In the Chancery of New Jersey. April 14th. 1795.

Present his Excellency Richard Howell, Chancellor.

Between Lydia Onderdonck, Complainant, and Henry Onderdonck, Defendant.

The Complainant in this cause, having this day filed her bill of complaint, praying for certain causes therein set forth, to be divorced from her husband Henry Onderdonck, the above defendant, and having made due proof, that the said Henry hath, after the cause of complaint had arisen removed himself without the jurisdiction of this court, so that the process thereof cannot be served upon him, or if served he cannot be compelled to appear and answer or plead, and having thereupon prayed a hearing upon the facts charged in the said bill.

It is therefore ordered that a hearing be had on the facts charged in the said bill, accordingly on the first day of July next at the dwelling house of William Hay, Innholder, in the city of Trenton, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, a copy of this order, having been first published in one of the public papers of this state, and in one of the public papers of the states of New York and Pennsylvania, or served on the said defendant for the space of two months at least, before the said day appointed for hearing.

No. 96. District of Pennsylvania to wit.

BE IT REMEMBERED, that on the first day of May, in the nineteenth year of the Independence of the United States of America, James P. Pugh of the said District hath deposited in this Office the Title of a Book the Right whereof he claims as Author in the following words, to wit:

"The FEDERAL POLITICIAN, by James P. Pugh, Teacher of the Spanish and Italian Languages, and author of the Spanish work entitled el Defensor del Hombre, or the Man Undeceived, &c. Est modus in rebus, nisi certi dominici Finis, Quam ultra citraque nequit consistere rectum." In conformity to the Act of Congress of the United States intitled "An Act for the encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies of Maps, Charts and Books to the Authors and proprietors of such Copies" during the times therein mentioned. SAMUEL CALDWELL Clerk of the District of Pennsylvania. May 2. d

A FEW COPIES Of the celebra ed Performance under the Signature of MANLIUS, May be had of John Ormrod, No. 41, Chestnut street. PRICE—25 CENTS.

FOR SALE; Between nine and

10,000 Acres of Land,

Situate in the county of Frederick, and state of Virginia, being the greater part of Greenway Court Manor. Part of this tract lies on the river Shenandoah, between thirty and forty miles above its junction with the Potomack. The Shenandoah is capable of being rendered navigable, and the navigation of the Potomack is in a fair way of being completed to tide water which circumstances offer in a few years a water carriage to the flourishing towns of Georgetown and Alexandria, and to the City of Washington; from all which places the said tract is distant between seventy and eighty miles by land. The flourishing Borough of Winchester is only twelve or fourteen miles from it.

Between three and four thousand acres of the land are leased generally for terms not exceeding twenty one years and many of the terms have only short periods to run. The remaining quantity being near six thousand acres, consists of the most valuable part of the tract being extremely rich limestone land, similar in quality to the very fertile country in Lancaster and York counties of this state, and in Frederick county of Maryland. An indisputable title will be made to the purchaser.

This tract being situated in a most healthy and fertile country, offers a most advantageous investment of money; as no part of America can exhibit a more rapid settlement and improvement, and consequently a more rapid increase in the value of real estate.

It would be particularly advantageous to a company or settlers as the part not leased, admits of being divided into farms of any size to suit the convenience of the parties concerned.

One half of the purchase money must be paid at the time of sale, and the remaining half at easy instalments with interest. Further particulars are deemed unnecessary as it is probable the land will be viewed, by any person disposed to buy before he purchases.

The price for the whole tract may be known on application to the hon. Thomas Hartley, Esq. at Yorktown, to the hon. John Wilkes Kittera, Esq. at the town of Lancaster, in this state, to Charles Lee, Esq. at Alexandria in the state of Virginia, or to the subscriber, at No. 29, north Second street in this city, who will treat with any person or persons disposed to purchase till the fifteenth day of June next.

Richard Bland Lee. Philad. April 14. tu & f2m

No. 94. District of Pennsylvania, TO WIT.

Be it remembered that on the twenty sixth day of March, in the nineteenth year of the Independence of the United States of America, Joseph Priestley of the said district hath deposited in this office, the title of a book, the right whereof he claims as author, in the words following, to wit:

"A continuation of the Letters to the Philosophers and Politicians of France, on the subject of Religion, and of the Letters to a Philosophical Unbeliever, in answer to Mr. Paine's Age of Reason—By Joseph Priestley, L. L. D. F. R. S. &c. &c."

In conformity to the act of the Congress of the United States, intitled "an act for the Encouragement of Learning, by securing the copies of maps, charts and books to the authors and proprietors of such copies, during the times therein mentioned."

Samuel Caldwell, Clerk of the District of Pennsylvania. April 11. t.w.v.v
