

from thence, South to the beginning of the forty second degree, and from thence East, to the aforementioned bounds ten miles East of the Susquehanna river; together with the proceedings, resolutions, rules and regulations, of former meetings, respecting the same.

Adjourned until the 20th instant at nine o'clock in the morning, to meet in the same place.

On the 30th instant, (February) 9th 9 o'clock in the morning, the meeting opened and passed several resolutions and made some rules and regulations ordered for publication: of which the following are extracts.

This meeting, entertaining, a high sense of the importance of order and good government, will use their utmost endeavours to prevent any ill disposed persons without due authority, unlawfully intruding, surveying, or attempting to seize and settle any of the aforesaid lands; will assist in preserving the public peace—afford a just protection to the property of the real owners and such settlers as enter on the same peaceably and in due course of law and under the real proprietors thereof; being fully determined, in a constitutional and legal manner, only to maintain and defend the title and claim which the aforesaid company have to the aforesaid lands and also to recover such parts thereof, as are possessed in opposition thereto.

Resolved, That the following persons, to wit, Col. Zebulon Butler, Col. John Franklin, Gen. Simon Spalding, Col. John Jenkins, and Maj. Elisha Satterlee, of the county of Luzerne and state of Pennsylvania; Timothy Edwards of Stockbridge, county of Berkshire, commonwealth of Massachusetts, Esq. Doctor Joseph Hamilton, of the city of Hudson, county of Columbia, and state of New-York; Peter Loasp, jun. of the town of New Town, county of Tioga, and state of New-York, Esq. and William Judd, of the town of Farmington, in the county of Hartford, and state of Connecticut, Esq.—be commissioners of said company.

That each proprietor exhibit his claim to one of the said commissioners, on or before the first day of March, 1796, or that the same be considered as forfeited.

Resolved, That Col. John Franklin be the clerk, and David Paine the assistant clerk, of this company: that Col. John Franklin be the treasurer of this company.

That Col. John Franklin and Col. John Jenkins be agents for this company to attend on any actions commenced, or which shall hereafter be commenced, against any person or persons, in possession of any of the lands claimed under the Susquehanna company aforesaid, wherever the interest of the company is concerned.

That Col. John Jenkins be the Surveyor of this company; and his duty shall be to superintend all surveys and locations that shall be made; the Susquehanna purchase; and also to make an actual survey, or otherwise ascertain the exact boundaries of all grants heretofore given by and under the said company, and make a general plan of said purchase: and the said surveyor is hereby authorized to depute to many surveyors, who shall be deemed and accepted deputies, as he shall deem necessary.

Resolved, That this meeting be adjourned until the first Monday in June, 1796; then to meet at the house of James Irwin, in the town of Athens, on Tioga Point, at 10 o'clock, A. M. Attend.

JOHN FRANKLIN, Clerk
Of the Susquehanna company.

MORE ABOUT POWDER.

The Governor in his first address to the Legislature recommended it the strongest terms the indispensable necessity of an inspection law—The retailers and manufacturers of powder have petitioned the delegated guardians of their rights to pass an inspection act.

A bill for that purpose, read, reported & printed, now lays before the house, and 'tis conceived ought no longer to be procrastinated, but enacted into a law the present session.

We are informed that the American academy for the encouragement of the Fine Arts will open with a Lecture on Anatomy at 7 o'clock this evening at the Philosophical Hall.

From a Correspondent.

A most wonderful Change appears to have taken place in the sentiments of the Aurora scribblers—from being the Denunciators of the Chief Justice of the United States, they have lately become weepers and mourners on account of his absence.

Extract of a letter from Boston, dated March 22d.

"In this part of the continent, Jacobinism is in the last stage of dissolution. It was long since pronounced that the French would learn us how to destroy the monster—They have: But as their disease has been more violent, their remedy was proportionate. Our's needed not the acumen of their's. For the Jacobins have fallen by the public opinion, and they are nearly dead. Peace to their ashes! when the desirable event takes place, I say. A perfect calm pervades Massachusetts. We have a few electioneering skirmishes: But the God of Israel always guided and directed his people. I hope they will still continue under his divine protection. To-morrow, in three of the districts, they try again. Our friend Dexter is opposed by Col. Varnum. The contest will be a tight one, and success is doubtful.—

"What lies could do it done already—Hell and Earth can witness, if Varnum falls, the Jacobins are innocent." But if they succeed, they will mistake the man. I have been in company with him several evenings since the last trial. He is more than half federal; and if he had not supposed that way to get in, he would be wholly so. But events must tell. Gen. Cobb has declined serving. I am sorry for it—His election was nearly certain. Mr. Leonard will be the man. He, you know, is federal.—

Mr. Bailey Bartlett, a good federalist, has also declined; and we expect Mr. Bradbury will be elected. A firmer federalist never did honor to the boards of Congress.—He has capacity enough to twist an hundred of—round his finger, in fair, manly argument, and he never will descend to declamation, rant and personality. You certainly knew Freeman, who is elected vice Mr. Coffin. He is the one who pronounced the handsome eulogium on Governor Bowdoin, at the time he took his second degree. He is, you may depend, a clever fellow, and has spunk enough.

