 Land, 45 of which are good watered Meadows, 90 of prime Wood Land, and the rest Arable of the first quality. There are a floor, and Cellars under the whole, with a Pump Well of excellent Water in front; a large frame Barn, Stables, and other convenient buildings; a Smoke-House and Stone Spring House; two Clover, except those immediately under the Mill, and are so situated as to have the advantage of Water in each of them, which renders it peculiarly convenient for Grazing.

 The situation is pleasant and healthy, and from the high cultivation of the Land, the good neighborhood, and the vicinity to the city, it is very suitable for a Gentleman's Country Seat.

A MILL for SALE.
 FOR Sale, on private contract, five undivided fourth parts of that valuable merchant-mill, called Old Pennypack Mill, with two dwelling houses, stables, coopers shop, cast house, and other convenient buildings, with about 20 acres of good land, the greatest part thereof is excellent watered meadow, the remainder garden, orchard, and wood land; situate ten miles from Philadelphia, near the Washington Turnpike, partly on the post-road leading to New-York, and partly on the River road; a remarkably healthy country, and an excellent neighbourhood. This mill being on a Pennypack creek, a heavy stream of water, with about 15 feet head and fall, and the tide flowing about 6 feet, will admit a vessel carrying 1350 bushels of wheat to lay along side, and unload into the mill with Evans's elevator in about three hours. The mill house is large and built of stone, founded on a rock, the walls uncommonly thick and strong, (such a piece of masonry work is rarely to be found) contains five floors, two water wheels, and three pair of the best French burr stones all running, double geared, with three boulding reels and cloths of the first quality, rolling screen, cylinder, and pass for cleaning wheat in the best manner, and passing it afterwards by an elevator into a hanging garner; also, conveyers, elevators, and hopper box, all in complete order. There are two large frame buildings adjoining the mill, which are convenient for storing flour, shorts, casks, &c. A corn-kiln is erected within the building, with boulding, reel cloth, and other necessary fixtures for manufacturing large quantities of kiln-dried corn meal. The stream of water is so constant that upwards of 60,000 bushels of wheat have frequently been manufactured at this mill, annually. The tumbling dam was built of stone and frame about 30 years ago, but the late extraordinary freshes have made a breach therein, it can easily be repaired altogether with stone, the greatest part of which is already at hand, and the remainder can be quarried near the dam, as there are several good quarries of excellent stone on the premises, and adjacent to the creek; the contiguity of this very valuable estate to Philadelphia, and the easy navigation for shallops, with the above-mentioned great advantages, and many others not here mentioned, must be obvious to any person who may view the premises.
 An indisputable title, clear of all incumbrances, will be made to the purchaser on paying part of the money, and giving satisfactory security for the remainder, payable with interest in instalments at such times as may be agreed on. For further particulars enquire on the premises of FRANCIS LEWIS, Executrix to the estate of Robert Lewis, deceased; JOHN SWIFT, near Buffel-Town; or NATHAN-IEL LEWIS, or DAVID LEWIS, in Philadelphia.

 Charlotte a tale of truth—by Mrs. J. Wilson, of the new Theatre, Philadelphia. Second American edition—Price 75 cents. [The rapid sale of the first edition of this interesting novel, in a few months is the best criterion of its merit.]

EXTRACT FROM THE CRITICAL REVIEW, APRIL 1791, p. 468.
 "It may be a tale of truth, but it is not unnatural, and it is a tale of real distress—Charlotte, by the artifice of a teacher, recommended to a school, from humanity rather than a conviction of her integrity, or the regularity, of her former conduct, is enticed from her governers, and accompanies a young officer to America—the marriage ceremony, if not forgotten, is postponed, and Charlotte dies a martyr to the inconstancy of her lover and treach-ery of his friend.
 The situations are artless and affecting—the description natural and pathetic: we should feel for Charlotte if such a person ever existed, who for one error, scarcely perhaps deserved to sever a punishment. If it is a fiction, poetic justice is not, we think, properly distributed."

LOTTERY INTELLIGENCE.
 We are informed that the gentleman who drew the 15,000 dollar prize, in the Canal Lottery, was the proprietor of only a single Ticket—This instance of good fortune, shows that it is well to be in Fortune's road; and is the more pleasing, as the owner of the prize is a very worthy, though not a very affluent citizen.
 The Scheme of the Canal Lottery is certainly one of the best which has appeared—for, independent of the useful objects to which its proceeds are to be applied, the scheme is so calculated as to continually enhance the value of the Tickets remaining in the wheel, because, while the drawing progresses, the chance of a capital prize growing greater, must increase the value of the undrawn Ticket.
 The Prizes drawn to the close of the drawing on last Wednesday Evening, were

1 of	15,000
2 of	2,000
4 of	500
11 of	100
1700 of	12
1 of	50,000
1 of	30,000
6 of	10,000
6 of	2,500
9 of	2,000
15 of	1,000
16 of	500
39 of	100
14800 of	12

 And 5 stationary prizes of 20,000 dollars each; by which, and the nature of those 5 stationary prizes, which are to belong to the five last drawn tickets, it will be found, that an undrawn ticket was yesterday morning, worth nearly 11 1-2 dollars, which, at the beginning, was worth no more than 10 dollars—and to the undrawn tickets must continue to increase in value, as fall as the drawing proceeds: And this circumstance will account for the number of Offices which are opened for the sale of Tickets, as the profit must be daily increasing; and in a few days a Ticket now selling at 11 dollars, will no doubt command 15 dollars, and must continue to get higher as the drawing approximates to the five stationary prizes of 20,000 dollars each.

At a Meeting of the Stockholders in the Insurance Company of the State of Pennsylvania, on the 25th May last, convened for the purpose of fixing the time of payment of the remaining part of the Capital Stock of said Company, Resolved, that the remaining sum of two hundred dollars per share, be paid on the 6th day of November next, under the penalties annexed to default by the act of Incorporation.
