EXHIBITION.

THE Society of the Columbian or American Academy of Painting, &c. inform the public in general, and Artists in particular, that an Exhibition of Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, Modelling, Drawing and Engraving, will commence on Monday the eighteenth day of May next, and continue open every day, Sunday's excepted, during the space of six weeks. Those Ladies and Gentlemen who may favor the Exhibition with their performances, are requested to send them, framed, from the 11th to the 13th of May inclusive, to the Senate Chamber in the State House, (which has been kindly granted for the purpose) in order for arrangement. Original Paintings, Drawings, &c. only, can be admitted, which have never appeared in any Exhibition in the United States, and which may be judged fit for the public eye.

Exhibitors are requested to send Descriptions of their Works, together with their Names and Places of abode, for insertion in the Catalogue. Those who may wish to conceal their Names, shall be termed "Honorary Exhibitors."

All possible care shall be taken of every piece of Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, Modelling, Drawing and Engraving; and at the conclusion of the Exhibition, be delivered to persons duly authorized to receive them.

The Society being much occupied in preparing for the Exhibition, and the Evening's shortness, the Academy of Drawing from living Figures is closed. Due notice shall be given of its opening the next Season.

By Order,
SAMUEL LEWIS, Secretary pro tem.

Philosophical Hall, April 29th, 1795.

February 28.

In the Chancery of New Jersey.

April 14th, 1795.

Present his Excellency Richard Howell,
Chancellor.

Between Lydia Onderdonck, Complainant,
and
Henry Onderdonck, Defendant.

The Complainant in this cause, having this day filed her bill of complaint, praying for certain causes therein set forth, to be divorced from her husband Henry Onderdonck, the above defendant and having made due proof, that the said Henry hath, after the cause of complaint had arisen removed himself without the jurisdiction of this court, so that the process thereof cannot be served upon him, or if served he cannot be compelled to appear and answer or plead, and having thereupon prayed a hearing upon the facts charged in the said bill.

It is therefore ordered that a hearing be had on the facts charged in the said bill, accordingly on the first day of July next at the dwelling house of William Hay, Innholder, in the city of Trenton, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, a copy of this order, being first published in one of the public papers of this state, and in one of the public papers of the states of New York and Pennsylvania, or served on the said defendant for the space of two months at least, before the said day appointed for hearing.

Richard Howell.

April 20.

A School for Eloquence.

THE Subscriber respectfully solicits the patronage of the public, for the commencement of a SCHOOL, on the evenings of Tue day, Thursday, and Saturday, from 5 to 8 o'clock, for young Gentlemen whose parents may wish to have them instructed in ORATORY, as an agreeable relaxation after the more useful studies of the day. It is a fact well known, that very many who have had the advantage of a good education, have not acquired, through life, the most approved and elegant mode of public delivery, the pleasure and advantage of which must be strongly felt by every one of true judgment.

The Subscriber has, from early life, been intimately acquainted with some of the first literary characters, and has paid strict attention to Garrick, Sheridan, and the best Orators of the age; he trusts, therefore, that he will be found capable of instructing his pupils in the best manner of reading and reciting.

As soon as a dozen are engaged to excite the Seeds of Emulation, the School will be opened by the public's humble servant,

John Des Moulins.

A public day of Speaking, once a quarter, for the inspection of parents and friends.

Private Instructions given any hour in the day.

Those favouring J. D. M. with their address at No. 89, S. Fourth-street, shall be immediately waited on, and the terms will then be settled agreeable to their inclinations.
