

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

LONDON, July 2.

Last night we received the Paris papers to the 20th ult. from which we have given at full length Berthier's interesting account of the Great Battle at Marignano...

BATTLE OF MARINGO.

Report to the Commander in Chief from Alexander Berthier.

To obtain possession of Milan, effect a junction with division of Gen. Moncey, cut off the retreat of the enemy to Brescia...

The enemy, beaten at Montebello, were successively reinforced by troops, under the command of Generals Elmitz and Bellegarde...

The divisions of Ghabran and Lapoype, received orders to guard the Po. The detachment left at Yvea observed the Oro...

On the 24th of Prairial (June 13) at day-break, the army directed its march towards Tortona and Castel Nuovo di Scrivia...

The enemy refused to give us battle in the plain of San Juliano and Maringo, where they might have derived the utmost advantage...

The army formed into two lines, and had its wings supported by a formidable corps of cavalry.

The enemy made successive attacks, advancing in three columns. Their right advanced towards Rigorale...

Gen. Victor informed me that he was attacked by the whole of the enemy's forces. I immediately marched the reserve of the cavalry...

The First Consul rushed with eagerness to the field of battle. On arriving there we found the action general. Both sides fought with equal fury...

Gen. Victor sent orders to the brigade of cavalry of his brigade (Duvigneu); but that general had quitted without authority the command of his brigade...

new reinforcements and continued their march. General Victor successively disposed of the 24th light infantry, and the 2d and 9th of the line...

Some of our cannoniers who were in want of cartridges, abandoned the field of battle in disorder, and the enemy encouraged by their success, charged with additional impetuosity...

The First Consul, informed that the reserve of General Desaix was not yet ready, immediately hastened in person to the division of Lannes to favour his retreat...

The retreat was soon effected, under the fire of eighty pieces of artillery, which preceded the march of the Austrian battalions...

The enemy believed themselves sure of victory. A numerous cavalry, supported by many squadrons of light artillery, pressed upon our right, and threatened to turn our army...

The army arrived at the plain of San Juliano, where the reserve under the command of General Desaix was formed into two lines, flanked on the right by twelve pieces of artillery...

General Desaix at the head of the brave 9th light infantry, dashed with impetuosity into the midst of the enemy's battalions...

The enemy had still a third line of infantry, supported by the remainder of their artillery, and all their cavalry. General Lannes, with the division of Watrin...

Never was a battle more obstinate; never was a victory disputed with more fury. The Austrians and French mutually admired the courage of their enemies...

I informed you yesterday that I took L'Anse-a-Veau the 19th inst. After this operation, I enquired into the position of Petit-Trou...

adjutant general, was killed at his side. The chief of brigade, Salabert, of the 28th, and the chief of battalion, Thiobio, the general of brigade, Geney, citizen Muffou, chief of brigade of the 6th light infantry...

Citizen Beaumont, and aid-de-camp of general Murat, has contributed to the glory with which all the cavalry have covered themselves. The aid-de-camp Dittier, has been wounded...

My aids-de-camp Detailly, chief of brigade, and Laborde, had their horses killed. My aid-de-camp Angheli, deserves promotion...

Galland, belonging to the 20th regiment of cavalry; for citizen Velin, quarter-master to the same regiment; for citizen Dubois, a volunteer with general Lannes...

WEST INDIES.

L'ANSE-A-VEAU, 13th Messidor.

Desfalines, Brigadier General, Commander in chief of the army of the west, marched against the rebels of the south...

I hasten to give you an account of the army under my command. Yesterday morning, I set out with one half of the army, leaving the other half at Acquin...

A schooner has just arrived here, sent from Petit Trou, to carry off the effects and provisions from this city...

Found at L'Anse-a-Veau, three twenty-four pounders, five eight pounders, three pierriers, one hundred and two balls...

PETIT-TRou, 20th messidor, 8th year. Desfalines, Brigadier general, commander in chief of the Department of the west...

I informed you yesterday that I took L'Anse-a-Veau the 19th inst. After this operation, I enquired into the position of Petit-Trou...

left by the enemy to keep up a fire they had made. But at our first discharge, these two little detachments fled to the woods...

The enemy appears to be very far from here. I can hear nothing of them. All the inhabitants are gone to Jeremie or Corail...

I send you by the schooner, captured at L'Anse-a-Veau, Brigadier Pivergier, and an officer of the gendarmery...

DIAQUOIS.

To General Desfalines.

By this Day's Mails.

BOSTON, August 21.

Extract of a letter from Mr. Rouffel, at the Isle of France, to a Gentleman in this town, dated March 23, 1800.

Our private and colonial authority, has declared us for some time, at war with your nation. We know we are happily come out of that error...

Some of the Eastern Squatters have murdered a Mr. Windlow, who was assisting in a survey of land on Knox's Patent.

Coln. William R. Lee has declined being considered a Candidate for Congress in the Third Middle District.

Capt. Jacob Crownshield has been since proposed in opposition to Mr. Read. The prospect of the election of the latter gentleman, however, improves.

Representatives to Congress for the Fourth Western and Third Middle Districts, are to be voted for on Monday next...

NEW-YORK, August 26.

Our city still continues to be healthy. Not a single instance of yellow or malignant fever to be found.

Our gutters are so badly constructed that they must ever prove a horrible nuisance.

WILMINGTON, Del. August 26.

On Thursday last, a frigate of 36 guns, passed up the river. None of the Philadelphia papers have mentioned her arrival...

