CONGRESS.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

SATURDAY, May 28. The bill for faisfying the claim of the repréfen-tatives of the late Baron Steuben, was read the third time and paffed.

Mr. Sitgreaves reported a bill to authorize the Prefident of the United States to caufe to be located one mile square of land at or near the mouth of the Great Miami River, referved out of the grant of John Cleves Symmes, which was twice read and ordered to be engroffed for a third reading to-day, which it afterwards received and paffed.

The report of the committee of Elections, to whom was recommitted the petition of Matthew Lyon, complaining of an undue election and return of Israel Smith, for the flate of Vermont, recommending a reiolution to the adoption of the house, declaring Mr. Smith not to be entitled to his feat, was taken up for confideration. The firting men ber spoke at confiderable length on the subject, giving his reasons why the election finald not be det afide and Mr. Swift replied, explaining the mo-tives which had influenced the decision of the committee of elections.

On-the conclusion of Mr. Swift's observations, Mr. Giles moved that this fubject frould be postponed till Monday to take up the confideration of the matters in dispute betwixt the Senate and that houfe, which was agreed to. Mr. Gal atin, from the committee appointed to confer with the Senate on the fubject matter in dif. pute between the two houfes on the bill providing for payment of certain debts of the United States, made a report. The house receded from their difagreement to the amendment of the Senate, which, inftead of making the five millions payable, after the year 1819, in five equal and fuccessive annual instalments, directs payment to be made after that period, at the pleasure of the United States. The committee confented to agree to the amendment of the Senate to firike out the latter part of the third claufe, which directs' that the 6 per cents fock to be created shall pot fell under par, on condition of a refricting claufe being admitted, to pre-vent more than a moiety of fuch flock from being fold under par.

This agreement of the committee occafioned confiderable debate. The principle of felling any part of the 6 per cent. Stock under par was re-probated by Meffrs. Swanwick, Giles, Havens, and Lyman, as introducing a bad practice into our fi-nancial proceedings, and that as it had been under-flood the bank would be fatisfied with two millions of dollars at prefent, there was no necessity for felling any part of the 6 per cent flock under par, as the two millions of bank flock would doubtlefs fell above par, and would be equal to the fatisfying of their prefent demands. But it was faid by Mr. Gallatin, who was one of the committee of conference, that he was unwilling to have fold any part of the 6 per cent flock to be created, under par, if it could have been avoided; but gentlemen were mistaken with respect to the bank's being fatisfied with two millions at prefent. The commit-tee had been told by a gentleman in the Senate (whom he believed was a director of the bank) that, if the bank flock was not fold, and two mil lions and a half of the 6 per cent flock was permit-ted to be fold on the beft terms which could be got, the bank would be fatisfied ; but, otherwife they must have the whole five millions paid them. The committee, therefore, thought it best not to agree to any condition of the kind mentioned, but provide for the payment of the whole and this they could not do in any other way than that propoled. Mr. Nicholas, Mr. Coit and Mr. W. Smith, fpoke in favor of this report ; and the queffion was taken by yeas and nays, on motion of Mr. Swanwick, as

as follows:

Harper.

On motion of Mr. W: Smith, the Yeas and Nays were taken three times upon this fubject ; first upon the first amandment, which went to alter the principle of the bill, by admitting the State into the Union, inflead of directing a cenfus to be taken for the purpole, and was as follows : YEAS.

Meffrs. Barley, Baldwin, Baird, Benton, Blount, Brent, Bryan, Cabell, Claiborne, Coles, Crabb, Earle, Findley, Franklin, Gallatin, Giles, Gillefpie, Green-up, Gove, Hampton, Hancock, Harrifon, Ha-thorn, Havens, Heath, Heilter, Houland, Jackfon, Locke, W. Lyman, Maclay, Macon, Madifon, Milledge, Moore, New, Nieholas, Pretton, Rich-ards, Rutherford, Ifrael Smith, R. Sprigg, jun. T. Sprigg, Swanwick, Tatem, Van Cortlandt, Vena-ble, Winn-48.

NAYS.

N A Y S. Meffrs, Bourne, Bradbury, Coit, Cooper, Dent, A. Foster, D. Foster, Gilbert, Gilman, Glenn, Goodrich, Griswold, Harper, Henderfon, Kittera, S. Lyman, Malbone, Murray, Sitgreaves, Jer. Smith, N. Smith, Ifaac Smith, W, Smith, Swift, Thatcher, Thompfon, Tracy, Van Alen, Wadf-worth, Williams-30. The next amendment was the introduction of a claufe recognizing the right of that that to fond

claufe recognizing the right of that flate to fend one Repreferatative into that house, until the period of taking the next cenfus all over the union, and that the laws of the United States (hould have the fame force in the flate of Tenneflee, as in all other parts of the Union.

Mr. Maeon moved to firike out one Reprefentative, and infert two reprefeutatives, to which he thought they were entitled.

This was opposed on all fides, as giving an ad-santage to this flate over all others, whole reprefentation was fixed in the year 1790. The Yeas and Nays were taken, when all the members in the house were in the negative-except Meffrs. Frankhin, Greenup, Holland, Macon and Rutherford, and the motion was therefore loft 62 to 5.

Mr. W. Smith called for a division of the queltion, and that part relative to the flate being entitled to one representative, being put, it was carried by the yeas and nays being taken, 41 to 29; the houfe being divided in the fame way as upon the first amendment, except that Mesfrs. Baldwin, Brent, Coles, Gillespie, Hancock, Heath, and Winn, who voted in the affirmative of the former question, and Mr. Bourne, who voted in the negative, were, on this division, out of the Loufe.

