TO THE PUBLIC.

SIX months have elapsed, since the present Editor of this Gazette, became its sole proprietor, by purchase, from Mr. Jno. W. Fenno.

The Gazette of the United States, had from its commencement, been conducted, at different periods, by two gentlemen, of acknowledged talents and respectability;

In the Advertising department, many favours are acknowledged, but as on this particular, rests the ability to meet large pecuniary, weekly disbursements, it is found requisite to solicit a more liberal support.

This paper, exclusive of the number circulated in this city, is read in every town, of any importance, in the United States, and in the advertising line, will be found highly beneficial to the Mercantile part of the community.

It will be deemed superfluous, at this time, to enter into a detail of the political principles of the Editor—the motives which actuate him, and his general plan of editing.

Private characters, are held sacred, generally speaking, but when turbulent aliens and naturalized citizens, become bawlers at town meetings and write libel after libel on the first characters in our country;

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thursday, December 4.

Mr. Hill presented a memorial from Samuel Harrison Smith and Thomas Carpenter, representing that they had undertaken to report the debates of the House, that contrary to their expectation, on the suggestion of inconvenience to the members, they had not received permission to occupy a situation on within the bar, without which, they were unable to state with fidelity the proceedings and debates;

As soon as the memorial was read the Speaker rose and observed, That feeling himself responsible to the house for the faithful discharge of the duties attached to his situation, he thought it proper to state, the line of conduct he had pursued in this business.

Mr. Nicholas said that the members of the House must receive a common interest in having the debates taken with fidelity. If the debates were taken, they ought to be taken with precision. Those who took them should not be debarred from the best means of hearing with accuracy.

Mr. Hill observed that as the memorial contained no facts that required the investigation of a committee, and as the House possessed all the information that could guide their decision, he did not discern the propriety of the proposed reference. He had prepared a resolution, which, if the motion for a reference were withdrawn, he would offer.

Mr. Hill then proposed a resolution substantially to this effect; that Mr. Speaker be requested to assign places within the bar for the Stenographers.

Mr. Otis was sorry the gentleman from Virginia, had withdrawn his motion to refer the memorial to a select committee, as he thought the subject required examination before a decision was made.

Mr. Hill then proposed a resolution substantially to this effect; that Mr. Speaker be requested to assign places within the bar for the Stenographers.

occurred utterly inconvenient. What he had some days since remarked had been anticipated. He well knew that this did not arise from the inability of the reporter to state correctly what occurred.

He declared the objections of Mr. Otis in relation to the number of applicants, perfectly chimerical. Did the gentleman suppose that the number would be so great as to make a demand on our seats? As well might he imagine this, as that they would swell to the ideal compass he had given them.

A question was then taken on the reference to a select committee, and carried, ayes 42, nays 34.

And a committee of five, viz. Messrs. Otis, Nicholas, Platt, Morris, and Hill, was appointed.

For the third time here.

SALEM, December 1.

From the Gazette Universelle.

A paper received from Capt. Wm. Brown, of the Brutus, at Leghorn.

Under Vienna, September 13, we find, the inspectors of the army by a new appointment were, of the infantry on the Rhine, Marquis Zoph, and of the cavalry, General Linden.

In Italy, of the infantry, General Mirrowsky, and of the cavalry, General Milzen. Commander in the Tyrol was Marquis Hiller.

The quarter-master in Italy, was General Zach. Commanders in the infirmary of Hungary, against the insurgents were the Prince Esterhazy, and the Generals Kelspeth, McLaros, Benjouky, and Spleny, the younger.

Albani, formerly auditor of the Apostolical Court, has received the agreeable notice, that his Holiness has conferred upon him the honours of the Cardinalship among the first promotions.

This act has been generally applauded, especially by all who knew his merit, and the talents which he can very advantageously employ in the service of the Catholic Church.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Aug. 30. The Russian fleet had entered the Dardanelles upon their return from the Mediterranean into the Black Sea.

BOLOZNO, Sept. 16. We have now in the Tyrol, 55,000 soldiers 85 Companies of Rangers, and the people under military discipline.

FLORENCE, Sept. 23. The prizes in Painting, Architecture and Sculpture were distributed with great pomp. In Sculpture the exhibitions were much applauded.

LEGHORN Sept. 26. Among other arrivals is a Danish Convoy, the Siren of 40 guns and 286 men with 8 merchant vessels. They come from Bergen, but had touched at Cagliari.

ROME, Sept. 26. The free trade in Grain, which by an edict has been Granted has had the most sudden and happy effect. The arrival of merchant vessels at Civitavecchia, at Fiumicino, and Rida Grande has supplied our wants and we trust has destroyed the inveterate, obstinate and ill judged commercial restrictions of our Ports.

In the royal edict of Naples is the following 7th article. BOSTON, December 3.

FROM TRINIDAD. We were last evening furnished with the Trinidad Gazette of the 18th October, which is several days later than the accounts from Havana, which mention its capture by the French and Spaniards.

In this Gazette we find a Proclamation of Governor PICTON, dated the 11th of October 1800, allowing in consequence of an alarming scarcity of all the articles of provision, American vessels, coming directly from the United States, to bring provisions and lumber of all kinds, the growth of the United States, and to receive in exchange, any other article, the actual produce of that colony, except Indigo, Cotton, Lignum Vitae Wood, for six months from the date thereof.

Captain Chipman, who arrived here on Sunday, in 21 days from St. Thomas's heard nothing of the Havana report of the combined squadron in the West-Indies; and as the convoy with which he failed came from windward, concludes the whole to be a forgery.

Apprehensions are entertained for the safety of the brig Pickering, lieutenant Hiller, of 14 guns, and the Infurgent frigate, captain Bletcher, of 36 guns.