Yesterday (Sunday) morning, about 8 or 9 o'clock, the noise of cannon was distinctly heard at this place...

At noon, same day, the armed ship Alexander, of Philadelphia, direct from Havana, arrived in our creek...

We understand, the Corporation, will, this day, take the necessary steps for securing the port for the time being...

BALTIMORE, August 25.

Board of Health.

WITH a view still further to inform the public of the State of the present prevailing disease on Fell's Point...

Agreeably to the returns from thence this morning the number of new cases, for the last twenty four hours, ending this morning at eight o'clock are 18

We respectfully take the liberty now in this public manner, likewise to request all the physicians; well or Jones's falls...

which we also hope will meet with a ready compliance.

On behalf of the board, JOSEPH TOWNSEND, Sec'y.

RALEIGH, (N. H.) August 19, 1800.

In Cumberland County for a Representative in Congress, Mr. Grove got 677 votes, and Mr. Purviance 388.

We have been informed that Mr. Stanly received in Johnston, four fifth's of the votes for their Representative in Congress...

We have just learn'd says our correspondent, from an authentic source, that Mr. Stanford is re-elected by a majority of 882 votes...

NORFOLK, August 21.

Lift of vessels under convoy of the United States Ship Baltimore, William Cowper, Esquire, commander.

Ship Sally Brittle, Hudgings, T. Island; Diana, Ford, Baltimore; Ohio, Allen, St. Thomas; Alliance, Dison, Boston; Minerva, Hopkins, do; Brothers, Hawkins, Philadelphia; Favorite, Seabury, Rhode Island; Polly, Pittman, do; Polly, Elliot, Boston; Mariner, Macon, do; Sarah, Cornish, Norfolk; Galen, Patten, Keenebunk; Sophia, Price, New York; Hunter, Hughes, St. Thomas; Industry, Belding, Turk's Island; Express, Gordon, Philadelphia; Horatio, Whiting, New Haven; Anna, Brown, do; William, Luthwaite, Baltimore; Friendship, Burns, Portsmouth; Hope, Owens, St. Thomas; Sally, Banker, New York; Franklin, Whatson, do; Flora, Hughes, Baltimore; Lucretia, Taber, New York; Polly & Betsey, Sawyer, New-London; Alligator, Kenzie, Portland; Ceres, Rouge, Portsmouth; Fanny, Wade, New York; Caroline, English, New Haven; Marcus, Elliot, do; Eliza, Dennis, do; Commerce, Childs, New York; Pegafus, Moate, Brafil; Betty, Van Izelduk, do; Three Sisters, Toy, Wilmington; Sophia, Hopkins, Halifax; Enterprise, Gordon, Baltimore; Hippy, Lounds, Alexandria; Gen. Washington, Clander, do; Active, Cartwright, Turk's Island; Sch. Lucy, Follinghy, Newburyport; Former, Baker, Portland; Carmelite, Gourcils, Baltimore; Lydia, Clap, Hartford; Minerva, Compton, Boston; Friendship, Blaguet, do; Wm. & Henry, Taylor, New York; Factor, Chase, do; Dispatch, Seymour, do; Rebecca, Bailey, Rhode Island; Diana, Blunt, Portsmouth; J. Jly Rover, Drinkwater, St. Thomas; Sea Flower, Farley, Boston; Neptune, Bruilster, Plymouth; Betty, Dabellts, Baltimore; Peggy, Saville, Boston; Lively, Knight, Cape-Francois; Buck, Smith, New-London; Polly, Pitman, Rhode-Island; Peggy, Benton, Turk's Island; Telemachus, Hall, Turk's Island; George-Town Packet, Shepherd, N. Haven; Dolphin, Green, New-York; Heroine, Kimberly, New-Haven; Polly, Clift, New-London; Mercury, Penniston, Wilmington; Eagle, lieutenant-Davil, Philadelphia; Satisfaction, Traff, Wicafset; St. Patrick, Allen, Boston; Chocus, Roberts, St. Thomas; Patty, Walker, Boston; Aphia, Hodgkins, do; Harriot, Atkins, Baltimore; Minerva, Barker, New-Haven; Two Brothers, Norry, do; Fanny & Polly, Dowell, Nortolk; Nancy, Tittle, Boston; Hazard, Hartley, do; Stork, Stone, Newbury Port; Franklin, Tibbitt, Portsmouth; Sally, Steward, New-London; Sukey & Polly, Robbins, New-York; Clotilda, Gray, Norfolk; Charming Betsey, M'Farlane, Philadelphia; Thetis, M'Kee, Baltimore; James Dunbr, Boston; Maria, Holmes, Norfolk; Polly, Wright, Newburyport; Brothers, Story, Halifax; Apollo, Dominique; Industry, Bradshaw, Salem; Patty, Obeaz, do; Adeona, Glover, Nortolk; Swallow, Mackay, Beverly; Betty, Clauden, Portland; Sally, Tuttle, St. Croix; Sloop Robert & James, Webster, Baltimore; Earl of Londale, Hewitson, do; Mary, Smith, New-York; Orpha, Hannable, do; Rambler, Galloway, Philadelphia; Mary, Ward, New-Haven; Harriet, Chipman, New-London; Sally Warner, Newell, New-York; Ceur, Eddies, Rhode-Island; Three Brothers, Smith, N. Haven

To Printers.

WANTED, in Exchange, A FOUNT of Long Primer, weighing 6 or 700 lb. or upwards, and a Fount of Brevier weighing 400 lbs. or upwards.