eyes, light nostrils; had on blue clothes, like a sailor's, and has a small wound in one of his fingers. He left his plantation last Saturday morning, after reading several slyer spoons and forks, part of which he sold to a silver-smith in Fredericktown. He enticed away with him a French Negro Girl, named Chloe, about 22 years of age, and me. She had on a green petticoat, and they both speak bad English. He says he is a gar-

BOOKS.

PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Matthew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,
By Mrs. Rowson, of the New-Theatre Philadelphia.

Second American edition—Price 75 cents.
[The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.] Extract from the Critical Review, April 1793, p. 468.

It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of her regularity of her former conduct, is ensured from the governess, and accompanies a young officer to America.—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconsistency of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and passionate; we should feel for Charlotte if such a situation ever existed, who for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved so severe a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed.
2. The Inquisitor—By Mrs. Rowson, 2d and Philadelphia edition. 67 1/2 cents 3. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.
4. Notes on the State of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.
5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot.
Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE
"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with seeing the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their reader will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every estimable action, whenever the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither for nor republicans. They love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal action, by which to noble a cause is endangered and diffused."

In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hope of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the zealous of either party. But when time shall dissipate the clouds of political deception, they wish to see the candid expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.
EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, JANUARY, 1794—page 12.

"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind."

act properly; no less care being taken to "The American Museum is not only eminently calculated to disseminate political and other valuable information, but it has uniformly conducted with taste, attention, & propriety. It to these important objects has superadded the more immediate price of relieving public documents from oblivion, I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiment, that a more useful literary plan has never
