

Foreign Intelligence.

BOSTON, October 30.
The Evonia, capt. Jones, arrived here yesterday from Hamburg. Through the politeness of a gentleman who came passenger, we were furnished with papers of that city to the 13th of Sept. from which we have obtained the annexed translations:—

HAMBURG, Sept. 12.
This day arrived several dispatches from Vienna, with intelligence, that the recent proposals for peace, made by the French to the German Empire, were not accepted, and that hostilities would immediately recommence.

VIENNA, Sept. 6.
The continuance of war is certain; the proposals of the French, for peace, being as extravagant, as humiliating to our Court. The Emperor will himself depart for the army this day and likewise the Arch-Duke Charles, from Pray to join the army of which he will be invested with the command of the troops, and who is adored by them.

Gen. Bellegrade will take the command of the army in Italy, in lieu of Melas. England has undertaken to assist in the most forcible manner in the war.

Every exertion is made to reinforce our armies in Italy and Germany, and in case of necessity, the Hungarians are to rise in masse.

Letters from Constantinople of Aug. 10, state, that Menou, the successor of Kleber, had also been assassinated; he was not beloved by the troops, being opposed to the evacuation of Egypt.

AMSTERDAM, Sept. 9.
The conclusion of a Peace is very dubious, on account of the proposals made by the French to the Imperial Court, which we think cannot be accepted, viz.

1st. The Emperor is to keep what was granted him by the peace of Campo Formio; Mantua, however to be dismantled.

2d. Saltzburgh, Berchtoldsgaden and Pofau should be given up to the Emperor.

3d. The Emperor should not interfere in the affairs of Sardinia, Rome and Naples.

4th. The countries from the right bank of the Danube, and the left of the Iller, up to the source of the Danube, to make part of the Helvetic republic, in future.

5th. Germany to adopt a new and entire Constitution.

6th. The Ecclesiastical States to be reformed.

These proposals were rejected by the House of Austria; and hopes of peace have disappeared.

VERONA, August 27.
The Austrians work with the greatest assiduity in fortifying Mantua. The garrison is to be supplied with provisions for several years, and every means employed to render it unconquerable. The fame is to be done with the citadel of Ferrara.

BERNE, Sept. 2.
By virtue of an order from the Directory, one man, from every 100 native citizens, is to be levied, completely equipped, at their expense; and ready for the field at the end of October.

HELSINGUER, Sept. 9.
The day before yesterday, Adm. Dexon, with a fleet of good merchantmen, departed from hence. He saluted Cronenburg with 17 guns. It is said he is to proceed on another expedition, in conjunction with a fleet, which had been seen in the Sound.

To be Sold

THAT handsome and healthy COUNTRY SEAT, called LAUREL LODGE, the late residence of Thomas Rutter, Esq. situate in Potts Grove, Montgomery County, thirty-six miles from Philadelphia, containing about 166 acres, twenty of which are prime woodland, fifteen excellent watered meadows, the residue divided in arable lots. On the premises are a large handsome Brick House and adjoining buildings, containing two parlours, a large dining room, and a Hall, twelve feet wide, by forty long; a large kitchen, wash house with a pump of excellent water in it, six handsome chambers, two store-rooms, four garret chambers plastered and a grain room over the adjoining building, a double spring house, with a smoke house over the same, within fifty yards of the kitchen—The spring, in the driest season never known to lower in the least, and from which the meadow is watered; a garden containing about one acre, stocked with the most delicious fruits, such as peaches, plums, cherries, pears, raspberries, &c. several asparagus beds in great perfection. Also, a young bearing apple tree orchard, containing several hundred trees, the fruit selected from different parts of the United States. A large convenient barn with a threshing floor, with commodious stabling for horses and cows, carriage and houses, grain room, &c. Also, sundry outh buildings, consisting of a large frame poultry-house and corncrib, &c. Also, a tenant's house, garden and stable, and a pump of excellent water belonging to the same.

The situation of Potts Grove is remarkably healthy, regularly supplied with Butcher's meat and poultry in abundance, to be purchased at a low rate, and the Schuylkill affords a plentiful supply of excellent fish. Two grist mills in the rear of the town. Perhaps few country towns in Pennsylvania, are more rapidly improving, or have more local advantages than Potts Grove. The several places of public worship, the salubrity of the air, genteel society, and cheapness of living, are among the few advantages it possesses.

Any person wishing to view the premises, will please to apply to Mr. Wm. POTTS, in Pottsgrove, and for terms to the subscriber, in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 5.

To Readers and Correspondents.

“AN AMERICAN” is a sensible and perspicuous writer, we will to-morrow, give currency to his opinions.

“Civis” shall appear.

Literary articles wait for their turn. The arrangements of a paper, are like the etiquette of a Barbers' shop. “First come, first served, Sir.”

THE Federalists of the City of Philadelphia, are requested to meet at Dunwoody's Tavern, this evening, at six o'clock on business of importance.

Nov. 5, 1800.

