REWARD. R AN AWAY from the fubferiber, on the 18th of June inft. TWO NEGRO SERVANTS;

K of Jahe inft. TWO NEGRO SERVANTS; viz a negro woman named Pat, a wafher-wo-man and cook, of about fifty twe years of sge-tall and well fhaped, of a black complexion. She has bad tteeth, thofe of her under jaw are much difcoloured and project a good deal. She has a full head of wooly hair-a very crofs forbidding countenance, is very impertiment, and laughs and talks loud. Pat was born in Soutk Carolina, and fpeaks bad Englith, with the negro dialect. She has on the apper part of her breaft, two pretty large lumps of flefh refembling Wens, or rather with the appearance of the marks of a burn. She carried away with her feveral changes of cloaths, and gowns of white muflin, and of coloured and figured printed cottons fafhiomably made up. She alfo carried away with her, alfo carried away with her, CLARA her daughter—a very flout, robufts frong made girl, of a flort flature, and round flouldered—appearing to be about 14 years of age. Clara has large flaring eyes, a flat nofe, an oval flat face, her under jaw projecting a little, and good teeth. She is very artful and impu-dent, has a great fluency of fpeech, ufes good lan-guage, and has been taught to read,—She has the appearance of ring worms on her left cheek and chin; the fkin in fpots appearing much paler than the reft of her complexion, which is much lighter than her mother's—Her hair is flort and wooly. She wore a pink grounded printed cotton with a fmall black figure, with new fore parts. Alfo ran away, on Wednefday the rith inft.

Alfo ran away, on Wednefday the 11th inft. une; DICK and AMELIA. Dick, or as he has jately called bimfelf, Richard Weaver, is a houfe-ervant,—he is about 5 feet 7 inches high, rather imall made, is about 25 years old, of a good fmooth, black complexion—has a flat nofe, with very large open noftrils. He carried his head very large open nostrile. He carried his head and neck as if he were fiff in the neck and fhoul-ders, which are high and tolerably fquare, and his neck fhort—his legs are ftraight but fmall and illy made, with fcarce ary calf. He has has bad teeth, is left handed, and exceedingly awkward— he has a full head of wooly hair, which he plaits and dreffes to the beft advantage. His voice is fmall, his speech commoly mild and flow, and his manners appear extremely fimple, but he is at bottom an artful knave, and when speken to is very apt to be paffionate and impertivent. Dick is a native of South-Carolina, and speaks bad English—he feduced and carried away with hims 'Amelia, who he called his wife. Amelia. who he called his wife. Amelia is a very complete, well infructed la-dies maid, much below the common flature and of a finall make—her complexion is that of 1 dark mulatto or meflizoe, nearly refembling that of the Lafcarsol India, with black curling hair, and a very low forchead—her right eye has a great weaknefs, owing to the finall pox in her infancy— under her every very black—flat fina flat hered weaknets, owing to the fmall pox in her infancy-under her eyes very black-a flat face, flat broad nofe, with fearce any rifing at the bridge; a large mouth, with thick lips, and good flrong teeth. On the nape of her neck fhe has the marks of a Seton. Drefles with tafte, and imitates the French flyle; is very fenfible, and exprefles herfel? well. She took with her a variety of clothes, fafhion-ably made—fhe has for more than two years paft been liable to fits, which at times give her a wild-nefs in her eyes—her healthis generally delicate— fhe is at prefent likely to encreafe ber family, and is about 22 years of age—fhe can drefs hair, clear flarch, has a tafte for millinary and mantua-ma-king; and as fhe is very ingenious, can turn her hand to any thing and may probably offer herfelf to fome milliner or mantua maker as a work-woman. As Amelia has heretofore been a great favourite of a very indulgent milfrefs, and 'tis beliened her herd hed some be about for the favourite of a very indulgent miftrefs, and 'tis believed has been led away by the perfuation of her paramour Dick, if the will return to ms, the will be forgiven and treated with the fame tenternefs the has always received. FIFTY DOLLARS Reward for each will be paid for the delivery of Pat and Clara to the fubforiber, or to any goal in the United States, fo that 1 mry get poffeffion of them—One Hundred Bollars each for Dick and Amelia, on the like delivery. The fubforiber warns all mafter of voffels, from taking thefe Runaway fervants from the United States, and requefts fuch of his friends and acquaintance as it may not fuit to arreft them, to give information, fhould they hear of either of the fugitives, to the fubforiber by letter divected to the post office, Philadelphia, which will find him, wherever he may pafs the fummer, or to the Printer of the Gazette of the United States, who will communicate it to a friend in Philadelphia to act on his bchalf.
