EXHIBITION.
THE Society of the Columbianum or American Academy of Painting, &c. inform the public in general, and Artists in particular, that an Exhibition of Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, Modelling, Drawing and Engraving, will commence on Monday the eighteenth day of May next, and continue open every day, Sunday's excepted, during the space of six weeks. Those Ladies and Gentlemen who may favor the Exhibition with their performances, are requested to send them, framed, from the 11th to the 13th of May inclusive, to the Senate Chamber in the State House, (which has been kindly granted for the purpose) in order for arrangement. Original Paintings, Drawings, &c. only, can be admitted, which have never appeared in any Exhibition in the United States, and which may be judged fit for the public eye.
Exhibitors are requested to send Descriptions of their Works, together with their Names and places of abode, for insertion in the Catalogue. Those who may wish to conceal their Names, shall be termed "Honorary Exhibitors."
All possible care shall be taken of every piece of Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, Modelling, Drawing and Engraving; and at the conclusion of the Exhibition, be delivered to persons duly authorized to receive them.
The Society being much occupied in preparing for the Exhibition, and the Evening's shortened, the Academy of Drawing from living Figures is closed. Due notice shall be given of its opening the next Season.
By Order,
SAMUEL LEWIS, Secretary pro tem. Philosophical Hall, April 29th, 1795.

A School for Eloquence.
THE Subscriber respectfully solicits the patronage of the public, for the commencement of a SCHOOL, on the evenings of Tue day, Thursday, and Saturday, from 5 to 8 o'clock, for young Gentlemen whose parents may wish to have them instructed in ORATORY, as an agreeable relaxation after the more useful studies of the day. It is a fact well known, that very many who have had the advantage of a good education, have not acquired, through life, the most approved and elegant mode of public delivery, the pleasure and advantage of which must be strongly felt by every one of true judgment. The Subscriber has, from early life, been intimately acquainted with some of the first literary characters, and has paid strict attention to Garrick, Sheridan, and the best Orators of the age; he trusts, therefore, that he will be found capable of instructing his pupils in the best manner of reading and reciting.
As soon as a dozen are engaged to excite the Seeds of Emulation, the School will be opened by the public's humble servant,
John Des Moulins.
A public day of Speaking, once a quarter, for the inspection of parents and friends.
* * * Private Instructions given any hour in the day,
Those favouring J. D. M. with their address at No. 89, S. Fourth-street, shall be immediately waited on, and the terms will then be settled agreeable to their inclinations. 4t.
