The New Philanthropic Society,
Constituted for the purpose of relieving sick or distressed members is open for the admission of a few Subscribers on the original terms, after which the entrance will be advanced.
The benefits arising from the above institution are too obvious to require much comment; independent of advantages produced by social intercourse, the consciousness of contributing to our neighbours relief, affords the highest gratification to a feeling mind, while it secures to ourselves a certain provision against future contingencies.
N. B. Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the bar of the Sun Tavern, Strawberry street, where the Society is held.—The next meeting will be on Monday the 16th inst.

AN HISTORICAL ACCOUNT
OF THE
Rise, progress, and present state
Canal Navigation in Pennsylvania.

With an Appendix, containing Abstracts of the Acts of the Legislature since the year 1790, and their Grants of Money for improving ROADS and NAVIGABLE WATERS throughout the State—to which is annexed,
"An Explanatory Map."
Published by Direction of the President and Managers of the Schuylkill and Susquehanna, and the Delaware and Schuylkill Navigation Companies.
"Here smooth CANALS, across th' extended plain
Stretch their long arms to join the distant main
The sons of toil, with many a weary stroke
Scoop the hard bosom of the solid rock;
Resistless through the stiff opposing clay,
With steady patience, work their gradual way;
Compel the Genius of th' unwilling flood
Through the brown horrors of the aged wood;
Cross the lone waste the silver urn they pour,
And cheer the barren heath, or fallen moor
"The traveller, with pleasing wonder sees
The white fall gleaming through the dusky trees;
And views the alter'd landscape with surprise
And doubts the magic scenes that round him rise
Now like a flock of swans, above his head,
Their woven wings the flying vessels spread
Now meeting streams, in artful mazes glide
While each, unmingled, pours a separate tide;
Now, through the hidden veins of earth they flow
And visit sulphurous mines and caves below
The ductile streams obey the guiding hand,
And social Plenty crowns the HAPPY LAND!"
