The Panorama.

MR. SAVAGE respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of Philadelphia that the PANORAMA is now opened in High-street, between 10th and 11th streets. The Subject is a view of the Cities of London and Wessminster, comprehending the three bridges, Southwark, Surrey, and St. George's Fields in the Borough, with every other object which appears from the top of the Albion mills, at the end of Blackfriars Bridge, opposite the city of London, from whence this view was taken, The painting contains nearly 3,000 square feet of canvas. Being in a circle gives every object its proper bearing, and exhibits it in its true point of compass, appearing as large and in every respect the same as the reality.

Price of admission half a dollar Tickets for the Scaton three dollars.

This Lottery will afford an elegant specimen of the ivace buildings to be erected in the City of Washington – Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire roms on two of the public squares; from these drawings, it is proposed to erect two centre and sour corner buildings, as so no as possible after this Lottery is sold, and to coavey them when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A nett deduction of sive per cent. will be made to destay the necessary expences of printing, &c. and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be exceed within the City of Washington.

Wathington.

The drawing will commence as foon as the Tickets are fold off.—The money prizes will be payable in thirty days after it is finished, and any prizes for which fortunate numbers are not produced within twelve months after the drawing is closed are to be considered as given towards the fund for the University, it being determined to fettle the whole busness in a year from the ending of the drawing and to take up the bonds given as security.

The real fecurities given for the payment of the Prize are held by the President and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the Lottery.

The twenty four gentlemen who by appointment of the late Commissioners assisted in the management of the Hotel Lottery are requested to undertake this arduous talk a second time on behalf of the public; a sufficient number of these having kindly accepted, it is hoped that the friends to a National University and the other sederal objects may continue to favor the design. The synopsis of one of the Colleges, to form a branch of the National Institution, is already in the press, and will be speedily published, together with its constitution.

A compleat Plan of the whole of this Important

A compleat Plan of the whole of this Important nftitution, compiled from a felection of the best materials, ancient and modern, will be submitted to the public whenever the same may have gone through such revisions as may be necessary to establish the perfect considence and general approbation, so essential to its present rise and future existence for the general good of America.

By accounts received from the different parts of the Continent as well as from Europe, where the tickets have been sent for sale, the public are assured that the drawing will speedily commence, and that the case and caution unavoidably necessary to insure a fase disposal of the tickets, has rendered the inore suspension indispensable.

THIS DAY WAS PUBLISHED, For THOMAS DOBSON, No. 41, So. Second firest, Vol. I. Part II. of

The Political Register, Or, proceedings in the Session of Congress, commencing November 3, 1794, and ending March 3, 1795,

By JAMES THOMSON CALLENDER. TO THE PUBLIC.

During the last session of Congress, minutes of the proceedings in the house of Representatives were published in several Daily Papers. It has been suggested, as an acceptable service to the public, to collect and reprint the minutes, in a more durable form than that of a Newspaper. Several members of Congress have supplied a variety of additions, that never had reached the press. The Journal of the house has been confulted to supply some deficiences, and to correct some inaccuracies, inevitable in the haste of a daily publication. The Journal of the Senate has likewise been incorporated with the text; and no degree of diligence has been spared to make the book authentic and complete. The debates of last sellion respecting Democratic Societies, the admission of foreign nobility as American Citizens, the existence of the sellion respectively. tic Societies, the admittion of foreign nobility as American Citizens, the excise on certain manufactures, the indemnification of sufferers in the late insurrection, the vote of thanks to General Wayne and his army, the State of the South Western frontier, along with some other discussions, were well adapted to excite curiosity, and merit preservation as an interesting part of American history.

At T. Dobson's may also be had, the following pub lications.

1st. Proceedings in an action for dcbt, between Charles James Fox, plaintist, and John Horne Tooke, defendant—Price five fixteenths of a Dollar. The dialogue between Lord Kenyon, and the defendant, displays one of the most singular scenes to be met with, either in works of fancy, or in real life.

2d. The Political Progress of Britain; or, an Impartial History of abuses in the Government of the British Empire, in Europe, Asia, and America. From the Revolution in 1638, to the present time.

PART SECOND, price 40 Cents.

The former Pamphlet, under this title, printed in Philadelphia, has been re-published in London, and met with an extensive sale. The second part is a continuation of the work on the same plan. Jan. 7, 1796.
