ADVERTISEMENT
Subscriptions for a daily paper, perhaps in few instances are sufficient to defray the expense of their publication; their principal support is derived from Advertisements.—The following statement will show that this Gazette is a favorable vehicle for circulating advertising information extensively and diffusively—it is sent per post to subscribers in the following places, viz.
Savannah and Augusta, in Georgia.
Charleston, Columbia, Stateburgh, in South Carolina.
Wilmington, Newbern, Edenton, Fayetteville, Salem, in North Carolina.
Danville, Louisville, Lexington, in Kentucky.
Norfolk, Petersburg, Fredericksburgh, Alexandria, George Town, Washington, Richmond, New London, Falmouth, Accomack, Abingdon, Williamsburgh, Yorktown, Dumfries, Urbanna, Colchester, in Virginia.
Baltimore, Easton, Princeps Ann, Bladenburgh, Annapolis, Chaptico, Warwick, Chelertown, Chester Mill, Elkton, in Maryland.
Uniontown, Washington, Carlisle, York, Chambersburgh, Harrisburgh, Greensburgh, Pittsburg, Reading, in Pennsylvania.
Wilmington, Middletown, Dover, in Delaware.

New York, Albany, Otsego, New York, Hartford, New London, Norwich, Litchfield, in Connecticut.
Newport, Providence, in Rhode Island.
Boston, in Massachusetts.
Portsmouth, Charlestown, in New Hampshire.
In addition to the above extensive circulation, this Gazette is exchanged weekly and daily with eighty eight different printers of Newspapers from Georgia to the District of Maine. The number of Subscribers in this City is respectable, and the List is increasing—Advertisements of Estates, Auctions at a distant day, Lands, for Contracts, Lotteries, Manufacturers, New Establishments in mechanical branches, &c. &c. will derive peculiar advantage from this extensive circulation.
Terms of advertising are fifty cents per square for the first insertion, and twenty cents per square for each subsequent publication.

FRAUNCES'S TAVERN
No. 59 South Water Street,
THE Subscriber respectfully begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed from No. 166 South 4d Street, to that large, commodious, House in Water Street, between Chestnut and Walnut Streets, lately occupied by Mr. Isaac Haselbush, and on which he has spared no pains or expense, to make it convenient and agreeable for the reception of gentlemen. The House being situated on the same spot where the noted Beef Steak and Punch house formerly stood, has the advantage of the best water in this city, known long since by the name of the Green Tree Water. As there are several elegant Rooms, sufficiently large to accommodate any Society or company of gentlemen, and from his well known abilities to please in the line of his business, he flatters himself with a continuance of that patronage which he has experienced since he first opened a Public House in this City, and for which he begs leave to make a public acknowledgment.
For the accommodation of Small Parties, the Large Coffee Room on the ground floor is conveniently fitted up with a number of Boxes, constructed in such a manner as to admit Gentlemen to be as private as they please—Where may be had, at any hour, Soups, Breef-Steaks, Relishes, &c. &c.
He has on hand, and will keep a constant supply of Spirituous and Malt Liguors, and of the best qualities.
Breakfasts provided—Also Dinners and Suppers cooked in the most approved manner, at a short notice, and Pastry of all sorts, made to order, in the House, or to send out at any hour.
He has several well furnished Bed Chambers, for Boarders and Lodgers, by the Week, month, or year.
SAMUEL FRAUNCES.
P. S. The large, convenient, Stores and Vaults, underneath the House, with the Office above, to be rented, either separate or together—For terms apply to the Subscriber.

CANAL LOTTERY.
Tickets in the above Lottery, sanctioned by law of this State, are now in rapid demand, at the office No. 149 Chestnut-Street, between Fourth and Fifth-Streets, at ten dollars each, being the original price, by order of the committee for directing the above Lottery.
The public are respectfully informed, that "grand policies," or any other designation of policies, pending on the drawing, are not wanted at this office—also, every denomination of hazard, or "insurance against blank," during said drawing, will not be transacted at the above office, under any specious shape whatever; being directly contrary to law, and tending to delude the ignorant and unwary.
The Offensive Proprietor of the POLICE MANUFACTORY, No. 105, Chestnut-Street, is respectfully cautioned against issuing upon the Public his Anonymous Publications.—That Public are too discerning to be lured into his POLICE BUBBLES, under the plausible advantages held forth by this modern Judas—for a small sum to gain an immense fortune of SIXTY THOUSAND OTHERS!!!

CANAL LOTTERY.
TICKETS in the above Lottery, sanctioned by a law of this State, and in every other Lottery extant here, authorized by the constitution of the United States, are selling fast at this office, where grand policies, and every other species of insurance on this Lottery, is legally transacted.
The proprietors of this office solicit a continuance of that preference they have so decidedly experienced, which it will at all times be their study to merit by fair, open, and candid dealing. They have no doubt the discerning public, will trace in the NON-NOLE caution of an envious competitor, the dog in the manger and that they will treat him as we mean to do with contempt. The public will decide justly, between fair dealing and malignant aspersion, and fix the Judas appellation where it ought to rest; as a competitor we were willing to let him pass with uncle Toby's consolation "that the world was wide," and there was room enough for him and us, but as an envious snarler, we consign him to the same punishment, we would the animal he so justly represents. And we have no doubt the generous attention we do experience will every day increase his malady.
It is needless to say more, to direct the public eye, "a puddle will soon discover itself by its obnoxious vapours." As our propositions are published, we expect the public will view them and judge for themselves.

LANDS for SALE, In VIRGINIA.
ONE Tract of 1204 1-2 acres, in Hampshire county, divided into three farms; one of 400, another of 400 1-2, and the other 404 acres, on the waters of Indian camp run, and little Cape Canon, adjoining the lands of Mr. Hugh Murphy and colonel Greenfield, about one or two miles from the main road leading from Winchester to Romney; taken up and surveyed in the year 1777, and deeds granted for the same from the proprietor's office in 1780—described to be equal to any land in that part of the country.
Also one tract in Fauquier county, of 603 acres, well adapted for tobacco and all kinds of grain; and about four miles from the Court-House, joining the main road that leads from thence to Falmouth, from which it is distant about 30 miles, and the same from Dumfries, and about 40 miles from the Federal City and Georgetown. On it there is a large quantity of fine meadow land, and several fine springs and on Turkey Run a never failing stream, which runs through one corner of it just where it joins the main road, there is a fine situation for a merchant's mill.
Near one third part of this tract is cleared.
One Tract of 1000 acres, on Stoner's fork of Licking, granted in consequence of a pre-emption Treasury warrant, issued in June, 1780, and a patent granted for the same in June 1787, it was first in Fayette County, then in Bourbon, at present in Clark county, about 22 miles from Lexington, 12 or 14 from Bourbon Court House, and about 4 miles from Clark court house, in a thick settled part of the country. General information lays the Quality is equal to any 1000 acres of Land in that country.
Terms may be known by applying to
ALEXANDER LIAHOV.
