PARIS, October 16.

The city of Bourdeaux continues to enjoy the greatest tranquillity. Several circumstances have furnished the opportunity of discovering the melioration of the public spirit. The feast of the republic, the translation of the remains of Michael Montaigne, the news of the prolongation of the armistice, and the discourses of the First Consul to the Deputies of the Department, have called forth a manifestation of the good sentiments with a great majority of the inhabitants of this beautiful city are animated. The newspapers assist the magistrates, by their union and the forgetfulness of every fort arrive in abundance. Works which relate to falderion and embellishment, are prodigious activity.

ARMY OF ITALY.

Copy of a Report of the Operations of the right wing of the army of Italy, to the Gen. in Chief Brune, by Lieutenant General Dupont dated 25th of September.

"The body of troops commanded by general Pino, having evacuated the line of the Rubicon, and gone to Bologna, the armed Brigands in Ferrara and Fucany thought the moment a favourable one to throw themselves into Romagna, and commit there every sort of excess without opposition.— They invaded the greatest part of that territory, and advanced as far as Imola, cutting down the trees of liberty, turning the magistrates of the people out of office, and exercising every where the most abominable pillage.

"In order to surprize them in the midst of their incursions, I gave charge to general Moussier to send to Fesli the Cisalpine second half brigade, with a body of light troops from the 14th Hussars and 4th regiment of Chasseurs. The general division Pino, who had the command of that expedition, arrived the 4th complementary day at Faenza, after having pursued the brigands, who had already taken possession of Imola.
They divided themselves into several bodies, one going to Ferrara, another to Ravenna, and a third following the road of Arezzo.
The general formed his troops into three columns in order to overtake them. The brigands, or their way to Ferrara, were attacked near Lugo by one of the columns under the command of Ferrand, chief of brigade. Ferrer took possession of them, and few made their escape.

"On the 5th complementary day the French column destined for Ravenna found there the brigands ready to make resistance.
Their defence was short. The Chasseurs of the 4th regiment, commanded by the chief of brigade Yam, entered, and every man found with arms in his hands was exterminated.

"The same day a detachment of grenadiers surrounded the brigands, who were making their escape towards the Apennines.
A similar fate awaited the third body, and the few who remained hid themselves in the mountains.

"At the moment when Bologna was threatened with an invasion, the national guards acted with great firmness; they formed a column ready to co-operate with the French and Cisalpine troops. I presented to them 6 pieces of cannon, which I am peruaded they will use gloriously against the common enemy.

"The Cisalpine troops employ'd in that expedition have emulated the French in activity and bravery. Gen. Pino has rendered very important services on the occasion to the French and the Cisalpine republic.

DUPONT, Lieut. Gen.

Plan to assassinate Bonaparte.

PARIS, 22 Vendemiaire O. S. 24.

During the first days of the 2d Decade of Vendemiaire, information was received, that a person of the name of Demerville, residing at No. 24 Rue des Moulins, had distributed a considerable sum of money; and that some well known villains frequented his house.

Positive information was received, that on the 11th instant, eleven of these villains were to throw themselves upon the First Consul, when coming out of the Opera.
The Police then took the most active measures to watch them.—On the 18th two of them (one by the name of Cerachi) were arrested in the lobby of the Opera; they were armed with cut-throats. Demerville and some of his accomplices were arrested in the night —they are in pursuit of the others; Demerville and Cerachi have both confessed.
Those wretched miscreants are for the most part, composed of individuals, inured to murder in the massacres of September, and those of Versailles.

BELFAST, October 17.

Copy of a letter from a House of the first respectability in the Corn Trade, Elbing, dated 12th September, to their correspondents in Glasgow.

"We have hitherto experienced such favorable harvest weather, as we have seldom seen in this country; and, notwithstanding the backwardness of the crops of grain in summer, every thing is now in safety in this quarter. Wheat cannot be deemed an abundant crop in this country, but we have reason to expect the quality for the most part will prove much better and heavier than for several years past; and accounts from Austria Poland especially, are equally favourable of quality as of quantity.— Barley and oats are every where in these provinces abundant, and of such good quality in general as to afford very flattering hopes of the existing restraints on their exportation being removed very soon. Pease are also much more abundant and of better quality, than was expected. With regard to the new imports on wheat which amount to about 100 g per last, we have reason to conclude, it will be entirely taken off or greatly modified in the course of the winter if not sooner."

DUBLIN, Oct. 13.

The twopenny loaf this day is increased 14 ounces, the sixpenny loaf being four pounds one quarter, it will in all probability exceed five pounds next week.

Application has, we hear, been made to Government, for permission to resume the malting of beer and barley, in consequence of the happy fall in every denomination of corn.

We are enabled to state the following as a fact, which has powerfully tended to lower the great price of flour in our market.
The reasonable supply of rice at 2s. 2d. per stone, which the industrious and necessitous are favoured with, through the unceasing bounty and benevolence of Marquis Cornwallis to substantially relieve the poor working classes of this metropolis, and which, we are warranted to publish, averages half of Dublin, ordinary consumption of flour, as appears by the weekly returns as follows;

The city of Dublin usually consumed 3400 bags of flour per week, and the recent consumption of the rice above mentioned, is returned to about 2500 bags a week—in consequence of this cheap supply there has been a drawback to that amount to bring down the price of flour, which flour now over-at market must have felt a more material depreciation from the demand for it being less, and the monopolist finding it necessary in his own defence to sell, as the counterac-tion of forefalling, must oblige him to argue that the abundant produce of the harvest will soon cause a plenty of fair prices sufficient to make his stock in hand a means of loss, instead of ill-gotten gains to him.

