TREASURY DEPARTMENT,

Washington, September 1st, 1800.

Public Notice is hereby Given,

In pursuance of an act of Congress, passed on the 23d day of April, one thousand eight hundred, entitled "An act to establish a General Stamp Office,"

I.

THAT a General Stamp Office is now established at the seat of government, in the city of Washington, from whence there will issue, from and after the date hereof, (upon the application of the Supervisors of the Revenue, under whose management the collection of the stamp duties is placed) any quantities of paper, parchment and vellum marked or stamped, and duly counter-stamped, with the following rates of duty which are demandable by law:

For every sheet or piece of vellum or parchment, or sheet or piece of paper, upon which shall be written or printed any or either of the instruments or writings following, to wit,

ANY certificate of naturalization 5

Any licence to practice, or certificate of the admission, enrollment or registry of any counsellor, Solicitor Advocate attorney, or proctor, in any court of the United States 10

Provided, that a certificate in any one of the courts of the United States, for any one of the said offices, shall so far as relates to the payment of the duty aforesaid, be a sufficient admission in all the courts of the United States, for each and every of the said offices.

Any grant or letters patent, under the seal or authority of the United States (except for lands granted for military services) 4

Any exemplification or certified copy of any such grant or letters patent (except for lands granted for military services) 2

Any charter party, bottomry or respondentia bond 1

Any receipt or discharge for or on account of any legacy left by any will or other testamentary instrument, or for any share or part of a personal estate, divided by force of any statute of distributions other than to the wife, children or grand children of the person deceased, the amount whereof shall be above the value of fifty dollars, and shall not exceed the value of one hundred dollars 25

When the amount thereof shall exceed the value of one hundred dollars, and shall not exceed five hundred dollars 50 and for every further sum of five hundred dollars, the additional sum of 1

Any policy of insurance or instrument in nature thereof, when the sum for which insurance is made shall not exceed five hundred dollars 25

When the sum insured shall exceed five hundred dollars 1

Any exemplification of what nature soever, that shall pass the seal of any court, other than such as it may be the duty of the clerk of such court to furnish for the use of the United States, or some particular state 50

Any bond, bill single or penal, inland bill of exchange, promissory note or other note (other than any recognizance, bill, bond or other obligation or contract, made to or with the United States, or any state, or for their use respective y; and any bonds required in any case by the laws of the United States, or in any judicial proceeding, or for the faithful performance of any trust or duty) 10

If above twenty dollars and not exceeding one hundred dollars 10

If above one hundred and not exceeding five hundred dollars 20

If above five hundred and not exceeding one thousand dollars 50

And if above one thousand dollars 75

Provided, that if any bonds or notes shall be payable at or within sixty days, such bonds or notes shall be subject to only two fifth parts of the duty aforesaid, viz.

If above twenty and not exceeding one hundred dollars 4

If above one hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars 10

If above five hundred dollars and not exceeding one thousand dollars 20

If above one thousand dollars 50

Any note or bill of lading or writing or receipt in nature thereof, for goods or merchandise to be exported; 4

If from one district to another district of the United States, not being in the same state 10

If from the United States to any foreign port or place 10

The said duty being chargeable upon each and every bill of lading without respect to the number contained in each set.

Any note or bill of lading or writing or receipt in nature thereof, for goods or merchandise to be exported; 4

If from one district to another district of the United States, not being in the same state 10

If from the United States to any foreign port or place 10

Any notes issued by the banks now established or that may be hereafter established within the United States, other than the notes of such of the said banks as shall agree to an annual composition of one per centum on the annual dividends made by such banks, to their stock holders respectively, according to the following scale: On all notes not exceeding fifty dollars, for each dollar 6

On all notes above fifty dollars and not exceeding one hundred dollars 50

On all notes above one hundred dollars and not exceeding five hundred dollars 1

On all notes above five hundred dollars 2

Doll. C. M. 25

Any protest or other notarial act 25

Any letter of attorney, except for an invalid pension, or to obtain or sell warrants for land granted by the United States as bounty for military services performed in the late war 25

If above twenty dollars, at the rate of ten cents for one hundred dollars.

II That the power of the supervisors of the Revenue to mark or stamp any vellum, parchment or paper chargeable with duty, will cease and determine from and after six months from the date hereof, to wit, on the last day of February 1801.

III

That, if any persons shall, after the last day of February 1801, have in their custody or possession, any vellum, parchment or paper, marked or stamped by the supervisors of the Revenue, upon which any matter or thing, charged with duty, shall not have been written or printed, they may at any time within the space of sixty days after the said last day of February 1801, bring or send such vellum, parchment and paper, unto some office of inspection, and in lieu thereof, receive a like quantity or value of vellum, parchment and paper, duly stamped in pursuance of the act herein before recited. And in case any person shall neglect or refuse, within the time aforesaid, to bring or cause to be brought unto some office of inspection, any such vellum, parchment or paper, it is hereby declared, that the same will thereafter be of no other effect or use, than if it had never been marked or stamped, and that all matters and things, which may after that time be written or printed upon any vellum, parchment or paper, authorized to be exchanged in manner aforesaid, will be of no other effect, than if they had been written or printed on paper, parchment or vellum, not marked or stamped.

IV.

And for the convenience of those persons who may be inclined to have their own vellum, parchment and paper stamped or marked, it is hereby declared, that when any person shall deposit any vellum, parchment or paper at the office of a supervisor, accompanied with a list, specifying the number and denomination of the stamps or marks, which are desired to be thereto affixed, the same will be transmitted to the General Stamp Office, and there properly marked or stamped, and forthwith sent back to the same supervisor, who will thereupon collect the duties and deliver the paper, parchment or vellum, to the order of the person from whom the same was received.

Given under my Hand, and the Seal (L. S.) of the Treasury, at Washington, the day and year above mentioned.

OLIVER WOLCOTT,

Secretary of the Treasury.

Five Dollars Reward.

RAN-AWAY from Gen. Ridgely of Baltimore, on the 20th inst. a light coloured negro man, who calls himself WILLIAM Mc DONALD; He is about 24 years of age, about 5 feet 8 inches high, neat in his dress, and has a good set of hair. Had on, when he went away, a good beaver hat, a short light green cloth coat, edged with yellow, and yellow gilt buttons—a light buff cassimer, double breasted waistcoat, a pair of dark olive coloured thickset pantaloons—a white linen shirt, white ribbed cotton stockings, and a good pair of shoes with strings. He took with him a dark blue coat, a pair of olive cassimer pantaloons, and a light cerduroy pair of breeches; also a gold or pinchbeck watch, with a steel chain. He is fond of spiritous liquors, is insolent, has a stupid look, and chews tobacco.—He was bred in Charles county, Maryland, and purchased of col. John Thomas by gen. Ridgely. Whoever apprehends said negro, and secures him in any jail so that the owner may get him again, shall receive the above reward, with reasonable charges if brought home, or delivered to John B. Bond, Philadelphia. may 1 def

Indian Queen.

THE Subscriber begs leave to inform the Public that he has taken that well-known Inn, the INDIAN QUEEN, lately kept by Mr. James Thompson, deceased, and solicits their patronage as well as the patronage of those Gentlemen who were accustomed to give it their support, assuring them that it shall be conducted on the same liberal plan which characterized it when under the superintendance of his predecessor. The house has undergone a thorough repair, and it would be needless to observe to those who know them, that the tables are, in spaciousness and convenience, unequalled in Philadelphia, and the best provender and attendance are always provided for horses, by the Public's obedient servant.
