Constituted for the purpose of relieving sick or distressed members is open for the admission of a few Subscribers on the original terms, after which the entrance will be advanced.
The benefits arising from the above institution are too obvious to require much comment; independent of advantages produced by social intercourse, the consciousness of contributing to our neighbours' relief, affords the highest gratification to a feeling mind, while it secures to ourselves a certain provision against future contingencies.

berry street, where the Society is held.—