Letters Patent have passed the Great Seal of this kingdom, constituting and appointing Ponsonby Tottenham, Esq. Clerk of his Majesty's Ordinance in this kingdom, in the room of Richard Magennis, Esq. Resigned.

Patrick Farrel, was executed this day at the front of the New-Prison, for the robbery of Mr. Gresham, of Castle street.

December 17

NEW-YORK, December 13, 1800

Yesterday papers and letters to the 5th inst-were received from Charleston—and what is very extraordinary, there is not a word of the S. Carolina election in either of them.
The disappointment is great.

Just after the brig Morning Star sailed from Malaga, she fell in with the English fleet, which had been driven from before Cadiz by a storm.

It appears by the extracts in this days Gazette, from Irish papers, that a considerable reduction had taken place in the price of the necessaries of life; and that there was a prospect of peace and plenty in Ireland.

In a paper of the 6th October received by the brig Union, we find the following articles:

"The two American Ministers, Messrs.
Davie and Ellsworth, are to set sail from Havre this day. The third, Mr. Murray, will depart to-morrow for the Hague, where he is minister.

Citizen Louis Bonaparte sets off to-morrow for a journey to Germany. He goes first to Prussia.

They write from Rome, that M. Labrador, minister of Spain, has begun the exercise of his functions near Pius VII.

A Piedmontese, named Amoreti, was arrested at Genoa, being the bearer of several letters from the King and Queen of Sardinia directed to Turin.

When the arrival of the Emperor at the army was announced by the firing of guns, and that general Moreau was ap-prized of it, this last sent to the headquarters of the Emperor a general-officer to compliment his majesty.

IMPORTANT.

The Convention of Amity and Commerce, between the U. S. and France we are informed, has been published in the Paris papers. The following is the fourth article.

ARTICLE IV.

"Property captured, and not yet definitely condemned, or which may be captured before the exchange of ratification (contraband goods destined to an enemy's port excepted) shall be mutually restored on the following proof of citizenship, viz.
[Here follows a copy of the form of the passports now used by American vessels.] And this passport shall be sufficient without any other paper, any ordinance to the contrary notwithstanding; which passport shall not be deemed requisite to have been received or recalled, whatever numbers of voyages the said ship may have made, unless she shall have returned home within the space of one year.

Proof with respect to the cargo shall be certificates containing the several particulars of the cargo, the place where the ship sailed, and wither she is bound; so that the forbidden or contraband goods may be distinguished by the certificates, which certificates shall have been made out by the officer of the place whence the ship set sail in the acknowledged form of the country.

And if such passports, or certificates, or both, shall have been destroyed by accidents or taken away by force, their deficiency may be supplied by such other proofs of ownership as are admissible by the general usage of nations.

Proofs with respect to any other than merchant ships shall be the commission they bear. This article shall take effect from the date of the signature of the present provisional treaty. And if from the date of the said signature any property shall be condemned, contrary to the intent of the said treaty, before the knowledge of this stipulation shall be obtained, the property so condemned shall be restored or paid for without delay.

For the fourth time here.

A letter received in town this morning, dated Washington, December 11, announces the arrival of the Portsmouth, M'Neal, at Norfolk, from Havre—General Davie, with the Treaty, is on board.

December the FOURTEENTH.—Each annual return of this inauspicious day, will for ages, remind Americans of the irreparable loss sustained in the death of the MAN who was "first in War, first in Peace, and first in the Hearts of his Countrymen."

The Providence Rhode Island paper, and the New-London (Con.) paper, states that the Electors of Rhode Island gave an unanimous vote for Adams and Pinckney. Presuming the information to be accurate, we have placed the return in our list of votes.

A gentleman, who left the City of Washington on Friday morning, and arrived here yesterday, informs, that late on Thursday evening, letters were received at Washington by gentlemen high in office, dated Columbia, Dec. 2. These letters stated that the Election for Electors of President and Vice President had taken place that day, the result of which was, that the Electors considered as pledged to vote for Jefferson and Burr had succeeded.

The following are the names of seven of them, copied by our informant from one of the letters—the eighth he accidentally omitted.

Robert Anderson
Arthur Simpkins
Wade Hampton
Arthur Love
Theodore Gilliard
Paul Hamilton
Jesse Blight.

Our informant also assures us that the following is a correct list of the Electors appointed by the State of Georgia, and that they are pledged to vote for Jefferson and Burr.

Gen. John Morrison
Doctor Dennis Smelt
John Lumpkin
Henry Graybill.

An Alexandria paper of December 10, says, "Last evening arrived here from Norfolk, citizen Dubrugac. We are informed that this gentleman lately came out from France, as Consul for Cape Francois. Immediately on his arrival in St. Domingo, he was sent by Toussaint Louverture, with dispatches for the government of the United States. He left this place for the City of Washington this morning.

"We are informed, that a Proclamation was lately issued by Toussaint, commanding the Negroes to return to the plantations to which they belonged, and go to work; in consequence of which a mutiny broke out among the blacks, which was quelled by 12 of the ringleaders being executed.

We are enabled to inform the lovers of pleasant, congenial reading, that there is printing by Messrs. Furman and London, of New York, a little volume that has for its title, 'The Farmer of New Jersey, or a Picture of Domestic Life.' The first part of the Tale has excited our mirth, and the latter our sympathy. It cannot fail to interest those whose minds have not lost all relish for the smiling scenes of rural life; and will appeal very forcibly to the breast of every parent, husband, wife, sister or brother, who possess any acquaintance with natural sentiment. N. Y. Gaz.

The English fleet, which were lately be-is continued by six ships of the line.