The other part of this amendownt was carried manimoufly, and the bill was ordered to be engrofled for a third reading on Monday. A meffage was received from the Prefident, informing the house that he had approved and figned the act laying a tax on carriages, and an act for the relief and protection of American seamen.

A meffage was also received in writing from the Prefident, informing the houle, that a farther ap-propriation was neceffary for the fupport of foreign correspondence. An effimate accompanied the meffage, by which it appeared upwards of 23,000 dol-lars would be wanted, in addition to what had already been appropriated.

A meffage was received from the Senate inform-ing the house that the Prefident had approved and figned the act, which originated in that house, for relief of perfons imprifoned for debt ; and that the Senate had come to a refolution to authorize the Prefident of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives, to close the present sel-tion on Wednesday next, the first of June.

CONTINUATION OF

Foreign Intelligence. By the Snow HEBE, Capi. GAR, in Forty Nine days from London.

LONDON, April 2.

A duel of a very extraordinary nature took place lately at Hamburgh between Gen. W. and Col. I. both officers of the Guards. It originated in a quarrell at a gaming-table. They went out to fight with broad fwords. At the first ftroke col. 1. cut off three fingers of the right hand of general W. the matter ended there for the prefent ; but it is fupposed that another meeting will take place. An alteration, it is faid, is to take place in the drefs of the infantry. Long coats are to be wholly laid afide.

Lieut. Pine, who fo gallantly fignalized himfelf on the Battery of Herqui, is the officer who fome time ago preferred a petition to the King at Winc-for, flating the difficulty he experienced in being employed in the fervice, owing to the lofs of his

The Marquis of Cornwallis is now making a fur-vey of the polts established along the Kent and Suffex Coalts: He inspected the garrison of Canterbury on Thursday, and on Friday proceeded to Dover.

Mr. Pitt's intended tax on Legacies and Inheritances is nearly an exact copy of that imposed by Augustus, when he established a permanent military force for the defence of his Government, and fr the extraordinary expendes of War. Gibbon, in his Roman Empire, vol. I. oct. ed. p. 263, fays, -- "The apple revenue of the Excife, though peculiarly appropriated to those ules, was found in-adequate. To supply the deficiency, the Emperor suggefled a new tax of five per cent, on all Legacies and Inheritances ; but the nubles of Rome were more tenacious of property than of freedom. Their indignant mumurs were received by Auguflus with his usual temper : he candidly referred the whole bufinels to the Senate, and exhorted them to pr vide for the public fervice by fome other expedient of a lefs odious nature. They were divided and perplexed. He intimated to them that their obffinacy would oblige him to propofe a general land tax and capitation. They acquiefeed in filence. The new imposition on legacies and inheritances was however, mitigated by fome reftrictions-It did, not take place unlefs the object was of a certain value, nor could it be exacted from the nearest of kin." The confequence of this law, however, was, that "in the courfe of two or three generations, the whole property of the fubject must have gradually paffed through the coffers of the flate." The following very extraordinary circumfance took place, a few days lince, at Penly, in Buck-inghamshire :- A fwan, while sitting on her eggs, on the fide of the river, observed a fox swimming towards her from the opposite store, and rightly judging the could encounter the enemy beft in her own element, inftantly darted into the water, and having beat off the fox for a confiderable time with her wings, actually fucceeded in drowning him, to the aftonifimment of feveral perfons, spectators of this fingular phænomenon.

Extract of a Letter from a Mercantile House to their Correspondent here.

London, April 4. "We had but a middling supply of Wheat from Effex and Kent this morning, but having fome confiderable arrivals from the northward, and Government bringing forward a turther quantity for fale, and the country markets in the nei hbourhood of Reprefentatives (as has been aheady flated when having been very well supplied daft week and prices the bufinefs was before under dif uffion) contend much fallen, we experienced an exceffive heavy fale that the proceedings of these people have been to again to day, at a decline of 12s. to 15s. per quar-far regular, as to authorize the admission of them the from the prices of this day week. The town es a flate into the Union, but by the bill fent from is exceeding full of North Country Flour, for which there is no fale at prefent, though offered at very reduced prices .- No price for Rye.

The fupply of Barley being very fhort to day, the best lamples fetched rather more money, but expressed in the house, the report was supported by Malt continues extremely dull.-Beans and Peace Messes. Giles, Nicholas, Madifon, Gallatin, Vena. of all forts very heavy fale, and further declined.

LONDON, April 5, We have mentioned that a Committee of gentlemen had met at the London Tavern, to confider the diffrefied flate of public eredit, and that they were to meet Mr. Pitt on the fubject as yekerday. The names of these gentlemen have been rather incorrectly flated in this and every other paper -The following is a correct flatement of the gentlemen who formed the committee :

Sir STEPHEN LUSHINGTON, Chair.

Mr. Alderman Henderfon, Mr. Alderman Lufhington, Mr. Inglis, and Sir James Saunderfon,

Mr. Boyd, Mr. Angerstein.

The futject of the deliberations, and the report of the committee not being yet in that flate of ma-turity as to be fit for publication, we are only per-mitted at prefent to flate the general relult of the proposition which was yesterday submitted to Mr. Pitt on the part of the Committee, who were with the Minister near an hour and an half. In confequence of the extended trade of the country, and the narrowed circulation of the bank paper, every mercantile man has lately felt the greatest inconvenience in carrying on his bufinefs, on account of the limitation which the bank has preferibed to itfelf in discounting bills. To remedy this inconvenience, the committee have generally propoled, that a paper currency fhould be issued for a limited ime, not exceeding one year, under the fanction of parliament, and under the controul of 25 commistioners, towards the aid of public credit; and that this paper, to iffued, fhould be either payable at fight (to do which a fund fhould be raifed) or bear on interett, as fuited the holder.

This propolition produced a long conversation
