AS there are no fuch coins in the United States as Pouuds, Shillings and Pence, The Brokers of Philadelphia in future, intend to buy and fell all kinds of Public Stock, at fo much per cent, in Dollars and Cents, which are the proper coins of the United States, and not as heretofore, at so much United States, and not as heretefore, at so much per pound. And to prevent any inconvenience which may arise to those who have been habituated to the old method, the following table is published, showing the sum in Dollars and Cents, per Cent, which correspond with shillings and pence, per pound. They hope the simplicity of the new method, will be pleasing to the citizens of the U.

States, and give general satisfaction.

When the storm rages, and the waters are troubled, tubflances deftined otherwife to obscurity, rife often to the surface. As in the natural world, extraordinary causes produce uncommon effects, fo in the moral, litely. there exists the same connection.

Under what circumflances, but fuch as the prefent, could fuch a bafe, treacherous and unheard-of wherch as Coxe be liftened fociety?

But the antidote to every bane is wifely incorporated there with and dependent thereon, in a manner, not always perceptible, but certainly always admirable and beneficent.

Thus in the wreck of reason, Coxe mounts the Jacobinic scaffold, and assumes to guide the public fentiment and public. orthodoxy in politics and morals , and Coxe in the attempt, betrays his own perfidy, and unparalleled bafeness, in colours so striking as to pierce the thickest gloom of is norance

Mr. Wm. Duncan is chosen Clerk of the House of Representatives of this Pate.

On Friday afternoon, after the Governor had delivered his Speech, M. Boileau, of the House of Representatives, read in his place, a bill for appointing by a joint vote, Electors of Prefident and Vice-Prefident of the United States. It was made the order for this day.

from the finge; been fecond lientenant of I Marines on board the frigure United States unaill of late when he was promoted, if we are right informed, to be first lieutenant ; which is a convine ng proof that his conduct was approved by his superior officers, and addressed to the Editor of the Aurora, such as rendered him worthy of being adand inferted in your Gazette of Thurf- vanced. Since he preferred the stage, he was certainly at liberty to return to it-and had he been negligent shilft an officer, he would have been punished for it, no doubt, but he quit the fervice, without a ffain upon his character; and his friends were pl afed ney, while he was attending the last to see his return to the stage announced; and he may depend upon being supported by them; but we regret the necessity of expreiling the most pointed disapprobation of the conduct of feveral gentlemen on this occaffon, who endeavoured to expel him from the boards, by repeated hiffing.

When he asked them "What have I lone to deserve such treatment"-What answer did they make? None-for they had not one.
