In the Chancery of New Jersey.
 April 14th. 1795.
 Present his Excellency Richard Howell, Chancellor.
 Between Lydia Ouderdonck, Complainant, and Henry Ouderdonck, Defendant.

The Complainant in this cause, having this day filed her bill of complaint, praying for certain causes therein set forth, to be divorced from her husband Henry Ouderdonck, the above defendant, and having made due proof, that the said Henry hath, after the cause of complaint had arisen removed himself without the jurisdiction of this court, so that the process thereof cannot be served upon him, or if served he cannot be compelled to appear and answer or plead, and having thereupon prayed a hearing upon the facts charged in the said bill.
 It is therefore ordered that a hearing be had on the facts charged in the said bill, accordingly on the first day of July next at the dwelling house of William Hay, Innholder, in the town of Trenton, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, a copy of this order, having been first published in one of the public papers of this State, and in one of the public papers of the States of New York and Pennsylvania, or served on the said defendant for the space of two months at least, before the said day appointed for hearing.

 The Superintendants have appointed John N. Cumming, of Newark, Jacob R. Heindenberg, of New-Brunswick, and Jonathan Rhea, of Trenton, as immediate Managers thereof, who have given ample security for discharging the trust reposed in them.
 In order to secure the punctual payment of the Prizes, the Superintendants of the Lottery have directed that the Managers shall each enter into bonds in 40,000 dollars, with four sufficient securities, to perform their instructions, the substance of which is
 I. That whenever either of the Managers shall receive the sum of Three Hundred Dollars, he shall immediately place the same in one of the Banks of New-York or Philadelphia, to the credit of the Governor of the Society, and such of the Superintendants as live in the city where the monies are placed, to remain there until the Lottery is drawn, for the payment of the Prizes.
 II. The Managers to take sufficient security for any Tickets they may sell, otherwise to be responsible for them.
 III. To keep regular books of Tickets sold, Monies received and paid into the Bank, abstracts of which shall be sent, monthly, to the Governor of the Society.
 Paterson, January 1, 1794.
 On application to either of the above gentlemen, information will be given where tickets may be had. 1u&tf

A VENDRE,
 Une Terre Superbe située dans l'Etat de la Nouvelle York.

LA BELLE Habitation connue par le nom de SCOTIA, située sur le bord du nord de la Rivière de Mohawk et vis à vis la florissante ville de Schenectady qui est à l'extrémité de la communication par eau entre la Canada et autres parties occidentales avec la ville d'Albani dont elle est éloignée de seize miles Anglois ou cinq lieues un tiers de France.
 Cette terre est bornée par la dite Rivière environ deux tiers de lieue—les grands Chemins de parties de l'Ouest et du nord se joignent en cet endroit avec plusieurs autres et conduisent à l'endroit par où l'on traverse la Rivière vis à vis la dite ville—cette habitation contient plus de mille acres, une grande partie de la quelle est en plaine de la première qualité et propre pour des prairies ou du grain dont elle produit un grand abondance.
 On pourroit la deviser en plusieurs habitations donnant à chacune des situations très commodes a placer des maisons—elle contient après deux maisons grandes et bien commodes avec des Granges Escuries, Magazins, des Remises pour les Voitures et plusieurs autres batimens qui sont très convenables le tout situé sur une elevation au bord de la dite Rivière d'où l'on a une vue bien agréable sur la dite ville, des prairies dans ses environs et de la Rivière aussi bien que d'un Reservoir d'environ treize acres, qui est bien fourni de poisson et de gibier.
 Il y a aussi sur la dite terre un Moulin à eau sur un courant qui ne manque jamais, avec une maison pour le meunier; on y pourroit ajouter d'autres moulins, &c.—sur cette terre est aussi un bon Verger des meilleurs fruits de ce pays d'environ mille arbres, entés, les Jardins abondent de toutes sortes de fruit propre pour ce climat—Dependent aussi de cette terre plusieurs tenemens avec des lots de terre dont les baux sont d'une courte durée.
 Il n'y a point de terre dans ces parties qui soit plus féconde pour toutes sortes de grain d'hiver dont il en a été semé l'automne passé presque deux cents boisseaux ce qui sera compris dans la Vente aussi bien que deux petites Isles dans la Rivière vis à vis la maison.
 On pense que la vue de ces terres on donnera une plus haute idée qu'aucun description qu'on pourroit en donner.
 Pour les conditions de Ventes il faut se rendre chez le fournisseur demandeur pour les lieux ou a messieurs Oliver Wendell et Harrison G. Otis, à Bolton—messieurs Cornelius Ray et De Wit Clinton, à New-York—messieurs James Gordon et Henry Glen, membres du Congrès, à présent a Philadelphia, ou a monsieur Stephen Bayard dans la ville de Schenectady, qui feront connoître le prix et conditions de la Vente.

JOHN SANDERS.
Valuable Property
For Sale,
 IN THE
STATE of NEW-YORK.
 THAT valuable and well known Estate, called SCOTIA, situate on the north bank of the Mohawk river, directly opposite the populous and flourishing town of Schenectady, at the foot of the water-communication from the Western Country, and Upper Canada; sixteen miles from the city of Albany, extending about two miles on the bank of the river above and below the said town; this river is the only water communication in the United States with the great western Lakes. The roads from the western and northern parts of the state of New York, together with a number of other public roads here meet, and lead to the noted ferry kept opposite the said town.
 It contains upwards of one thousand acres, a great proportion of which is interval or low land, calculated both for grass or grain, producing great burthens annually; it may be laid into a number of valuable farms, affording convenient and handsome building grounds; there is now on the premises two very large and commodious dwelling houses with large Dutch barns, barracks, hovels, stables, cart and waggon house, carriage house store house, summer house, and other out-houses, on a commanding eminence near the bank of the river, affording a beautiful and extensive prospect of the river for several miles, the lowland, the town, and a fine lake of water, covering about thirty acres, well stored with all kinds of river fish, fowl, &c. There is a good grist mill on a never failing stream of water, a good frame house, &c. for the miller, also a convenient above the mill for erecting more water works; there is a bearing orchard with nearly one thousand apple trees, set out, gratted of the best fruit, the gardens are stocked with all the various fruits the climate will admit; also several tenements with portions of land on short leases.
 The land in point of fertility of soil, is exceeded by none in the state; there is now in the ground near two hundred bushels winter grain, which will be included in the above sale.
 Also two small islands in the river, opposite the mansion house.
 A view of the premises, it is presumed, will fully equal any description that can be given thereof.
 For terms of sale apply to the Subscriber, residing on the premises, Messrs. Oliver Wendell or Harrison G. Otis, Esquires, in the town of Bolton, Cornelius Ray, or De Wit Clinton, Esquires, at the city of New York; James Gordon or Henry Glen, Esquires, two of the members of Congress, at the city of Philadelphia; Stephen N. Bayard, in the town of Schenectady, by whom the price & terms of sale will be communicated.
