MR WAYNE,

IN a Message from Governor M'Kean, read before the Senate of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, on the 7th day of February 1800, it was intimated that, a "few thousand dollars timeously expended" for the benefit of the Northumberland Academy, might "be the means of saving Millions in

Have the disinterested services of the learned and benevolent Priestly, heretofore been found useful in promoting good order in society, as well as diffusing rational and scientific knowledge, or on the contrary have not the people wherever he has resided become restless and disposed to infurrection?

I would not be understood to intend any thing unfriendly to the Institution above alluded to, or disrespectful of its Trustees, but think that great caution is necessary in guarding against the introduction of seditious teachers, however benevolent and disinterested, into public seminaries.

NATURAL HISTORY.

The Tench is a fish of most deformed and detested propensities. There is something in its physiognomy, and even in the make of its body, at which you shall say, Beware! there lurks treachery and villainy!

Massachusetts Election.

In the Fourth Western District there has been no choice of federal Representative. Judge LINCOLN only wanted ten more votes to give him a majority over all the other candidates.

Died, on the 27th ultimo, at Portsmouth, in Virginia, in the 48th year of her age, Mrs. SARAH WILSON, formerly of this city.

From the Poughkeepsie Journal, Nov. 4.

A Duel was fought at Rhinebeck Flats on the 29th ult. between Lieut Joseph C. Cooper, and David L. Perkins, saddler, in consequence of Mr. Perkins having circulated a report that Lieut. C. had danced with a sailor in the village of Poughkeepsie at the time of the races, which report Lieut. C. conceived to be so materially injurious to his character, and so far beneath his dignity, that he could not consistently dispense with it;

by which the unfortunate Lieut. C. instantaneously fell to the ground. A surgeon was called to examine the wound, who on searching the body, found not the least trace of a ball—but he still languishes, and the surgeon declares that there are no hopes of his recovery; but that a few hours will close his eyes in eternal darkness.—Thus fell an unfortunate gentleman about 22 years of age in defence of his unblemished character. He was much beloved and respected, and his death is universally lamented.

From the Alexandria Mirror of the 4th of November.

It is not in my power this day, to gratify my readers with a statement of the votes, for electors of President and Vice-President, taken yesterday at the County Court House; but have been informed by several respectable gentlemen who attended, that from appearances Mr. Adams's friends must have a considerable majority.

[The following, from a very agreeable, though obscure Poet, will be allowed, by ladies of sensibility, to have something of truth, and more of nature.]

Philadelphia, 3d November, 1800.

AS there are no such coins in the United States as Pounds, Shillings and Pence, The Brokers of Philadelphia in future, intend to buy and sell all kinds of Public Stock, at so much per cent, in Dollars and Cents, which are the proper coins of the United States, and not as heretofore, at so much per pound. And to prevent any inconvenience which may arise to those who have been habituated to the old method, the following table is published, showing the sum in Dollars and Cents, per Cent, which correspond with shillings and pence, per pound. They hope the simplicity of the new method, will be pleasing to the citizens of the U. States; and give general satisfaction.

Toussaint L'Ouverture, Major general of the army of St. Domingo, to Alexander Murray, Esquire, commander of the station at St. Domingo.

I have received, worthy commander, your favour of the 28th of August ult. and am impressed with a grateful sense of the marks of kindness and civility you have been pleased to shew me. It gives me pleasure to be informed of your laudable instructions for preferring a good understanding between the respective officers of this island and the United States; it being the means of rendering both countries happy.

I cherished the hope, that in the number of prisoners taken by the Trumbull, certain persons might have been sent to me, from whom I might receive some useful information. Those I allude to, I instituted to Dr. Stevens at the interview we had at Port Republic, requesting that this favour might be solicited of the United States. They are the least culpable: the rest must abide by the consequences.

I wish you health and prosperity; and have the honour to be your humble servant,

TOUSSAINT LOUVERTURE.
