New Proposals for EDWARD'S HISTORY OF THE WEST-INDIES: A Work in the Knowledge of which every American is interested; whether devoted to business, or desirous of instructive amusement.

IT has been intimated to the subscriber from different quarters, that the above work, if printed in Quarto, would give more general satisfaction than the Quarto form in which he has proposed it, and especially if the price of it could be reduced. In order therefore to meet the wishes of the public, and to get for useful work to this country into general circulation, he now proposes to alter the form, and instead of the Two volumes, Quarto, to print it in Three Volumes, Octavo. To reduce the price, he proposes to omit the prints, which being only ornamental, can be of no consequence: But the Maps, without which the work would be very incomplete indeed, will be all retained. The price by this means will be reduced upon the whole, Three Dollars and an half, as will be observed in the difference between the former and the following Proposals, which the subscriber respectfully offers the public, soliciting their encouragement to the work by early subscription; intending, with the addition of a few more names to his List, to commence publishing, and to continue it every week till the whole is finished. And when it is considered, that the work is to be illustrated and embellished with a large two sheet MAP of the West-Indies, and with Ten other Maps of the islands separately, it must surely be esteemed as unusually cheap.

JAMES HUMPHREYS. CONDITIONS on which the above History is to be printed. It shall be illustrated with a large two sheet general Map of the West-Indies, and with ten other Maps, viz. of Jamaica, Barbadoes, Grenada, St. Vincents, Dominica, St. Christopher's, Nevis, Antigua, the Virgin Islands, and Hispaniola. It shall be printed in large Octavo, on a neat type and on the best printing paper; agreeable to the specimen to be had of the printer. It shall be published in numbers weekly; each number to contain forty pages of letter press; and is calculated to be completed in thirty six numbers: The price for each number to be One Quarter of a Dollar, to be paid on delivery. Should it exceed the thirty-six numbers the remainder will be given gratis. The Maps will be delivered with the numbers to which they particularly attach, free of any additional price. And a direction will be given against what particular page each one is to be placed. The subscribers names, with the title pages &c. will be given with the last numbers. Note. Such subscribers as do not incline to receive the numbers as they are published, will have them carefully reserved for them on paying four dollars at the time of subscribing, and the remainder when the work is finished. To prevent disappointment or complaint, it is now premised, that as there will be but a very few copies struck off more than may be subscribed for, the price will be considerably raised after the publication of the number containing the first Map, which will be of the island of Jamaica. Philadelphia, June 21, 1800.

Subscriptions are received by said Humphreys, No 106, the fourth side of Market-street; Mr. W. P. Young, Charleston, South Carolina; Messrs Way and Giff at the Federal City; Mr William Pritchard, at Richmond, Virginia; Mr G Hill, Baltimore, Maryland; Messrs Thomas and James Swores, New York; Mr Isaac Beers, New Haven, Connecticut; Mr James White, Boston; and Mr T. C. Cushing, Salem, Massachusetts.

300 Dollars REWARD. RAN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 18th of June inst. TWO NEGRO SERVANTS; viz a negro woman named Pat, a washer-woman and cook, of about fifty two years of age—tall and well shaped, of a black complexion. She has bad teeth, those of her under jaw are much discoloured and project a good deal. She has a full head of woolly hair—a very cross forbidding countenance, is very impertinent, and laughs and talks loud. Pat was born in South Carolina, and speaks bad English, with the negro dialect. She has on the upper part of her breast, two pretty large lumps of flesh resembling Warts, or rather with the appearance of the marks of a burn. She carried away with her several changes of cloaths, and gowns of white muslin, and of coloured and figured printed cottons fashionably made up. She also carried away with her, CLARA her daughter—a very stout, robust, strong made girl, of a short stature, and round shouldered—appearing to be about 14 years of age. Clara has large staring eyes, a flat nose, an oval flat face, her under jaw projecting a litch, and good teeth. She is very artful and impudent, has a great fluency of speech, uses good language, and has been taught to read.—She has the appearance of ring worms on her left cheek and chin; the skin in spots appearing much paler than the rest of her complexion, which is much lighter than her mother's.—Her hair is short and woolly. She wore a pink ground printed cotton with a small black figure, with new fore parts. Also ran away, on Wednesday the 11th inst. JUNE, DICK and AMELIA, Dick, or as he has lately called himself, Richard Weaver, is a house-servant,—he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, rather small made, is about 25 years old, of a good smooth, black complexion—has a flat nose, with very large open nostrils. He carried his head and neck as if he were stiff in the neck and shoulders, which are high and tolerably square, and his neck short—his legs are straight but small and illy made, with scarce any calf. He has had teeth, is left handed, and exceedingly awkward—he has a full head of woolly hair, which he plait and dresses to the best advantage. His voice is small, his speech commonly mild and slow, and his manners appear extremely simple, but he is at bottom an artful knave, and when spoken to is very apt to be passionate and impertinent. Dick is a native of South-Carolina, and speaks bad English—he seduced and carried away with him Amelia, who he called his wife. Amelia is a very complete, well instructed ladies maid, much below the common stature and of a small make—her complexion is that of a dark mulatto or melizoe, nearly resembling that of the Lascars of India, with black curling hair, and a very low forehead—her right eye has a great weakness, owing to the small pox in her infancy—under her eyes very black—a flat face, flat broad nose, with scarce any rising at the bridge; a large mouth, with thick lips, and good strong teeth. On the nose of her neck she has the marks of a Seton. Dresses with taste, and imitates the French style; is very sensible, and expresses herself well. She took with her a variety of clothes, fashionably made—such as for more than two years past been liable to fits, which at times give her a wildness in her eyes—her health is generally delicate—she is at present likely to exercise her family, and is about 22 years of age—she can dress hair, clear flesh, has a taste for millinery and mantua-making; and as she is very ingenious, can turn her hand to any thing and may probably offer herself to some milliner or mantua maker as a work-woman. As Amelia has heretofore been a great favourite of a very indulgent mistress, and 'tis believed has been led away by the persuasion of her paramour Dick, if she will return to me, she will be forgiven and treated with the same tenderness she has always received. FIFTY DOLLARS Reward for each will be paid for the delivery of Pat and Clara to the subscriber, or to any goal in the United States, so that they may get possession of them.—One Hundred Dollars each for Dick and Amelia, on the like delivery.—The subscriber warns all masters of vessels, from taking these Runaway servants from the United States, and requests such of his friends and acquaintance as it may not suit to arrest them, to give information, should they hear of either of the fugitives, to the subscriber by letter directed to the post office, Philadelphia, which will find him, wherever he may pass the summer, or to the Printer of the Gazette of the United States, who will communicate it to a friend in Philadelphia to act in his behalf. JACOB READ. Of South-Carolina, corner of Fourth and Union-streets, Philadelphia. June 25. w & s t

THE UNDERSIGNED, HIS Swedish Majesty's Consul General, and authorized to transact the Consular Business, for his Majesty the King of Denmark in the United States of America, residing at Philadelphia, Hereby gives public Notice, That in obedience to recent instructions received from his government, it is the duty of all Masters of Swedish and Danish vessels, before their sailing from any port in the said States, to call upon him or the Vice Consul in order to be granted such Certificates for their Cargoes, which the exigency of the date of the Neutral Commerce and the several Decrees of the Belligerent Powers, renders indispensably necessary, and that any Master of vessels belonging to the respective nations, or navigating under the protection of their flags, in omitting to take such certificates, will personally stand responsible for the consequences.
