This Day is Published, AND FOR SALE BY THOMAS DOBSON, At the Stone House, No. 41 South Second St. A View of the Evidences of CHRISTIANITY. IN THREE PARTS. 1. Of the direct Historical Evidence of Christianity, and wherein it is distinguished from the Evidence of other miracles. 2. Of the Auxiliary Evidence of Christianity. 3. A brief consideration of some popular Objections. By WILLIAM PALEY, M. A. Archdeacon of Carlisle. In One Large Octavo volume. Price one dollar and three quarters, handsomely bound. In the present enlightened age, when free discussion has opened the eyes of mankind, and the fabrics of Despotism and Superstition are crumbling to the dust, it becomes an object of no small importance, to distinguish leading Truths from those Counterfeits which had assumed their names and usurped their place, and in the subversion of which, Truth itself is too apt to be discarded without inquiry. In the present work, the learned author (who had before distinguished himself by his principles of moral and political Philosophy) has treated the subject with that ability and candour which becomes it, and has exhibited in a short compass, perhaps the clearest and most distinct view of the proper evidences of christianity ever published.
