NOTICE.
A quarterly Meeting of the Philadelphia Society for the Information and Assistance of Persons emigrating from Foreign Countries will be held at Mr. Joseph Sharpless's Academy in Fromberger's Court, at half past seven o'clock, on Wednesday Evening, the first of April. In conformity with the first article of the Constitution, the Officers for the ensuing six months, will be balloted for; the punctual attendance of the members is therefore requested.
By order of the Committee,
Wm. TURNER, Sec'y.
Members elected the Fourth Inst.
Messrs. John Wrenhall, Ebenezer Breed Thomas B. Gover, C. Ewalds, M. Kaennel, Edw. Johnson, Wm. Batchelor, Dr. John Cumming, Philadelphia.
Mr. Richard S. Oakes, Kensington,
F. I. A. Berger, (honorary) Hamburg.
The Constitution is left for signature of the members elected, at the Office of Messrs. Wrigley and Berriman, No. 149, Chestnut Street.

The Committee finds that pecuniary aid is now wanting to accomplish the ends of the Institution; those, who are in arrears and who are convinced of its utility, will (it is presumed) require no other reason, to induce them to contribute their admission money, and quarterly subscriptions.
March 27

BOOKS.
PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Matthew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street,
1. Charlotte, a tale of truth,
By Mrs Rowfons, of the New-Theatre Philadelphia.
Second American edition—Price 75 cents.
[The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.]
Extra from the Critical Review, April 1791, p. 468.
It maybe a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of her regularity of her former conduct, is eniced from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America.—The marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconstancy of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who, for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved so severe a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed."
2. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowfons, 2d cond Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents.
3. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vols. 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.
4. Notes on the state of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.
5. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot. Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whoever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republicans.—They love liberty as English whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.
In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages, will not be acceptable to the zealots of either party. But when time shall dissipate the clouds of political interception, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, JANUARY, 1794—page 12.
"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worthy the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so fully excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind."
6. Plowden's history of the British empire from May 1792, to December 1793. A dollar and a quarter. [This is as interesting a valuable publication as had appeared for many years.]
7. Beattie's Elements of Moral Science 2 vols. One dollar and three quarters
8. Ladies Library. Second American edition. 87 1/2 cents. CONTAINING—Miss Moore's Essays; Dr. Gregory's Legacy to his Daughters; Lady Pennington's unfortunate mother's advice to her Daughters; Marchioness de Lambert's Advice of a mother to her daughter, Mrs Chapone's Letter on the government of the temper; Swift's Letter to a Young Lady newly married; Moore's Fables for the Female Sex
9. Journal durant un Sejour en France depuis le commencement d'out jusqu'à la mi-December; auquel est jointe un recit des evenemens les plus remarquables qui ont eu lieu a Paris, depuis cette époque, jusqu'à la mort du roi de France. Bound, 2 1/2 dollars—2 ewes, a dollars.
10. Edwards's treatise on the religious affections. Coarse paper, a dollar—fine, a dollar and a half.
11. Rights of Woman—by Mrs. Wolfson crast. A dollar.
12. Williston's Sacramental Meditations.—60 cents.
13. Bunyan's Holy War, made by Shaddai against D abols.
14. Short account of Algiers. Second edition, enlarged—25 cents.
Containing—A description of that country—of the manners and customs of the inhabitants—and of their several wars against Spain, France, England, Holland, Venice, and other powers of Europe—from the usurpation of Barbarossa and the invasion of Charles V. to the present time.—With a concise view of the origin of the war between Algiers and the United States.
Embellished with a map of Barbary, comprehending Morocco, Fez, Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoly.
To the present edition is added a very copious index, containing letters fromundry American prisoners in Algiers to their friends in the United States—a list of the vessels taken—and many very interesting articles not in the first edition.
15. Blair's Lectures on Rhetoric and Belles Letters. Three dollars 33 cents.
16. Smith's Letters to Married Women, on nursing and the management of children. 62 2 cents.
17. American Farmer's letters. 80 cents.
18. Young Millers Magazine. 2 vols. 1 dollar 33 cents.
Containing—Dialogues between a Governess and several Young Ladies of Quality her scholars.—In which each Lady is made to speak according to her particular genius, temper and inclination.—Their several faults, are pointed out, and the easy way to amend them, as well as to think, and speak, and act properly; no less care being taken to form their hearts to goodness, than to enlighten their understandings with useful knowledge. A short and clear abridgment is also given of sacred and profane History, and some lessons in Geography. The useful is, intended throughout with the agreeable, the whole being interspersed with proper reflections and moral Tales.
