On MONDAY NEXT,
At seven o'clock in the evening, at the Merchants' Coffee house, will be sold for account of the concerned.
The Hull of the Brigantine Sarah, as she now lays on the outer lock of the Shear, about 25 or 30 miles within the capes of Delaware. The following is the account given of her situation by a person who went on board for the purpose of examining it. The brig lays on her starboard side, her lee coamings being nearly under water at low water; she is supposed to be bilged, there is about six and a half feet along side at low water; no great difficulty is apprehended in getting her off, on the contrary, it is deemed a matter of certainty by the person who surveyed her, that she may be got off, her cargo consisting wholly of sugar.
And on the following day, at 10 o'clock, A. M. at John Ross's wharf, all the sails, rigging, some spars, a cabin, and three anchors, which have been saved from said vessel, together with her long boat and yawl.

FRAUNCES'S TAVERN
No. 59 South Water Street,
THE Subscriber respectfully begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from No. 166 South 2d Street, to that large, commodious, House in Water Street, between Chestnut and Walnut Streets, lately occupied by Mr. Isaac Haselbush, and on which he has spared no pains or expence, to make it convenient and agreeable for the reception of gentlemen. The House being situated on the same spot where the noted Beef Steak and Punch house formerly stood, has the advantage of the best water in this city, known long since by the name of the Green Tree Water. As there are several elegant Rooms, sufficiently large to accommodate any Society or company of gentlemen, and from his well known abilities to please in the line of his business, he flatters himself with a continuance of that patronage which he has experienced since he first opened a Public House in this City, and for which he begs leave to make a public acknowledgment.
For the accommodation of Small Parties, the Large Coffee Room on the ground floor is conveniently fitted up with a number of Boxes, constructed in such a manner as to admit Gentlemen to be as private as they please—Where may be had, at any hour, Soups, Beef-Steaks, Relishes, &c. &c.
He has on hand, and will keep a constant supply of Spirituous and Malt Liquors, and of the best qualities.
Breakfasts provided—Also Dinners and suppers cooked in the most approved manner, at a short notice, and Pastry of all sorts, made to order, in the House, or to send out at any hour.
He has several well furnished Bed Chambers, for Boarders and Lodgers, by the Week, month, or year.
SAMUEL FRAUNCES.
P. S. The large, convenient, Stores and Vaults, underneath the House, with the Office above, to be rented, either separate or together—For terms apply to the Subscriber.

THIS DAY IS PUBLISHED,
By THOMAS DOBSON,
At the STONE HOUSE, No. 41 South Second St
DOMESTIC MEDICINE
Or, A Treatise on the Prevention and Cure of Diseases,
By Regiment and Simple Medicines, with an Appendix, containing a Dispensary for the use of private Practitioners, By WILLIAM BUCHAN, M. D. Fellow of the Royal College of Physicians, Edinburgh.
Revised, and adapted to the Diseases and Climates of America,
By SAMUEL POWELL GRIFFITHS,
M. D. Professor of Materia Medica, in the University of Pennsylvania.
In One Large Volume, Octavo—Price two DOLLARS AND A HALF.
THE best Eulogium on this valuable Work is the reception it has met with from the Public, before the present very important improvements were added. Between twenty and thirty large editions of it have been sold.
Being now adapted to the climate and diseases of the United States, it is hoped the work will be found more extensively useful, at the same time the price is lower than the London edition in its unimproved state can be sold for.

In the Chancery of New Jersey.
April 14th. 1795.
Present his Excellency Richard Howell, Chancellor.
Between Lydia Onderdonck, Complainant, and Henry Onderdonck, Defendant.
The Complainant in this cause, having this day filed her bill of complaint, praying for certain causes therein set forth, to be divorced from her husband Henry Onderdonck, the above defendant, and having made due proof, that the said Henry had, after the cause of complaint had arisen removed himself without the jurisdiction of this court, so that the process thereof cannot be served upon him, or if served he cannot be compelled to appear and answer or plead, and having thereupon prayed a hearing upon the facts charged in the said bill.
It is therefore ordered that a hearing be had on the facts charged in the said bill, accordingly on the first day of July next at the dwelling house of William Hay, Innholder, in the city of Trenton, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, a copy of this order, having been first published in one of the public papers of this state, and in one of the public papers of the states of New York and Pennsylvania, or served on the said defendant for the space of two months at least, before the said day appointed for hearing.
Richard Howell.
