TO THE PUBLIC.
THE object of the proposed work, is, to prefent to public view a connected feries of the chief events of a period of American history, that does not yield, in importance, to any period of caual length, in the peaceful annals of any country in the world.
Defiring to excite no expectations but fuch as he fhall endeavour to fa isfy, the writer is thus early in announcing, that the body and confistence of a regular history, is not to be looked for in this work : neither his tale.ts nor his avocations allow him to hope for this. His humbler tafk fhall be to fixetch out the most inter league path-for abler hands, who, by fuch means, will find their labours abridged, and their progress accelerated.
His chief view will be, to give the History of the United States as a confederated Republic. Nevertheles, notice will be taken of the most remarkable circumfrances in the history of the individual States, as far as they can be collected. This information fhall be claffed under feparate appendixes.
