, stables, corn house, meat house, dairy and other out houses; also a good framed floor house by twenty four, and a granary, both perfectly new, and agreeably situated on the Creek, commanding a fine view of the river Potomack, and one of the best fisheries either on the river or creek. This creek is navigable for vessels of several tons, and abounds with wild fowl of every kind, particularly ducks. The land is fertile and well adapted to the culture of corn, rye, and tobacco. There is also on it a quantity of timber of superior quality, either for ship or house building, & contiguous to the water, from whence it could be rafted to Alexandria, or to the City of Washington, and is not more than fifty miles distant from either place. The growth is chiefly red and white oak, locust, walnut, hickory, cedar and poplars of an extraordinary size. There are also a couple of small meadows now in timothy, and several other rich swamps, which may be put in at a small expense. The banks consist chiefly of shell-marl of the best quality, which affords a valuable and inexhaustible fund of manure.

Like-wise another valuable Tract, lying in Potomack river in King George county, nearly opposite to Port Tobacco in Maryland, containing about four hundred acres; one hundred of it is heavily timbered with white oak proper for house or ship building; about fifty acres of marsh, and the whole of the land perfectly level, and well adapted to farming; being of a stiff quality, and excellent for holding manure, it bounds on the river about three quarters of a mile, has a most admirable herring and rock fishery, and for wild fowl is perhaps equal to any on the Continent.

It is well situated for a Ferry, being at a narrow part of the river, and is not more than thirty five miles from the City of Washington by land.

We will likewise sell a valuable Tract of Land, lying partly in King George and partly in Stafford county, containing five hundred acres—this tract is about one mile from Potomack Creek, it is well timbered and watered, the soil is of an excellent quality.

For a further account apply to Mr. Charles Stuart Waugh, at Dr. Benjamin Dulfield's fourth Front street, No. 303, or to the Subscribers, living on the premises, King George county, Virginia.

Valuable Property
For Sale,
IN THE
STATE of NEW-YORK.

THAT valuable and well known Estate, called SCOTIA, situated on the north bank of the Mohawk river, directly opposite the populous and flourishing town of Schenectady, at the foot of the water-communication from the Western Country, and Upper Canada; sixteen miles from the city of Albany, extending about two miles on the bank of the river above and below the said town; this river is the only water communication in the United States with the great western Lakes. The roads from the western and northern parts of the State of New York, together with a number of other public roads here meet, and lead to the noted ferry kept opposite the said town.

It contains upwards of one thousand acres, a great proportion of which is intervalle or low land, calculated both for oats or grain, producing great burthens annually; it may be laid into a number of valuable farms, affording convenient and handsome building grounds, there is now on the premises two very large and commodious dwelling houses, with large Dutch barns, barracks, hovels, stables, cart and wagon house, carriage house, flour house, summer house, and other out-houses, on a commanding eminence near the bank of the river, affording a beautiful and extensive prospect of the river for several miles, the lowland, the town, and a fine lake of water, covering about thirty acres, well stored with all kinds of river fish, fowl, &c. There is a good grist mill on a never failing stream of water, a good frame house, &c. for the miller, also convenience above the mill for erecting more water works; there is a bearing orchard with nearly one thousand apple trees, set out, grafted of the best fruit, the gardens are stocked with all the various fruits the climate will admit; also several tenements with portions of land on short leases.

The land in point of fertility of soil, is exceeded by none in the State; there is now in the ground near two hundred bushels winter grain, which will be included in the above sale.

Also two small islands in the river, opposite the mansion house.

A view of the premises, it is presumed, will fully equal any description that can be given thereof.

For terms of sale apply to the Subscriber, residing on the premises, Messrs. Oliver Wendell or Harrison G. Otis, Esquires, in the town of Bolton, Cornelius Ray, or De Witt Clinton, Esquires, at the city of New York; James Gordon or Henry Glen, Esquires, two of the members of Congress, at the city of Philadelphia; Stephen N. Bayard, in the town of Schenectady, by whom the price & terms of sale will be communicated.
