delphia, and one and a half mile from the Turnpike road, and Downing's town : containing about 330 acres, with allowance of 6 acres per 100 ; two thirds of the land is good woodland, some excellent meadow lands, and much more can be made of the first quality ; the forge is turned by the main branch of Brandywine Creek, a forcible stream, the forge has three fires and two hammers all in good repair. The dam being found and well backed, and apparently able to resist any fresh (not supernatural) Like-wise there is another lively stream and current of water, that empties into the laid down, that might be very convenient for a Griff Mill, or other kind of water works, might be with facility erected ; there is a good two-story stone dwelling-house for the accommodation of the proprietor of the works, with an excellent spring and good house over it ; continuous to the door also convenient stone stable with an entry through the middle sufficient to accommodate three teams, besides horse stalls, contiguous to the forge stands a good stone office, and a number of convenient houses for the workmen, if not sold it will be rented for a term of years. Terms and conditions made known by applying to
