The Porcupine.
I TAKE this method of informing the People of the United States, that on the first day of November next, I propose to resume the publication of Porcupine's Gazette, under the title of THE PORCUPINE; and to notify (in case any gentleman in America should want it) that the price of each Number will be sixpence sterling, and that the cash must be received by me before the paper can be applied.—As to the mode of conveyance, so frequent are the opportunities from London to New-York, that files may be forwarded to the latter place once a fortnight upon an average—from New-York they can be speedily conveyed to every part of the Union. When files can be, without delay, sent to other places direct, it may be done; when they cannot, they will all be sent to New-York, unless otherwise ordered.
Porcupine's Works,
 Which have been sometime in the Press, will be completed in February next, when the copies subscribed for in America will be forwarded to the Subscribers.
 Any of my literary friends in America, who may be disposed to renew their correspondence with me; will please to direct to me at my printing office, No. 3, Southampton street, Strand, or at my Bookeller's shop, No. 18, Pall Mall.
