Charlotte a tale of truth—by Mrs. Rowson, of the new Theatre, Philadelphia. Second American edition—Price 75 cents. [The rapid sale of the first edition of this interesting novel, in a few months is the best criterion of its merit.]

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, APRIL 1791, p. 463.
"It may be a tale of truth, for it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte is the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school, from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity, or the regularity of her former conduct, is enticed from her governess, and accompanies a young officer to America—the marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the insensibility of her lover and treachery of his friend.
The situations are artless and affecting—the description natural and pathetic; we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who for one error, scarcely, perhaps deserved to sever a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed."

1. The Inquisitor—by Mrs. Rowson. Second Philadelphia edition. 87 1/2 cents.

LANDS for Sale, in Virginia.

ONE Tract of 1204 1-2 acres, in Hampshire county, divided into three surveys: one of 400, another of 400 1-2, and the other 404 acres, on the waters of Indian camp run, and little cape Capon, adjoining the lands of Mr. Hugh Murphy and colonel Greenfield, about one or two miles from the main road leading from Winchester to Romney; taken up and surveyed in the year 1777, and deeds granted for the same from the proprietor's office in 1780—described to be equal to any land in that part of the country.

Also one tract in Fauquier county, of 603 acres, well adapted for tobacco and all kinds of grain; about four miles from the Court-House, joining the main road that leads from thence to Falmouth, from which it is distant about 30 miles, and the same from Dumfries, and about 40 miles from the Federal City and Georgetown. On it there is a large quantity of fine meadow land, and several fine springs and on Turkey Run a never failing stream, which runs through one corner of it just where it joins the main road, there is a fine situation for a merchant's mill. Near one third part of this tract is cleared.

In the State of KENTUCKY,

One Tract of 1000 acres, on Stoner's fork of Licking, granted in consequence of a preemption Treasury warrant, issued in June, 1780, and a patent granted for the same in June 1787, it was first in Fayette County, then in Bourbon, at present in Clark county, about 22 miles from Lexington, 12 or 14 from Bourbon Court House, and about 4 miles from Clark court house, in a thick settled part of the country. General information says the Quality is equal to any 1000 acres of Land in that country.
Terms may be known by applying to
ALEXANDER LITHGOW.
Dumfries, June 1795.

Composition Ornaments,
WHERE every article in that line for the enrichment of Chimney pieces, pilasters, stair cases, bafe, surbase and cornice mouldings, Ionic, Corinthian and Composite columns and pilaster capitals, key stones, trusses, oval and round pateras, and every other ornament for inside and outside work, of public or private buildings may be had. This Manufactory is conducted under the direction of an able artist, late from London, who learned under and followed the business there many years in company with the original inventor of the art. The several patterns from the newest designs, are of masterly workmanship, and executed, at a great expence, under his immediate inspection, forming altogether as complete a set of patterns as the London artists could produce.
Orders taken at No. 21 South Second street.
WILLIAM POYNTELL, & Co.
N. B. Orders for chimney pieces, complete, and to any size, furnished to any part of the continent.
