The Panorama.

I ICE PADOFAMA. MR. SAVAGE refpectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of Philadelphia that the PANORAMA is now opened in High-fireet, between toth and 17th fireets. The Subject is a view of the Cities of London and Wechminfter, comprehending the three bridges, South-wark, Surrey, and St. George's Fields in the Borough, with every other object which appears from the top of the Albion mills, at the end of Blackfriars Bridge, oppofite she city of London, from whence this view was taken, The painting contains nearly 3,000 fourse feet of canvas. Being in a circle gives every object its proper bearing, and exhibits it in its true point of compars, appearing as large and in every refpect the fame as the reality. Price of admiffies half a dolla. Tickets for the Seaton three dollars.
