VIENNA, March 13

The princels royal of France was prefented yelterday at court to a very numerous and brillient circle ? her royal highnefs was prefented by the empress herfelf to the ambaffadors and their ladies, and to fome other ladies of the first rank : after which the other ministers and nobility were prefented to the princels. The scene was interesting and affecting, and particularly fo to the Imperial Family, who feemed to feel it very fenfibly. The princels royal was much touched at the attention fhewn to her, and her embarrafiment upon her entering the room added luftre to her beauty, as well as to the room added futtre to her beauty, as well as to the grace and affability with which her royal high-nefs returned the compliments paid to her. Her royal highnefs particularly faid the handformeft things poffible to marshals Lascey, Clairfayt, Col-loredo, Pollegrinl, and to count Trautmansdorf, when they were presented to her. Six noble emigrants were alfo prefented to the princefs, who received them with much fenfibility. In the evening the princels appeared at the Theatre, and was received with the most violent bursts of applause.

mally sufpended-Perroud is gone to the City of St. Domingo, it is faid to meet the Commiffaries from France ; but many doubt the truth of the report of their arrival. The fituation of Government here and at the Cape is lamentable indeed. The General is obliged to have a vaft number of troops with him for his protection, and he is without a fingle barrel of flour-they have become clamorous, and without fpeedy relief the worlt of confequences are to be apprehended. Here we are not fo bad ly off for provisions ; but the troops are fo much haraffed with conftant duty, that there are many malcontents : to infure fafety to the town, they are conftantly obliged to patrol, and fearcely a week paffes but we are menaced with burning the town, killing all the Whites and Mulattoes, and these me-naces by the Africans, who do not know what they want."

Extract of a Letter from Boston-dated May 26. "The two branches of our Legislature, by joint vote, have, agreeably to the Constitution, filled up the vacancies in the Senate ; and in every inflance a felection has been made of the federal candidates."

On the 21st of March, the Directory of France fated that the forced loan had produced 8,069 millions in affignats—and five millions fix hundred and feventy thousand in specie. The affignats in circulation are reduced therefore to 28 thousand nillions.