The anti's caught a Tartar when they fixed upon him. He has not approved of one or two of the acts of Congress, and was opposed to the state suability business. But that is done away.—

Parson Read, also, is not a— or a— He has been a little disaffected, but being a man who really loves his country, and would support measures calculated to promote her felicity, a little insight into the "things that make for her peace," would fix him right."

NEW-YORK, March 31.
French attack on GRENADA.

By the arrivals of Captain Savage, from Santa Cruz, and Captain Lines from Antigua, as stated below, it would appear that the French have made a descent on Grenada. The former mentions the preparation of the French forces at Guadaloupe—and the latter that news had been received at Martinico of the arrival of a French fleet at Grenada.

Capt. Savage, of the brig Hope, in 20 days from Santa Cruz, says that he failed seven days previously, from Point Petre Guadaloupe, and that a fleet of 11 sail of frigates and armed brigs and gun-boats, with a number of troops were preparing to sail on a secret expedition.

The mate of the brig Susan, arrived yesterday 18 days from Antigua, informs that 2 days previous to his sailing a small vessel had arrived from Martinico with British invalids, and reported that news had been received at Martinico of a French fleet and a number of land forces having arrived from Guadaloupe and landed at the Island of Grenada.

PHILADELPHIA.

IMPORTANT & INTERESTING.

THIS day arrived here, the Ship America, Capt. Ewing, in 39 days from Havre de Grace.

The INTELLIGENCE by this Arrival is as follows:—That about the 20th January—Rotterdam and Amsterdam surrendered to the French Army—that in consequence, 12 sail of the line—Thirty Six Frigates and one thousand Sail of Merchantmen fell into the hands of the Conquerors—That the British Army had retreated to the Island of Zealand—from whence it was supposed they had embarked for England—and that the Stadholder and his Family, had already arrived there.

That the French Fleet had returned into Port, three Sail of which were missing, supposed to have foundered in a great Storm, which had overtaken the fleet—and that the English fleet were at Torbay.

We further learn that all the United Provinces had submitted to the French except the province of Zealand—that the States General had been in Session—and had sent to the Inhabitants of Zealand, advising them to submit, for that all further resistance would be in vain.

Papers received by the America, state that a complete revolution is effected in the United Provinces, that a convention had been called and a new Constitution adopted on the 7th February. That on the 7th January the Stadholder asked leave of the States General to be absent from the country—which was immediately granted—that the new government of Holland had sent to England to demand several Dutch men of war which were there.

The foregoing intelligence we believe is substantially true, and may be Depended on.

THE LEVEL

Of Europe & North America,

OR THE

OBSERVER'S GUIDE.

Monday, February 9, 1795.

By PETER EGROU, L. L. D.

The Editor, and Company.

THIS Periodical work on a plan as novel as instructive is composed by Messrs. Egron, Tanguy, and a society of literati and American and European commercial gentlemen. It is written in English and French, and is divided into fifty-two numbers a year, the first of which appeared in the month of October last, in folio, which size, in compliance with the desire of our Subscribers, has been changed into that of quarto.

It contains 1st. A statement of the meteorological observations made in the course of each month, whether in the continent of North America, or in Europe.

2dly. A list of all goods exported from, or imported into the different markets of North America and Europe, with their comparative prices reduced to the weight measure and coin of the United States.

3dly. Observations on the different manufactures established, or likely to be established with advantage in America, on the nature of the soil in the different States, their present productions and those that may be substituted in their stead, together with the progressive value of lands.

Subscriptions are received by Peter Egron, L. L. D. the Editor at Philadelphia, No. 45, fourth Fifth street.

Price to Subscribers 8 dollars, payable half yearly.

Philadelphia, printed by WILLIAM W. WOODWARD, Franklin's Head, No. 36, Chestnut street.

Public Notice is hereby given,

That the Commissioners appointed by the Legislature to distribute the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars "for the relief of certain distressed French Emigrants," are ready to assist those that are old, sick, or otherwise disabled from procuring themselves a livelihood. Such being the peculiar object of the Public Benevolence. Applications made to Samuel P. Griffiths, Walnut street, No. 115, or Joseph Saffron, north Front street, No. 45, will be duly attended to.

The Printers of the different papers are requested to publish the above.
