Columbianum.

February 14, 1795.
AT a Meeting of the Fellow Artists of the Columbianum, at Mr. Groombridge's House, adjoining the Bank of Pennsylvania, in the City of Philadelphia.

G. I. Parkyns in the chair.
Resolved,
That the Columbianum or National College, shall apprise the Artists of America, and such Ladies and Gentlemen, as are desirous of sending specimens of their performances, either in Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, or Engraving, that a PUBLIC EXHIBITION will be opened in the City of Philadelphia, on the first day of May next, when those who wish to be Exhibitors, are requested to notify their intentions as soon as possible, addressed to the Chairman of the Columbianum through the hands of Mr. Groombridge.

Resolved,
That the Rooms intended for the Exhibition shall be announced to the Public, as soon as the preparatory arrangements are completed.

Resolved,
That every possible care shall be taken of such performances of Artists and Honorary Exhibitors as are intended for the Exhibition, and that they shall be returned to the different proprietors, at the close of the same, with every suitable precaution.

Resolved,
That the Rules and Regulations for conducting the Exhibition, shall be laid before the Public at an early period, with the names of the Gentlemen that compose the Committee of Exhibition and Models.
Signed by Order,

BOOKS,

PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Matthew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,
By Mrs. Rowson, of the Neo-Theatre, Philadelphia.
Second American edition—Price 75 cents.
[The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.]

Extra? from the Critical Review, April 1791, p. 463.
It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is engaged from her government, and accompanies a young officer to America.—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconstancy of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who for one error, perhaps, perhaps deserved to sever a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed."

2. The Inquilitor—by Mrs. Rowson, Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents

3. Adventures of Roderic Randonne. 2 vols. 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.

4. Notes on the State of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.

5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot. Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whenever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republicans.—They love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.

mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the zealous of either party. But when time shall dissipate the clouds of political deception, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, JANUARY, 1794—page 12.
"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind."

6. Poldens history of the British empire from May 1792, to December 1793. A dollar and a quarter. [This is an interesting and valuable publication as had appeared for many years.]

7. Beattie's Elements of Moral Science 2 vols. One dollar and three quarters

8. Ladies Library, Second American edition. 87 1/2 cents. CONTAINING—Miss Moore's Essays; Dr. Gregory's Legacy to his Daughters; Lady Pennington's unfortunate mother's advice to her Daughters; Marchioness de Lambert's Advice of a mother to her daughter, Mrs. Chappone's Letter on the government of the temper; Swift's Letter to a Young Lady newly married; Moore's Fables for the Female Sex

9. Journal durant un Sejour en France depuis le commencement d'octobre jusqu'à la fin de Décembre; auquel est joint un recit des evenemens les plus remarquables qui ont eu lieu a Paris, depuis cette époque, jusqu'à la mort du roi de France.
Bound, 2 1/2 dollars—sewed, 2 dollars.

10. Edwards's treatise on the religious affections. Coarse paper, a dollar—fine, a dollar and a half.

11. Rights of Woman—by Mrs. Wolfson edit. A dollar.

12. Willison's Sacramental Meditations.—60 cents.

13. Bonyan's Holy War, made by Shaddai against Daboli.

14. Short account of Algiers. Second edition, enlarged—25 cents.
Containing—A description of that country—the manners and customs of the inhabitants—and of their several wars against Spain, France, England, Holland, Venice, and other powers of Europe—from the usurpation of Barbarossa and the invasion of Charles V. to the present time.—With a concise view of the origin of the war between Algiers and the United States.
Embellished with a map of Barbary, comprehending Morocco, Fez, Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoly.

To the present edition is added a very copious index, containing letters from sundry American prisoners in Algiers to their friends in the United States—a list of

be well taken—and many very interesting articles not in the first edition.

29. Christian Economy. 25 cents.

30. Charms of Melody, a choice collection of Songs. 25 cents.

31. American Museum, 12 vols. 8vo. Nine-teen dollars and 20 cents.

32. The American Museum is not only eminently calculated to disseminate political and other valuable information, but it has been uniformly conducted with taste, attention, & propriety. It is therefore important objects to superadd the more immediate & efficacious of relieving public documents from oblivion, I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiment, that a more useful literary plan has never been undertaken in America, nor one more deserving of public encouragement."
