VII. Subscriptions received by the Author, No. 118, Market-street, and by the chief Booksellers throughout the United States.

TO THE PUBLIC.

THE object of the proposed work, is, to present to public view a connected series of the chief events of a per od of American history, that does not yield, in importance, to any period of equal length, in the peaceful annals of any country in the world.

Desiring to excite no expectations but such as he shall endeavour to fa isfy, the writer is thus early in announcing, that the body and consistence of a regular history, is not to be looked for in this work: neither his tale..ts nor his avocations allow him to hope for this. His humbler task shall be to sketch out the most prominent seatures. It shall be to sketch out the most prominent seatures. It shall be his study to collect and arrange the most interesting materials—to smooth the rugged pathfor abler hands, who, by such means, will find their labours abridged, and their progress accelerated.

His chief view will be, to give the History of the United States as a confederated Republic. Nevertheless, notice will be taken of the most remarkable circumstances in the history of the individual States, as far as they can be collected. This information shall be classed under separate appendixes.

The Author solicits the affistance of such Gentlemen

50,000 Tickets, at Eight Dollars, 40,0000

N. B. To favour these who may take a quantity of Tickets, the prize of 40,000 dollars will be the LAST drawn ticket, and the 30,000 the LAST but ONE:

And approved notes, securing payment in either money or prizes, in ten days after drawing, will be received for any numbea not less than 30 tickets.

This Lottety will assord an elegant specimen of the private buildings to be crecked in the City of Washington—Two beautiful designs are already selected for the entire sonts on two of the public squares; from these drawings, it is proposed to creck two centre and sour corner buildings, as soon as possible after this Lottery is sold, and to coavey them when complete, to the fortunate adventurers, in the manner described in the scheme for the Hotel Lottery. A nett deduction of five per cent, will be made to destray the necessary expences of printing, &c. and the surplus will be made a part of the fund intended for the National University, to be erecked within the City of Washington.

Washington.

The drawing will commence as foon as the Tickets are fold off.—The money prizes will be payable in thirty days after it is finished, and any prizes for which fortunate numbers are not produced within twelve months after the drawing is closed are to be considered as given towards the fund for the University, it being determined to fettle the whole business in a year from the ending of the drawing and to take up the bonds given as security.

The real securities given for the payment of the Prize are held by the President and two Directors of the Bank of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of Columbia, and are valued at more than half the amount of the Lottery.

The twenty four gentlemen who by appointment of the late Commissioners assisted in the management of the Hotel Lottery are requested to undertake this arduous task a second time on behalf of the public; a sufficient number of these having kindly accepted, it is hoped that the friends to a National University and the other sederal objects may continue to favor the design.

By accounts received from the disserent parts of the Contineut as well as from Europe, where the tickets have been sent for sale, the public are assured that the drawing will speedily commense, and that the care and caution unavoidably necessary to insure a safe disposal of the tickets, has rendered the short suspension indispensable.

SAMUEL BLODGET.
