

Gazette of the United States

AND DAILY EVENING ADVERTISER.

[No. 97 of Vol. VII.]

FRIDAY, APRIL 24, 1795.

[Whole No. 820.]

In the Chancery of New Jersey.
April 14th, 1795.
Present his Excellency Richard Howell, Chancellor.

Between Lydia Onderdonck, Complainant, and Henry Onderdonck, Defendant.

The Complainant in this cause, having this day filed her bill of complaint, praying for certain causes therein set forth, to be divorced from her husband Henry Onderdonck, the above defendant, and having made due proof, that the said Henry hath, after the cause of complaint had arisen removed himself without the jurisdiction of this court, so that the process thereof cannot be served upon him, or if served he cannot be compelled to appear and answer or plead, and having thereupon prayed a hearing upon the facts charged in the said bill.

It is therefore ordered that a hearing be had on the facts charged in the said bill, accordingly on the first day of July next at the dwelling house of William Hay, Innholder, in the city of Trenton, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, a copy of this order, having been first published in one of the public papers of this state, and in one of the public papers of the states of New York and Pennsylvania, or served on the said defendant for the space of two months at least, before the said day appointed for hearing.

Richard Howell.

BOOKS.

PRINTED & PUBLISHED
By Matthew Carey,
No. 118, Market Street,

1. Charlotte, a tale of truth, By Mrs Rowson, of the New-Theatre Philadelphia.
Second American edition—Price 75 cents.

2. The rapid sale of the First Edition of this interesting novel, in a few months, is the best proof of its merit.] Extra's from the Critical Review, April 1795, p. 468.

It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity of the regularity of her former conduct, is en-sined from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America—The marriage ceremny, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconsistency of her lover, and treachery of his friend.—The situations are artless and affecting—the descriptions natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved so severe a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed.

3. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowson, Sec-cond Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents

4. Adventures of Roderic Random. 2 vol: 1 dollar and 50 cents, coarse paper—1 dollar and 75 cents, fine.

5. Notes on the state of Virginia—by Thomas Jefferson. Price, neatly bound, one dollar and a half.

6. History of the French Revolution, from its commencement to the death of the Queen and the execution of Brissot.
Two dollars.

EXTRACT FROM THE PREFACE.
"The authors have presumed to affix to their title the epithet Impartial; and the reason is, because they cannot charge themselves with feeling the smallest bias to any party, but that of truth and liberty; and they flatter themselves, that their readers will find not only every circumstance fairly represented, but every censurable action, whoever were the authors or actors, marked in its proper colors. If it was necessary to make a declaration of their own principles, they would say, they are neither Tory nor republican—they love liberty as English Whigs, and execrate every criminal act by which so noble a cause is endangered and disgraced.

In the present ferment of the public mind, they cannot flatter themselves with the hopes of seeing this claim universally acknowledged. On the contrary, they are well assured that these pages will not be acceptable to the zealots of either party. But when time shall dissipate the clouds of political deception, they with some confidence expect that verdict from public opinion, which candor and moderation seldom fail to receive.

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW.
JANUARY, 1794—PAGE 12.

"We have certainly derived much pleasure, and acquired much information from the perusal of these volumes; and we think them, both for matter and style, worth the attention of all who interest themselves in events which have so justly excited the curiosity and astonishment of mankind." 6. Plowden's history of the British Empire from May 1792, to December 1793. A dollar and a quarter. [This is an interesting and valuable publication as had appeared for many years.]

ont eu lieu a Paris, depuis cette époque, jusqu'a la mort du roi de France.
Bound, 2 1/2 dollars—sewed, 2 dollars.

10. Edward's treatise on the religious affections. Coarse paper, a dollar—fine, a dollar and a half.

11. Rights of Woman—by Mrs. Wolfson craft. A dollar.

12. Willibron's Sacramental Meditations.— 60 cents.

13. Bouvian's Holy War, made by Shaddai against Dabolus.

14. Short account of Algiers. Second edition, enlarged—25 cents.

Containing—A description of that country—of the manners and customs of the inhabitants—and of their wars against Spain, France, England, Holland, Venice, and other powers of Europe—from the usurpation of Barbosilla and the invasion of Charles V. to the present time.—With a concise view of the origin of the war between Algiers and the United States.

Embellished with a map of Barbary, comprehending Morocco, Fez, Algiers, Tunis, and Tripoly.

To the present edition is added a very copious index, containing letters from undry American prisoners in Algiers to their Friends in the United States—a list of the vessels taken—and many very interesting articles not in the first edition.

15. Blair's Lectures on Rhetoric and Belles Lettres. Three dollars 33 cents.

16. Smith's Letters to Married Women, on nursing and the management of children. 62 cents.

17. American Farmer's letters. 80 cents.

18. Young Miles Magazine, 2 vols. 1 dollar 33 cents.

Containing—Dialogues between a Governneur and several Young Ladies of Quality and scholars.—In which each Lady is made to speak according to her particular genius, tempers and inclinations—Their several faults, are pointed out, and the easy way to amend in them, as well as to think, and speak, and act properly; no less care being taken to form their hearts to goodness, than to enlighten their understandings with useful knowledge. A short and clear abridgement is also given of sacred and profane History, and some lessons in Geography. The whole is blended throughout with the agreeable, the whole being interlarded with proper flexions and moral Tales.

19. Duncan's Elements of Logic. 80 cents

30. Charms of Melody, a choice collection of Songs. 25 cents.

31. American Museum, 12 vols. Nineteen dollars and 20 cents.

32. The American Museum is not only eminently calculated to diffuse moral, political and other valuable information, but it has uniformly conducted with propriety, and propriety. It to this reputation it is superadded the more immediate utility of relieving public documents from obscurity, I will venture to pronounce, as an important that a more useful purpose than has ever been undertaken in America, nor more deserving of public regard, than it is.
