Horse Academy;

THE Ladies and Gentlemen of Philadelphia and its vicinity are respectfully informed, that a Building of the above description is intended to be immediately erected, under the sole direction of T. SWANN, where Ladies and Gentlemen will be instructed in Riding and managing the Horse according to the established rules of art, and Horses will be properly broke for every purpose. But as the fitting up such buildings will be attended with a heavy expense, he has published proposals, soliciting a subscription to forward this useful Seminary, particulars of which may be seen at Mr. Ormrod's Printing Office Chestnut Street; he will be happy to wait upon any lady or gentleman inclined to honour him with their support and fully explain himself on this subject, a line addressed to him at No. 63, South Third Street will be duly attended to.
Those gentlemen &c. who may have horses labouring with diseases either sick or lame he will attend on them if desired and immediately explain the nature of the complaint and what can be done to help and relieve them—he also engages to cure and make sound horses which have the following complaints, viz. canker'd feet, contracted hoofs, sand cracks, quitters, splints, wind galls, curbs and spavins, either bog or bony, if in their first stages.
He performs a curious manual operation which takes away the cause of blindness from Horses that have bad and weak eyes. The above he has experienced on more than six hundred Horses, with singular success.
Letters addressed to him or addresses left at Major Pancake's, the sign of General Mifflin, north Fourth Street, will be duly attended to.
N. B. Any Lady or Gentleman who have Horses that have been ill broke, and very awkward and unhandy to ride, he will engage to give them six suppling lessons in his temporary manege, at the small expense of only five Dollars, by which their Mouths and actions shall be more altered for the better than is possible to be conceived by those who are unacquainted with the art.
The Lectures on Horsemanship published by T. Swann are to be had at Mr. Ormrod's, Chestnut-Street; where also is contained more concise and genuine instructions on which the art is founded, than are to be had in any publication, comprised in so small a compass, now extant.
