AN AWAY from the subscriber, on the 18th of June inst. TWO NEGRO SERVANTS; viz a negro woman named Pat, a washer-woman and cook, of about fifty two years of agetall and well shaped, of a black complexion. She has bad teeth, those of her under jaw are much discoloured and project a good deal. She has a sull head of wooly hair—a very cross forbidding countenance, is very impertinent, and leughs and talks level. Pat was bern in South-Carolina, and speaks bad English, with the negro dialect? She has on the upper part of her breast, two pretty large lumps of fiesh refembling Wens, or rather with the appearance of the marks of a burn. She carried away with her several changes of cloating, and gowns of white muslin, and of coloured and figured printed cottons sashionably made up. She also carried away with her, also carried away with her,

CLARA her daughter—a very stout, robusts strong made girl, of a short stature, and round shouldered—appearing to be about 14 years of age. Clara has large staring eyes, a stat note, an eval state, her under jaw projecting a little, and good teeth. She is very artial and impudent, has a great sluency of speech, uses good language, and has been taught to read.—She has the appearance of ring worms on her left cheek and chin; the skin in spots appearing much paler than the rest of her complexion, which is much lighter than her mother's—ster hair is short and wooly; She wore a pink grounded printed cotton with a small black figure, with new sore parts.

Also ran away, on Wednesday the 11th inst.

Also ran away, on Wednesday the 11th inst. une, Dick and AMELIA. Dick, or as he has jately called himself, Richard Weaver, is a house-creant,—he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, rather small made, is about 25 years old, of a good smooth, black complexion—has a flat nose, with very large open nostrils. He carried his head very large open nostrils. He carried his head and nock as if he were stiff in the neck and shoulders, which are high and tolerably square, and his neck short—his legs are straight but small and illy made, with scarce aty calf. He has had had teeth, is left handed, and exceedingly awkward—he has a full head of wooly hair, which he plaits and dresses to the best advantage. His voice is small, his speech commoly mild and slow, and his manners appear extremely simple, but he is at bottom an artful knave, and when spoken to is very apt to be passionate and impertinent. Dick is a native of South-Carolina, and speaks bad English—he seduced and carried away with him Amelia is a very complete, well in the sand selection.

Amelia, who he called his wife.

Amelia is a very complete, well infiructed fadies maid, much below the common stature and of a small make—her complexion is that of 1 dark mulatto or mestizoe, nearly resembling that of the Lascars of India, with black curling hair, and a very low forchead—her right eye has a great weakness, owing to the small pox in her infancy—under her eyes very black—a stat face, stat broad nose, with scarce any rising at the bridge; a large mouth, with thick lips, and good strong teeth. On the nape of her neck she has the marks of a Seton. Dresses with taste, and imitates the French syle; is very sensible, and expresses herself well. She took with her a variety of clothes, sashionably made—she has for more than two years pass heen liable to fits, which at times give her a wildness in her eyes—her health is generally delicate—she is at prosent likely to encrease ber samily, and is about 22 years of age—she can dress hair, clear starch, has a taste for millinary and mantua-making; and as she is very ingenious, can turn her hand to any thing and may probably offer herself to some milliner or mantua maker as a workwoman. As a taste for millinary and mantua-making; and as she is very ingenious, can turn her hand to any thing and may probably offer herself to some milliner or mantua maker as a workwoman. As a taste for millinary and mistress, and 'tis believed has been led away by the persussion of her paramour Dick, if she will return to me, she will be forgiven and treated with the same tenderness she has always received.

FIFTY DOLLARS Reward for each will be paid for the delivery of Pat and Clara to the