From the multitude of hints and threats and allusions thrown out in the Aurora respecting our state senate, it is easily seen that the Jacobins are extremely restless on the subject of appointing electors of President. Their doctrine is not less laughable than absurd; for they think the majority of the senate ought to yield their opinions and principles to the minority, because, both houses taken collectively, there would be a great majority of Jeffersonians—This logic won't do—the senate, as a distinct and independent branch of the government, has a right and it is their duty to insist at every hazard, upon an equal share and authority in the making of laws, and they would be guilty of treachery to their constituents, should they suffer themselves to be cajoled out of their proportion of the legislative power, which would result from their consenting to a joint vote for the choice of electors. It is to be hoped that a mutual spirit of accommodation may take place on the subject, and that a liberal and rational allowance will be made for what is now looked upon as the minority in this state. But if an headstrong, insolent and overbearing policy should discover itself on this occasion, on the part of the Democrats; I hope and trust in God, that there will yet be found in the senate of our state a bulwark against such a lawless invasion of their constitutional rights and privileges. They will not be deterred from doing their duty.

This is the all-important day, for the meeting of the Assembly, The senate is understood to have a majority of two on the Federal side—But the Jacobins pretend that on the great question of choosing electors; two or three of the senators will desert their colors. The names of Messrs. McClellan, Johnson and Potts are particularized in the Aurora, as fit candidates for political apotaxy; these gentlemen are no doubt much indebted to the Aurora-man for the opinion he entertains of their honor and integrity, and there can be no doubt but their conduct will confirm the good opinion of every friend to consistency—except Billy Duane.

The Legislature of this state, in pursuance of the Governor's proclamation, was to convene at Lancaster this day.

It is mentioned in a Boston paper, that Judge Lincoln is elected member of Congress for the fourth western district.

Gen. Sumpter is re-elected a member of Congress for the state of South Carolina, by a large majority.

Captain James Barron, is appointed to command the United States ship Warrea.

Congress, by their act passed and approved the first day of March, 1792, did enact, that Electors shall be appointed in each state, for the election of a President and Vice-President of the United States of America, within 34 days preceding the first Wednesday in December, 1792, and within 34 days preceding the 1st Wednesday in December, in every fourth year of succeeding the last election: And, that the said Electors shall meet, and give their votes, on the said first Wednesday in December, at such place in each state as shall be directed by the Legislature thereof.

Jacobin Logic.—President Adams and Gen. Hamilton have fallen out.—Ergo—the electors must vote in favor of the friends of Mr. Jefferson!—Excellent Logicians.—“Reader, dost thou ever catch a gull?” (Col. Cent.)

James Jones, Esq. and Benjamin Talliafaro, Esq. are elected Representatives to Congress from the state of Georgia.

The President of the United States, arrived at Washington on Friday evening last, by the way of Lancaster and York.

A number of gentlemen at Cincinnati, North Western Territory, have formed themselves into an association under the appellation of “The Commercial Company,” for the purpose of encouraging ship building, and have appointed a committee of five to receive subscriptions for carrying their object into execution.

The hon. the Council of Appointment of Albany, met in that city the 28th of September.—Members of the Council:

His Excellency John Jay, President. Hon. Samuel Haight, of Westchester, Robert Sands, of Dutchess, James Gordon, of Saratoga, and Thomas R. Gold, of Onieda.

Extract of a letter from New Haven, Connecticut, dated October 31, 1800.

The Electors for President and Vice-President have been chosen this day by our Legislature—They are as follows:

- His Excellency Gov. Trumbull,
- Hon. John Treadwell, Lt. Governor,
- Jeffie Root,
- Jonathan Sturges,
- S. M. Mitchell,
- Jonathan Ingerfol,
- Tapping Reeve,
- Matthew Griswold, Esq.
- Jonathan O. Mosely, Esq.

The above gentlemen are all decided federal, and it is expected will vote for Adams and Pinckney.

From a Lancaster Paper. COUNTERFEIT DOLLARS.

The public are cautioned against receiving Counterfeit Dollars, a great number being in circulation in the borough and vicinity of Lancaster. We are told that upwards of twenty were offered at the Treasury in the course of last week. The few of these counterfeits that we have seen, are intended to imitate the emission of 1798. They are merely plated copper, roughly executed, and the D in DEI nearly touches the forehead on the dexter side.

In his paper of the 28th of October, the Editor of the Aurora has stated himself to have been prosecuted, for publishing the letter written by Mr. Adams to Tench Coxe.

This is believed to be a direct and positive untruth. If the Editor would rescue himself from the imputation, of attempting in this, as in other instances to deceive the people, by assertions known to himself to be untrue, he will publish an extract from the indictment, and mention the court in which it was filed.

[Wash. Fed.]

Letters from Peterburg inserted in the Hamburg papers, mention a very singular report, which they consider, however, as authentic. By a late ukale of the Emperor Paul, it is ordered that an abridgment should be published of the French Campaigns all over Europe, but more particularly of those in Italy for the last ten years. His Imperial Majesty further observes, that this work should be studied as an elementary one for military education; and that no person can be admitted to the rank of a subaltern, who has not learnt it by heart.

Baltimore, Nov. 3.

The electors of the Mayor and of the Members of the second branch of the City Council, met this day agreeable to the charter of incorporation, and unanimously re-elected James Calhoun, Esq. Mayor, for the ensuing two years; and elected Henry Strouffer, Nicholas Rogers, John Merryman, William McCree, Robert Gilmor, William Copeland Goldsmith, Edward Johnson and Jacob Smith, Esqrs. Members of the second branch of the City Council.
