The Government of Algiers is well affected towards the United States, but the Tunifians have been very impatient for the arrival of the flipulated military flores. Mr. Eaton, our Conful there, has however, prevailed upon them to wait fome time longer, and a defire which the Bey's Misifter has expressed of obtaining American bottoms, to convey grain to Spain, has been an additional motive to this •Though all the States of Barbary (except Morocco) are at war with France, yet the French Merchants refident in Tunis, have not been made flaves of as in Algiers, but are per-mitted to refide in their factory in full poffeffion of their property. They are not, however, permitted to go out of the factory.

In September 1798, the Tunifians, with a fquadron of 4 cruifers, made a def. ent upon the little ifland of St. Peters, in the vicinity of Sardinia, and, landing in the night, carried off Sardinia, and, landing in the night, carried off 120 men and 700 women and childran, who were conveyed to Tunis, & configned to flave-ry. Don Antonico Porcile, who was one of the prifoners, was diffacted by the Bey to Sardinia, to endeavor to procure the ranfom. He returned in May 1800, with his father, the Coust Antioch, they being appointed by the King of Sardivia joint ambaffadors to negociate for this purpole. They brought with them let-ters from the Sardinian Secretary of State, to the Confuls of the different European powers. the Confuls of the different European powers, requefing their friendly interference with the requefing their friendly interference with the Bey. By their interference a treaty was con-cluded, in which the price of ranfom was fixed at 500.000 dollars to the Bey, and 70,000 to the Sappatappa, his Miniker; and for the payment of this it was Ripulated, that the plate of the Churches fhould be pledged. When this treaty was prefented to the King of Sardinia, he re-fufed to ratify it, but promifed to fend to Leg-hora to negociate a loan of the money.
