The New Philanthropic Society,
Constituted for the purpose of relieving sick or distressed members is open for the admission of a few Subscribers on the original terms, after which the entrance will be advanced.
The benefits arising from the above institution are too obvious to require much comment; independent of advantages produced by social intercourse, the consciousness of contributing to our neighbours' relief, affords the highest gratification to a feeling mind, while it secures to ourselves a certain provision against future contingencies.
N. B. Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the bar of the Sun Tavern, Strawberry Street, where the Society is held.—The next meeting will be on Monday the 16th inst.

HISTORICAL ACCOUNT
OF THE
Rife, progress, and present state

Canal Navigation in Pennsylvania.
With an Appendix, containing Abstracts of the Acts of the Legislature since the year 1790, and their Grants of Money for improving ROADS and NAVIGABLE WATERS throughout the state—to which is annexed,
"An Explanatory Map."
Published by Direction of the President and Managers of the Schuylkill and Susquehanna, and the Delaware and Schuylkill Navigation Companies.
"Here smooth CANALS, across th' extended plain
Stretch their long arms to join the distant main.
The sons of toil, with many a weary stroke
Scop the hard bosom of the solid rock;
Refitless through the stiff opposing clay,
With steady patience, work their gradual way;
Compel the Genius of th' unwilling flood
Through the brown horrors of the aged wood;
Cross the lone waste the silver urn they pour,
And cheer the barren heath, or sullen moor."
"The traveller, with pleasing wonder fees
The white sail gleaming through the dusky trees;
And views the alter'd landscape with surprise
And doubts the magic scenes that round him rise.
Now like a flock of swans, above his head,
Their woen wings the flying vessels spread
Now meeting streams, in artful mazes, glide
While each, unmingled, pours a separate tide;
Now, through the hidden veins of earth
they flow
And visit sulphurous mines and caves below.
The ductile streams obey the guiding hand,
And social Plenty crowns the HAPPY LAND!"

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whoever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republican.—They love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.
In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are

BOOKS.
PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Matthew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,
By Mrs. Rowson, of the New-Theatre Philadelphia.
Second American edition.—Price 75 cents.
[The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.]
Extra from the Critical Review, April 1791, p. 468.

It maybe a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is eniced from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America.—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconsistency of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who, for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved so severe a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed."
2. The Inquistor—by Mrs. Rowson, Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents
3. Adventures of Roderic-Random. 2 vol. 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.
4. Notes on the State of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.
5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot. Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whoever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republican.—They love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.
In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the zealous of either party. But when time shall dissipate the clouds of political deception, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candour and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW,
JANUARY, 1794—page 15.

"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind."
6. Flowden's history of the British Empire from May 1792, to December 1793. A dollar and a quarter. [This is an interesting and valuable a publication as had appeared for many years.]
7. Beattie's Elements of Moral Science 2 vols. One dollar and three quarters
8. Ladies Library. Second American edition. 87 1/2 cents. CONTAINING—Miss Moore's Follies; Dr. Gregory's Legacy to his Daughters; Lady Pennington's unfortunate mother's advice to her Daughters; Marchioness de Lambert's Advice of a mother to her daughter, Mrs. Chapon's Letter on the government of the temper; Swift's Letter to a Young Lady newly married; Moore's Fables for the Female Sex
9. Journal durant un Sejour en France depuis le commencement d'octobre jusqu'à la mi-Décembre; auquel est joint un recit des evenemens les plus remarquables qui ont eu lieu a Paris, depuis cette époque, jusqu'à la mort du roi de France.
Bound, 2 1-2 dollars—sewed, 2 dollars.
10. Edward's treatise on the religious affections. Coarse paper, a dollar—fine, a dollar and a half.
11. Rights of Woman—by Mrs. Wollstoncraft. A dollar.
12. Willson's Sacramental Meditations.—60 cents.
13. Bunyan's Holy War, made by Shaddai against D. abolis.

14. Short account of Algiers. Second edition, enlarged—25 cents.
Containing—A description of that country—of the manners and customs of the inhabitants—and of their severl wars against Spain, France, England, Holland, Venice, and other powers of Europe—from the usurpation of Barbaross and the invasion of Charles V. to the present time.—With a concise view of the origin of the war between Algiers and the United States.
Embellished with a map of Barbary, comprehending Morocco, Fez, Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoly.

To the present edition is added a very copious index, containing letters from sundry American prisoners in Algiers to their friends in the United States—a list of the vessels taken—and many very interesting articles not in the first edition.
15. Blair's Lectures on Rhetoric and Belles Letters. Three dollars 33 cents.
16. Smith's Letters to Married Women, on nursing and the management of children. 62 2 cents.
17. American Farmer's letters. 80 cents.
18. Young Misses Magazine. 2 vols. 1 dollar 33 cents.

Containing—Dialogues between a Governness and several Young Ladies of Quality her scholars.—In which each Lady is made to speak according to her particular genius, temper and inclination.—Their several faults, are pointed out, and the easy way to amend them, as well as to think, and speak, and act properly; no less care being taken to form their hearts to goodness, than to enlighten their understandings with useful knowledge. A short and clear abridgment is also given of sacred and profane History, and some lessons in Geography. The useful is blended throughout with the agreeable, the whole being interspersed with proper reflections and moral Tales.
19. Duncan's Elements of Logic. 80 cents
20. M'Fingal, an epic poem. 37 1-2 cents.
21. Tench Coxe's examination of Lord Sheffield's observations. 62 1-2 cents,

30. Charms of Melody, a choice collection of Songs. 25 cents.
31. American Museum, 12 vols, 8vo. Nineteen dollars and 20 cents.
"The American Museum is not only eminently calculated to disseminate political and other valuable information, but it has been uniformly conducted with taste, attention, & propriety. It is these important objects he superseded the more immediate office of releasing public documents from oblivion, I will venture to pronounce, as my sentiment, that a more useful literary plan has never been undertaken in America, nor one more deserving of public encouragement."
General Washington.

23. Poems of Col. Humphreys, 37 1-2 cents.
34. Catechism of Man. 18 1-2 cents.
